THE WEATHER

Unsettled today; probably occasional showers tonight and Tuesday; moderate, east winds.
Sun rises 4:38; sets 7:04.
Moon rises 10:10 p. m.
High tide 4:15 a. m.; 4:38 p. m.
Maximum temperature 70 at 1 p. m. Minimum temperature 65 at 3 a. m. Average 67. Temperature at 4 p. m. 69.

BOSTON AMERICAN

NEW ENGLAND'S GREATEST HOME NEWSPAPER

Circulation Greater Than All the Other Boston Evening Papers Combined

FINAL EDITION EXTRA

VOL. 12—No. 134. Copyright 1915 by N. E. Newspaper Pub. Co. BOSTON, MONDAY, AUGUST 2, 1915. Registered in U. S. Patent Office. PRICE ONE CENT.

Police Fight Mob at Becker Funeral

PURSUE FLEEING RUSSIANS

10,000 IN RIOTOUS FUNERAL SCENE

By International News Service.

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—Charles Becker was buried today.

Battles between a meagre police guard and nearly 10,000 morbidly curious marred the funeral services of the former police lieutenant, who died in the electric chair in Sing Sing on Friday. Men and women were clubbed and punched by the police, and the mob in front of the Becker home and the church where the services were conducted fought back.

When the coffin containing Becker's body was brought from the Becker home, No. 2,291 University avenue, a crowd of over 3,000, which had been held in check by twenty policemen, fought past the cordon and charged at the coffin.

POLICE SWEPT BACK.

The police were swept aside, and it was only after nearly five minutes of battling and with the aid of ten plain clothes men that the squad under Captain John Reitz was able to clear a passage for the pallbearers who carried the body three blocks to the church of St. Nicholas of Tolentine.

The mob followed the funeral procession to the church, where it was joined by another crowd of about 7,000 which had been waiting there.

Reinforcements of police were rushed to the scene, but even then the police were unable to beat back the crowd until it had battled for nearly ten minutes.

A low requiem mass was said over the body of Becker. Rev. Father George Dermody was the celebrant. He is assistant pastor of the church.

WOMEN FALL IN FAINT.

No eulogy was delivered. The service was very simple and lasted only about thirty minutes. All during the services, however, the crowd outside continued its battles with the police and the shrieks of the women mingled with the curses of the men. Throughout the service the fighting continued. More than a score of women, who were unable to get out of the jam, fainted.

The Becker coffin was covered

Continued on Page 2, Column 4.

Want Two Labor Unions Restrained

Two petitions to restrain officers and members of labor unions from interfering with business firms were filed in the Superior Court today, one by Julius Hurwitz, a Parkman street baker, against the Bakers' and Confectioners' Workers' Union, Local 45, and the other by Ira J. Hunt and the New England Supply Company against Local 263, International Union of Steam and Operating Engineers. The former petition is returnable tomorrow and the latter Thursday.

Offices Damaged by Roxbury Fire

Careless use of matches, the police say, caused a $2,000 fire today in the three-story brick building, owned by Wolf Goldstein, at No. 347 Blue Hill avenue, Roxbury. The fire started on the first floor, occupied by William D. Wheeler, and worked to the second floor by a rear stairway, damaging several offices.

Dies of Broken Neck.

NEW LONDON, Ct., Aug. 2.—Joseph Trezell of Holyoke, Mass., seventeen, who has been at the Memorial Hospital for a week with a broken neck, as a result of diving into shallow water at Crescent Beach, died today.

FIRST PICTURES OF $30,000,000 WEDDING PARTY

Copyright, 1915, by International News Service.

Howard Spaulding, Jr., and his $30,000,000 bride, photographed just after their wedding. At the left is James B. Forgan, bride's guardian. Below, from left to right, are bride and attendants, Isabel Stroh, Rosamond Goodrich, Mrs. Donald McFerran, Mrs. Howard Spaulding, Jr., Jane Vincent, Christine Miller.

CHICAGO, Aug. 2.—Owing to the break with Miss Elizabeth Goodrich, who was to have been maid of honor when Miss Catherine Barker, the $30,000,000 heiress and richest girl in the world, wed Howard H. Spaulding, Jr., the couple decided not to stop in this city a few days as planned and they are today speeding westward toward San Francisco.

Mrs. Spaulding intended to stay here long enough to make her will. Under the Indiana laws, in which State the most of her property is located, her husband would have little chance to come into the vast Barker estate unless his wife left a will.

She was advised by her guardian, James B. Forgan, to make a will before she left this country on a honeymoon journey to Honolulu and the Orient.

It is understood that gossip which declared that Miss Goodrich had made the statement that Spaulding was marrying the young heiress for her fortune was responsible for the misunderstanding between Miss Goodrich and Spaulding.

The trouble grew to such proportions that Miss Goodrich withdrew from the wedding party and refused to act as maid of honor for her best friend. Again the trouble caused the couple to set out on their honeymoon without Spaulding having the assurance of any more money than the law will allow in the event of his bride's death.

Mrs. Spaulding refused to make any comment concerning the Goodrich trouble while she was in this city. When questioned concerning the matter she simply shrugged her shoulders.

The couple arrived here with a half carload of trunks, accompanied by Edson Manierre of Chicago, Daniel Willard of Baltimore and Mason B. Starring, Jr., of New York, who were among the wedding guests and who boarded the train at Petoskey with the young couple Saturday night.

The entire party breakfasted at the Blackstone Hotel. Later Mr. and Mrs. Spaulding attended mass at St. Mary's Church, going thence to a luncheon given the party by Edson Manierre.

Later they went to the apartment at No. 221 Walton place, which they selected for their Chicago home several weeks ago and which has been decorated in readiness for them.

TRUCE IN EATON CASE

WIFE GIVES TO HELP INMAN

Mrs. Mary Inman, wife of George S. Inman, the missing cashier of the United Fruit Company, today voluntarily appeared before Acting District Attorney Thomas D. Lavelle and offered to aid the authorities in every possible way to clear up the mystery following her husband's sudden disappearance last Monday.

Through her counsel, Attorney Aaron J. Lyman, who accompanied her to the District Attorney's office, it was made known that Mrs. Inman has voluntarily made restitution to the bonding company of property exceeding $10,000.

Mrs. Inman was closeted in the District Attorney's office an hour. When she left she was sobbing bitterly. Attorney Lyman said:

"Mrs. Inman came here voluntarily. She knows absolutely nothing about this affair of her husband's. It was as much of a shock to her as it was to his employers and friends. She has not seen or heard from her husband since he disappeared.

GIVES UP OWN STOCKS.

"Mrs. Inman is voluntarily doing all she can to make restitution. She has turned over all her property to the National Surety Company—the company that went bonds for her

Continued on Page 3, Column 7.

MAY CALL OFF EATON TRIAL

The first step in what promises to be a complete settlement without trial of the divorce suit of Charles S. Eaton, millionaire owner of Thompson's Spa, was taken today at Salem.

While Mr. and Mrs. Eaton waited outside in the court room, their counsel conferred with Judge Jenney for over three hours. After the conference Judge Jenney announced:

"The Eaton case has been given a general continuance. Mr. Eaton has agreed to pay all the costs."

While counsel for neither side would talk, lawyers conversant with the case said that the court's announcement meant that Mr. Eaton would secure a divorce in September or October without contest, that he would pay all costs, including preparations for the contest planned by Mrs. Eaton, and that Mrs. Eaton would be given a generous settlement by Eaton.

Principals and counsel seemed very much pleased after the conference.

Mr. Eaton, who is the proprietor of Thompson's Spa, came to the court room with his two sons, Ezra and Charles. He was represented at the conference with Judge Jenney by Mr. Sears and James M. Hoye, of Whipple, Sears & Ogden.

Mrs. Eaton appeared in the court-room at 3:55. With her were five fashionably gowned women, said to have come with her from Pasadena, Cal. She was represented by Charles F. Choate, of Choate, Hall & Stewart, and James D. Colt.

The defendant in the famous divorce case wore a dark blue suit, dark hat with dark feather, white waist with lace collar falling over the neck of her coat.

Two British Steamers Are Reported Sunk

By International News Service.

LONDON, Aug. 2.—The British steamer Clintonia, 3,838 tons, has been sunk, it was announced by the Admiralty today. Fifty-four of the persons on board were saved and eleven were lost.

The Admiralty also announces that the British steamer Fulgenz has been sunk at sea. Her crew of 22 and two passengers were saved.

Lynn Man Held in $6,500 in Auto Case

William L. Dowling, of 19 Merchant street, Lynn, appeared today before Judge Bosson of the Chelsea court, charged with drunkenness and with operating an automobile while under the influence of liquor. He pleaded not guilty and his case was continued until August 9. Bail was fixed at $6,500. Patrick F. Dowling, of Lowell, brother to William, who was in the same car, was charged with drunkenness and held in $50. The charges are the result of a collision on the Revere Beach Boulevard, Saturday, with a car owned by W. P. Bostworth of Brockton.

Lake Ship Ashore, but Is Soon Floated

CHICAGO, Aug. 2.—The steamer Manitou of the Northern Michigan Transportation Company, one of the fastest liners on the Great Lakes, ran aground shortly before 8 a. m. today near Wilson avenue beach, on the North Side, but was later floated. Among the passengers were fifteen wealthy Chicagoans returning from the wedding on Saturday of Miss Catherine Barker, the $30,000,000 heiress, and Howard Spaulding, Jr., at Harbor Springs.

Charged With Theft of Brass From Cars

William Mader of Somerville pleaded not guilty to a charge of stealing $60 worth of brass from the Boston & Maine Railroad, today, in the Malden court. He was held in $1,000 for a further hearing on Wednesday. According to the police, arrests have entered about 30 Eastman heater cars, which are used for the transportation of potatoes from Maine, and cut out the brass fittings.

Stole Books from Public Library

Max Albert, a nineteen-year-old Dorchester student, pleaded guilty in the Police Court today to stealing fifty-three books valued at $168 from the Public Library.

He was placed on probation and will make restitution to the amount of $50 to repair damage to the books.

Alaskan Volcano Reported Active

SEWARD, Alaska, Aug. 2.—It is reported from Kodiack that the volcano of Mt. Katmai is active again. Officers of the steamer Admiral Watson report that the Illiamna crater is also active.

Father of Mabel Boardman Dead

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 2.—William J. Boardman, father of Miss Mabel Boardman, head of the American Red Cross, died at his home here today.

ENGLAND INSISTS ON EMBARGO

By JOHN E. NEVIN,
Special Correspondent of the International News Service.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—Great Britain takes sharp issue with the American position that she is illegally interfering with the commerce of the United States.

She has sent to the State Department three notes couched along similar lines. In them she defends the London order in council. The supplementary note received today, which it had been supposed modified the note of last week and "took the teeth out of the order in council," does no such thing.

It was learned on the highest authority that the British Foreign Office justifies every act of its naval commanders in detaining vessels loaded with American products and diverting them into British ports, so that their cargoes could be passed on by the British prize courts, despite the fact that they are consigned to importers in neutral countries.

JUSTIFIES EMBARGO.

At very great length the British Foreign Office reviews the trade records compiled by the Department of Commerce in Washington. From them it is pointed out that the bulk of the exports that have been sent to Holland, Denmark, Sweden and Norway have in reality been intended to reach German sources, and the British blockade directed against Germany is defended as a proper act of war and one that is entirely justified by the precedents established by the United States government during the Civil War. In addition, she questions the propriety of the caveat, intended to protect our rights in prize court proceedings.

Secretary of State Lansing stated today the text of these notes will be made public Wednesday morning. He said that this time had been fixed by the British government itself. In this connection the secretary said he could not answer any questions about the notes, they are three in

Continued on Page 2, Column 6.

300,000 PRISONERS IN MONTH

By FREDERICK WERNER,
Special Correspondent of the International News Service.

BERLIN, Aug. 2 (via Amsterdam).—With more than 300,000 prisoners in their possession as a result of the fighting of the last month, the Austro-German forces in Poland are driving through the Russian front a wedge that threatens to cripple, if not destroy, the Czar's main armies.

There is now going on in Poland one of the most thrilling military races ever witnessed. The Russians are trying to reach Brest Litovsk, 120 miles east-southeast of Warsaw, with their forces intact except for the rear guard troops, whose sacrifice is necessary in order to save the main bodies.

The Austro-German forces are fighting to force their way northeastward from the Vieprz River front. The Germans have taken Cholm, sixty-eight miles from Brest Litovsk. Their cavalry is reported to be plunging northward on the left bank of the Bug River.

If the Germans arrive before Brest Litovsk in advance of the retreating Russians the Czar's armies will be in a dangerous predicament.

RACE FOR COVER.

Berlin military critics assert that even if the Russians succeed in withdrawing their main forces to the sheltering fortifications of Brest Litovsk they will be unable to hold the Bug River front because of the great flanking movement now being

Continued on Page 2, Column 1.

President Gives up Day at Links

CORNISH, N. H., Aug. 2.—The absence of Dr. C. T. Grayson prevented President Wilson from enjoying his customary game of golf this morning, so he remained in his study going over a mass of accumulated work.

Mrs. Norman Galt and Miss Helen Woodrow Bones, the latter a cousin of the President, have left Harlakenden House to visit friends in Maine and New Hampshire.

Braves and Pirates Games Called Off

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 2.—The doubleheader between the Braves and Pirates, which was scheduled to be played here today, was called off on account of rain. The postponement was a big disappointment to the Boston players, who had hopes of grabbing a couple of victories. If the weather is good tomorrow the champions will clash with the Pirates in a brace of games.

Still Gaining

The American gained in advertising during the month of July just ended as compared with last year. The American also gained in advertising during June.

Home Going Circulation Produces Results.

WARSAW ENTRY IS EXPECTED HOURLY

Continued from Page 1.

made by General von Buelow in the Baltic provinces.

The capture or evacuation of Kovno will necessitate the abandonment of Great Litovsk and Grodno or result in the surrounding of the entire Russian army in a district absolutely untenable with the lines of communication cut.

The most optimistic German observers predict the almost complete annihilation of the Russian armies, the capture of the Russian capital and peace proposals from the Russian government within the next six months.

Others, more conservative, claim that Russia's fighting strength will be destroyed for many months, and that before the Czar can again become a dangerous factor in the war, the German legions in the West will be able to win a victory there that will make their ultimate triumph certain.

RUSSIAN ARMIES ARE EXTRICATED, IS CLAIM OF PETROGRAD

By FRANCIS LAVELLE MCKAY.
Special Correspondent of the International News Service.

PETROGRAD, Aug. 2.—Abandonment by the Russians of the Lublin-Cholm Railway and the occupation of Cholm by German troops were admitted at the War Office today. It was stated that the railroad had served its purpose and that efforts to hold back the Germans along the Lublin-Cholm front would result only in loss of life considered by Grand Duke Nicholas to be unnecessary under the "present circumstances."

The claims of the Russians that the Vistula army had been extricated from the flanking drives of the Austro-German armies were reiterated today.

All the Petrograd newspapers prominently display this announcement by Minister of War Polivanoff in the Duma yesterday afternoon.

"We will perhaps yield to the enemy a portion of the Warsaw region in order to insure our final victory, falling back to positions where the Russian army can prepare for a resumption of the offensive."

"POSITION UNSHAKEN."

In discussing further the military situation, M. Polivanoff asserted that the position of Russia remained unshaken and that for this reason the nation could maintain war for years.

The military critics assert that the utterances of the war minister are ample proof that Russia need fear no disaster and that it needs only to await the opportunity to crush German militarism.

At the same time they point out that the renewed German offensive on the Niemen River front is a present danger. Latest reports from the front indicate that the Teutonic troops are trying to cross the Niemen between Kovno and Grodno in order to isolate these fortresses and prevent any interference from their garrisons with the operations in the Warsaw provinces.

The situations along the Niemen and in the Shavli region are being more closely watched than any of the other districts.

AIRSHIPS OVER WARSAW.

Four German aeroplanes flew over Warsaw Sunday morning. One was brought down by Russian artillery and the others fled, the War Office states.

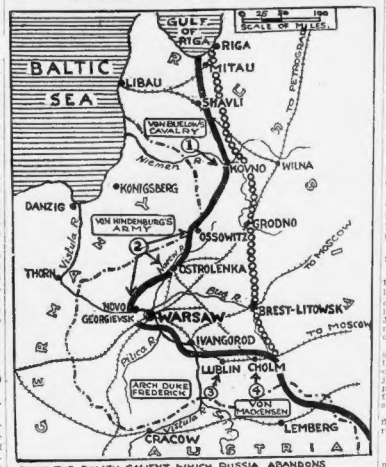
The Russian batteries at Novo Georgievsk dismounted two German guns from their carriages Saturday and the repeated efforts of the enemy to remove them have thus far failed.

As a result of complaints from some sections of the Russian public that the failure of the allies to take the offensive in the West had left the Czar's army to bear the brunt of the recent fighting, the following statement was issued at the War Office today.

"The dispatch of large German reinforcements from France to the Russian front began the fourth week in July, when Field Marshal von Mackensen's army was being severely shaken in the Vieprz Valley and the battles on the Narew became long drawn out. Each Russian success compelled the enemy to withdraw a fresh force from the West front, thus creating conditions favorable for operations by the allies."

The statement was issued without comment, but was taken to mean that the French and British were about to launch their long-expected general offensive in the West.

THE NEW RUSSIAN LINE OF DEFENCE



THE POLISH SALIENT WHICH RUSSIA ABANDONS
THE GRAND DUKE NICHOLAS'S NEW LINE OF DEFENCE

The map shows the new prepared positions to which the Grand Duke Nicholas is now trying to withdraw his forces before the German armies, north and south, can crush the neck of the salient and cut off his retreat. With every day his chances lessen and the Germans come nearer their principal objective, the surrounding and annihilation of the main Russian army.

The map shows the three principal railways upon which a successful retreat depended. The southern line, through Lublin and Cholm, has already been cut by the Austro-Germans under the Archduke Frederick and Von Mackensen. In the north Von Buelow's cavalry are menacing the main Petrograd line. The third line, to Brest-Litovsk, is not yet threatened, but Von Hindenburg is across both the Narew and the Vistula.

Reports indicate that the bulk of the Russian forces are already in safety or near it. Their new line centres on the powerfully fortified Brest-Litovsk. Its flanks have the natural protection of the Bug and Niemen rivers. It has one weakness from the Gulf of Riga, and that neighborhood may be the scene of the next great German effort.

THRONG IN RIOT AT FUNERAL OF BECKER

Continued from First Page.

with flowers. Alongside of the coffin a large number of floral pieces were arranged.

NEW COFFIN PLATE.

On the Becker coffin a new plate made its appearance. It read simply:

CHARLES BECKER
DIED JULY 30, 1915.

Directly underneath the new plate was one in which was carved the inscription of Christ.

The new plate was put on the coffin just a short time before the funeral cortege left the Becker home. It replaced the other plate which had been placed on it which read:

"Charles Becker, murdered July 30, 1915, by Gov. Whitman."

Mrs. Becker, heavily veiled, and apparently verging on a nervous collapse, entered the church on the arm of her brother, John Lynch. Following Mrs. Becker and her brother came Barkeley Becker, brother of the dead man, and his wife. Then came the other relatives.

The church holds about 500 persons and two minutes after it was opened this morning it was filled. The church officials found it necessary just before the arrival of the funeral party to order some of the crowd from the seats which had been reserved for the mourners.

The inscriptions of some of the floral pieces or the cards attached read as follows:

"Sacrificed for politics."
"Justice will prevail in the end."
"He died in the faith—A brave man."
"Everything will turn out all right in the end."

EX-CAPT. WILLIAMS A MOURNER.

One of the most beautiful floral pieces came from Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Williams, who were among the mourners in the church. Williams formerly was a police captain and was known as "the czar of the Tenderloin." It was under Williams that Becker got his first police training. There were only eight carriages in the funeral party. Two of these were loaded with flowers.

Interment was in Woodlawn Cemetery.

Clark of Moose Hits Old Parties

That the reactionary leaders of both the Republican and Democratic parties have combined in a "submarine warfare" against the initiative and referendum is the charge of Nelson B. Clark of Beverly in a statement today setting forth his candidacy for the Progressive nomination for Governor.

"The Republican party, although in full control of the Legislature during the past year, on a platform of progressive performance, has deliberately refused to give the initiative and referendum to the people, although the people have overwhelmingly favored this measure whenever the opportunity has been given them," says Mr. Clark.

"The reactionary leaders of the Democratic party and the equally reactionary leaders of the Republican party have combined in a submarine warfare against this great principle of popular government."

Mr. Clark requests the voters to support him "as a protest against the failure and deliberate refusal of the dominant parties to give the people this reform."

Seek Conference of Foss and Men

The State Board of Conciliation and Arbitration sought today to arrange a conference between former Governor Foss and representatives of the strikers at the Becker Milling Machin Company's plant in Hyde Park.

The board made attempts to reach the former Governor. Representatives of the board men were at the Quincy House to await word from the board on the outcome of its attempt to get in touch with Mr. Foss.

On Saturday Commissioner Bump of the board invited union representatives to meet him. Later they conferred.

Awarded School Contracts.

Martin Keough & Co. was awarded a $1,290 contract for electrical wiring in the East Boston High School, and the Carlisle-Connor Company a $1,673 contract for similar work at the English High School, by order of Mayor Curley today. The awards went to the lowest bidders in each case.

2 SUBMARINES CHASE LINER CAMBRIAN

How the steamship Cambrian was chased on the same day by two German submarines, one of which abandoned the chase to attack the steamship Anglo-Californian, was told today by Roland Robbins of New York, one of twenty-one of the Cambrian's hostlers, who returned today on the steamship Colonian.

Robbins, a vaudeville actor, made the trip for the experience. He said:

"On the way over the Cambrian was chased by two German submarines on the same day. One of the submarines chased us for two hours, and had a speed nearly equal to that of the Cambrian, which was making sixteen knots under forced draught. The subarine abandoned the chase to attack the Anglo-Californian, a slower vessel, which had come into sight.

"One hostler was so scared that when the Cambrian reached Avonmouth, he enlisted, saying he felt he would be safer in the army than to complete the voyage through the English Channel to London."

The officers of the Colonian reported that on the first night out of London two Zeppelins were sighted. All lights were put out and the vessel was hailed for twenty minutes until the airships passed over.

The Cambrian was due in port today.

President Has to Pay Toll at Cheshire Bridge

CORNISH, N. H., Aug. 2.—When President Wilson and his party, motoring, approached the Cheshire toll bridge here, the seventy-four-year-old tollkeeper prudently collected fifteen cents toll before he asked any questions.

Then: "Are you President Wilson?" he inquired.

The President nodded pleasantly.

"Well, I thought you was," the tollkeeper said. "I voted fer ye, and I've voted fer a lot of Presidents, but you're the first one I ever see."

Free Public Market for the West End

Another free public market site was provided under the East Cambridge Viaduct, between Willard and Barton streets, in an agreement made by the City Council to lease the city for $1 a year, was sent to the City Council by Mayor Curley today.

Mayor Curley has been anxious have a free market established in the West End, following the American's agitation for such institutions, and the phenomenal success achieved by the South End free market later. This has resulted in the "I" agreeing to lease him the Warnet site, for a nominal rental of $1 a year, with the option of cancelling the lease on a sixty-day notice if the plan doesn't work out as expected.

Foresters Are to Meet in Providence

PROVIDENCE, Aug. 2.—The twenty-second annual international convention of the Catholic Order of Foresters opens here tomorrow. There will be a parade of visiting delegates and a solemn high mass at the Cathedral. The parade will be reviewed by Governor Beeckman and Mayor Gainer.

Dennehy Gets Appointment.

Philip F. Dennehy of Ward 21 was appointed an officer at the House of Correction on Deer Island in an order issued by Penal Institutions Commissioner Shaw, and approved by Mayor Curley today. The place pays $1400 a year and board.

GREAT BRITAIN INSISTS ON EMBARGO.

Continued from First Page.

number, because the British government had asked that the State Department withhold comment on them until Wednesday.

No concessions.

Although the secretary would not say so, there is no doubt that official circles are greatly disappointed over the uncompromising attitude adopted by the British government. It had been hoped that concessions would be made, but it now seems certain that the British government will fight against any letting down of the bars to American trade that would benefit her enemies in the slightest degree.

Copies of the three notes are to be sent to President Wilson, at Cornish, without delay. Because of the position England has assumed, it is now certain that another definite and strong protest will be sent forward without delay, reaffirming the position of the United States that the British order in council is in defiance of international law and a violation of England's obligations to the United States.

U. S. TO INSIST.

One of the three notes, it was known, dealt solely with the seizing of the American ship Neches by the British. She was seized when she attempted to bring back a cargo of goods bought in Belgium by Americans, and sent to prize court.

On July 17 the United States sent a note of protest against this seizure on the ground that the London government could not hold up ships from German controlled territory—Belgium now being under German rule; neither could Great Britain stop goods paid for before March 1.

Upton Sinclair Is Ordered by Court Not to Slur Ex-Wife

GULFPORT, Miss., Aug. 2.—Upton Sinclair, the author, by a court decision obtained the custody of his thirteen-year-old son David by his marriage with Mrs. Meta Fuller Sinclair, except for two weeks in the year, when the mother may have him. The Sinclairs are divorced. Judge Denny in his decision laid down:

That Upton Sinclair shall not utter a derogatory word about his former wife.

That the allegations in the present case against Upton Sinclair are not sustained by the evidence.

That the decisions in the Holland Court in 1912 granting Sinclair a divorce and the custody of the boy are valid.

That Sinclair is a proper person to care for and rear his son; the boy is awarded to his father who shall educate him.

That for two weeks each year the boy shall visit his mother in whatever State he is attending school and immediately after the school term ends.

That Mr. and Mrs. Sinclair claim the decision is a victory, the mother in that she has been barred from seeing the boy at all.

Western Democrats Ask Another Place

The western Massachusetts Democrats are seeking a second place on the State ticket, and have asked the State Committee to indorse one of three candidates for either State Auditor or Secretary of State. The three most prominently mentioned are Professor Edwin A. Grosvenor of Amherst, William A. Davenport of Greenfield and Joseph B. Ely of Westfield.

Warehouse Licenses.

Owners of warehouses for the storage of second-hand furniture are required to procure a license and file a bond with the Governor and Council, according to a decision rendered by Attorney-General Attwill today to Acting Chief Neal of the State police.

WORLD'S SERIES COUPON.
Series G, No. 2 BOSTON AMERICAN AUGUST 2, 1915
Good for 1 One Vote
This Coupon will not be counted unless presented at the World's Series Contest Headquarters, No. 8 Winthrop Square, Boston, or mailed to that address on or before 5 o'clock p. m., Aug. 14, 1915.

HOW TO SEND VOTE COUPONS—At the end of the seventh contest period (series "G") collect all votes of that series, then put all your "Series G" coupons together, tie or fasten them in some manner and attach a slip of paper showing the number of "Series 'G' No. 1" coupons contained in that package. Do the same with "Series 'G' No. 2" coupons, and so on up to and including "Series 'G' No. 5," the last one of that series. Then wrap them all in one bundle and write or stamp on the outside of this bundle your name and address and the number of coupons or sets said to be contained therein. A similar rule applies to the other five series.

ISSUE WARRANT FOR CASHIER INMAN

Continued from First Page.

husband. She has even given up her furniture.

"The property given up by Mrs. Inman includes a number of stocks and bonds which she has owned since the time of her marriage. She has given up her own savings.

"Mrs. Inman is almost prostrated. She wants to tell all she knows, however, and then go away.

"Mr. Inman never made a confidante of his wife. She always trusted him and never suspected him of any wrong doing.

WARRANT ISSUED.

A warrant was today issued for Inman's arrest. He is alleged to have stolen $125,000 of the company's funds.

Coincident with the granting of a warrant it was learned today that papers were found among Inman's effects tending to implicate other employes.

That others connected with the Boston office of the company are under suspicion is no longer a secret. The officials who are gathering evidence to be presented to the Suffolk Grand Jury think Inman had accomplices.

One prominent man in the investigation admitted that half the scandal had not yet been made public. The warrant was applied for by Inspector Thomas H. Lynch, who was accompanied to the lower court by Attorney Eugene W. Ong, counsel for the United Fruit Company, one of its directors and son-in-law of President Andrew J. Preston.

FIND LOVE LETTERS.

Application for a police court warrant was based upon an indication that Inman was in hiding not far from Boston, although the popular theory is that he sought refuge in New York. It was expected that no warrant would be bothered with and that much for Inman would be backed up by the finding of the Grand Jury. Something developed that may change this plan.

Love letters were also found among Inman's effects and seized. Every step of the inquiry which proved Inman to have been a highflyer.

The letters tell of Inman's friendship with a Winthrop girl, and of another who simply signed her first name. Among his papers also were letters from his first wife, who was Clara Everett from Maine, a former artist's model and actress.

Letters from the first wife are said to reveal an attempt on her part to bring about a reconciliation and to win back his affections from his present wife, who was Marion Ballou, also an actress, and at one time a member of "The Pink Lady" company.

He married his wife in 1901 and was divorced five years ago. Inman was ordered to pay alimony. His first wife is now in New York. He married Marion Ballou a year ago. He became acquainted with both actresses while on trips in New York.

Mrs. Inman has been with friends part of the time and at her home, No. 1,197 Beacon street, the rest.

JOINTS CREAKED LIKE DRY HINGE

Waltham Man Gives Credit To Var-ne-sis For His Recovery

"My joints creaked like a dry hinge, my muscles were stiff and I could hardly walk on account of the stiffness in my knee joints. It was almost impossible to go up or down stairs without great pain," so said J. L. Johnson of 28 Stearns st., Waltham, Mass.

"The trouble first started in my hip, so that I was unable to walk, then it shifted to my knees and the muscles of my legs and then small of my back. The pain was terrible and nothing seemed to relieve me. Physicians gave me medicine with but very little effect.

W. A. VARNEY,
Discovery of Var-ne-sis.

"Var-ne-sis was recommended to me and I decided to try it, with the result that by persisting in the treatment every sign and symptom of the disease left me. The stiffness has entirely disappeared and I haven't a pain or an ache. I have recommended Var-ne-sis to a great many and they have all reported good results."

W. A. Varney says: Var-ne-sis is not a cure-all and is not recommended for every ill. Var-ne-sis is a rheumatic remedy that has helped hundreds of rheumatic cripples to recover their health during the past 10 years, and has been particularly successful in rheumatic arthritis or rheumatism of the joints. The remarkable evidence behind Var-ne-sis, and the fact that it is composed of simple vegetable ingredients, make it valuable to every rheumatic sufferer, and none can afford to fail to try it, especially if they have been treated month after month without results. Send today for the Var-ne-sis Health News. Address W. A. Varney, Lynn, Mass.

Var-ne-sis Boston Office, 140 Boylston st., where the large collection of wheel chairs, crutches, canes, etc., are on exhibition. Consultation and advice free of charge.

Get Var-ne-sis now — today — at Riker-Jaynes and other reliable druggists.—Advertisement.

Every Basement Lot must be a bargain—walk through and judge for yourself

THE AUTOMATIC PLAN
The FIRST price on all of these lots must be low enough to sell them quickly or prices are reduced automatically 25% after 15 selling days, 50% after 25 selling days, 75% after 24 selling days. Gives away after 30 selling days.

Filene's Automatic Bargain BASEMENT

Every day we dip into the hundreds of bargains and serve up a few as "samples" of extraordinary savings! Witness for Tomorrow:

Vacation and Summer Bargains for Women and Children

Women's Last Year French Linen Dresses at $1.50
Only slight change in style. Baby Irish lace collars. Some hand embroidered.

Women's and Misses' Summer Suits at $2.47

Women's Odd Corduroy Sport Coats, Lined, at $1.98

Infants' White Dresses, Sizes 6 Months to 2 Years, 19c

New Lingerie Waists, Embroidered or Plain, at 69c

Women's Tan Rubber Sole Low Shoes at $1.25

Women's High Grade Suits at $12.37

Women's New Silk Dresses, Sizes 16 to 44, at $7.65

New Silk Petticoats at $1
Of messaline silk jersey tops. Rouge shantung. Many styles.

Women's Princess Slips of Muslin at 50c
Flounce of lace insertions, cover lace trimmed, ribbon run, well tailored.

Girls' Rubberized Rain Capes, Sizes 8 to 14, at 95c

Women's Velvet and Lace Hats at $1

Odd Lot of Women's Neckwear Ready at 12½c
Made of organdy and trimmed with dainty lace and embroidery, new shapes.

Boys' "Olus" Coat Cut Union Suits, "Seconds," 29c

Infants' Imported Sox in Several Colors at 9c.

Hundreds of Other Bargain Lots Daily

THE Nettleton SHOE

Mark Down Sale of Men's Shoes

Change of firm name makes it imperative to close out all of our high grade shoes marked W. B. Hennigan Co.

All of our $7.00 grade low shoes, tan and black calfskin and vici kid, narrow, medium and wide toes, at the absurdly low price of $4.95
A wide run of sizes and splendid styles from which to choose.

FRANKLIN P. WINSTON CO
14 Milk Street . . Boston
(A Few Doors from the Old South Church)

THE AUTOCAR

The New England Company, Towel Supply, Say, "We certainly made a wise selection in choosing the Autocar." Autocar dependability means everything to them. Chassis $1650.

PHONE BACK BAY 4800
PHONE OR CALL AT THE AUTOCAR SALES & SERVICE COMPANY
COMMONWEALTH AV. AND BEACON ST., BOSTON.
FACTORY BRANCH OF THE AUTOCAR COMPANY, ARDMORE, PA.

LIQUOR CHARGE COSTS AUTOIST HIS LICENSE

The Massachusetts Highway Commission today revoked the auto license of William H. Blankenship of Highland Boulevard, Oak Bluffs, a chauffeur who was convicted of operating his automobile while he was under the influence of liquor.

The AMERICAN has given publicity the past two Sundays to the efforts of the lower court judges and the Highway Commission to drive the drunken automobilist off Massachusetts highways. The revocation of the license of Blankenship is the latest move by the Commission to stamp out this evil, so dangerous to the pedestrian and the law-abiding, careful motorist.

The court abstract, on which the decision of the Commission is based, shows that Blankenship was found guilty in the District Court at Oak Bluffs Friday. He pleaded nolo and his case was placed on file by the court. Thus the only punishment he suffers is the permanent loss of his license.

The Commission today suspended the license of Herbert C. Rikeman of Revere, found guilty in the Chelsea Court July 6 of operating a car while intoxicated. Rikeman was fined $50 in the lower court. He appealed. His case is pending in the upper court.

Although George B. Canfield of No. 861 East Street, Pittsfield, was found guilty on the same charge, Jan. 19, in the Superior Court of Berkshire County, the abstract of his case was received by the Commission only today. The State law requires that a clerk of court shall forward the abstract "forthwith" Canfield's license had already been revoked by the Commission, in a decision in which the Commission stated:

"The Commission is unwilling to consider the issuance of a license to him until it is convinced that he has given up the use of liquor and absolutely abstained from it for at least one year."

Robert Wallis of Newton, who was fined $75 in the West Newton court, June 16, for operating while under the influence of liquor, and who at that time appealed from the judgment of the court, has withdrawn his appeal and paid the fine. The commission has revoked his license.

Four Fined for Lord's Day Gaming

Jacob Carton, Joseph Meyer and Henry Amert, all of No. 13 Wave Way avenue, Winthrop, and Samuel Robbins of No. 115 Thorndyke street, Cambridge, were fined $5 each today in the East Boston Court for gaming on the Lord's Day. They were arrested by Officer Frank Douglass of the Winthrop police.

Disturbers' Jail Terms Suspended

Patrick Cavanaugh and Martin Solan of Waltham were each sentenced to three months in the House of Correction today in the Waltham District Court for creating a disturbance at the home of Henry Jordan, where the body of Patrick Solan was awaiting burial. The sentences were suspended.

Life Guards Save Cambridge Bather

Life guards of the Volunteer Life Saving Corps rescued Joseph Casey, twenty-one, from drowning when he was seized with cramps at Marine Park. He was treated by Lieutenant Superior Lazarus of the Life Saving Corps and then sent to his home, No. 11 Jefferson street, Cambridge.

Business Notice.

BELL-ANS

Absolutely Removes Indigestion. One package proves it. 25c at all druggists.

LOMAN HELD IN $2,500 BAIL FOR SOUTH END BOMB

Miss Annie Connolly, who was just leaving her father's house on Columbus avenue when bomb exploded. She suffered minor injuries.

Ralph Loman, who was arrested following the Columbus avenue bomb explosion last night, was arraigned in Roxbury court today, and after pleading not guilty was held in $2,500 for a hearing on August 10.

The police complaint against him was that he "wilfully, intentionally and without right did by the explosion of explosives unlawfully injure the dwelling house of Patrick Connolly at No. 1107 Columbus avenue.

This afternoon several policemen went to Worcester to search Loman's personal effects in that city. The police also looked up several places where Loman is said to have lived in Boston.

Information favorable to Loman was given the police by Assistant Secretary Pierce of the Y. M. C. A. Pierce said Loman had come to the Y. M. C. A. four months ago, had been befriended, and was "seemingly honest and trying to do the right thing."

Pierce said Loman had at one time worked on the Portland boat and had declared he had a job on a farm in Barre.

The explosion broke window glass in the building at Nos. 1,107, 1,109 and 1,111 Columbus avenue, and would probably have wrecked the building but for the heroic action of Martin Regan, superintendent of the Boston Catholic Cemetery Association. Regan, who happened to notice the dynamite bomb, picked it from the doorway of the building and threw it into the street, where it exploded. Several persons were badly shaken inside the building.

The explosion took place in front of a barber shop owned by Leo Femino and George Literi.

UNKNOWN LEAPS OFF PORTLAND STEAMER

A man about 45 years old, well built and with a cropped mustache, who was reported among the passengers of the Portland-bound Ransom B. Fuller, to be George S. Ingram, the missing cashier of the United Fruit Company, committed suicide last night off Egg Rock, Nahant.

Boats were lowered by the crew and the searchlights played through the fog, but the body was not found.

The man was seen pacing the deck soon after the boat left the dock, and when off Egg Rock suddenly leaped over the rail.

Officers of the boat searched the staterooms, but failed to find baggage that was not claimed by passengers. It is believed the man had not hired a stateroom.

No report of the incident has been received at the offices of the Eastern Steamship Company and will not be until the boat reaches port tonight.

DOUBLE LEGAL STAMPS All Day Tuesday

At the Following Stores:

The Store of Progress GILCHRIST CO

BACONS OVER 100 YEARS IN BUSINESS IN BOSTON

WOLF'S "MY CLOTHIER" Hanover and Portland Streets

Tremont Stores The Old Butler Corner, 90 Tremont St.

Full Books of Legal Stamps, REGARDLESS OF NAME ON COVER, are redeemable at above stores for $2.50 in Merchandise or $2.00 in Cash

HAITIENS MOB A WESLEYAN MISSION

By International News Service.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—The Wesleyan mission at Port-au-Prince was mobbed Saturday night by Haitiens seeking a murderer who took refuge there, Admiral Caperton today reported to the Navy Department. No casualties were reported.

Secretary of the Navy Daniels announced today that the battleship Connecticut took aboard 120 extra marines five miles off Cape Henry yesterday morning and sailed at once for Haiti. She will reach there Wednesday. The marines were taken out on a tug to meet the Connecticut and little time was lost in the transfer.

CAPERTON REPORTS QUIET.

The Navy Department announcement of Admiral Caperton's dispatches read:

"Port-au-Prince is being controlled without any difficulty. While apparently everything is quiet and the Haitien soldiers are said to be disarming and turning in their arms to the naval authorities, it is believed that many arms are being retained secretly.

"The assemblage of citizens in any numbers during the night has been forbidden. The prince of protocol is being greatly increased and the poorer classes are without food and many are suffering greatly."

FRENCH MARINES LANDED.

A detachment from the cruiser Descartes is now guarding the French legation, from which President Guillaume was taken by a mob and assassinated.

A request for the guard was presented by the French Minister at Port-au-Prince and cabled to Washington by Rear Admiral Caperton, in command of the American expeditionary force.

On receipt of Admiral Caperton's cablegram Secretary Daniels conferred with Secretary of State Lansing. Mr. Lansing could see no objection to the landing of a small detachment from the Descartes for the special purpose of guarding the French legation.

Dispatches from Cape Haitien say that peace negotiations between the leaders of the northern and southern factions are expected to open on the American gunboat Castine in the harbor of Cape Haitien within twenty-four hours. A peace commission is on its way there from Port-au-Prince on the Castine.

The United States gunboat Nashville arrived at that harbor last night.

Lawrence Woolen Mills Are Busy

President Wood of the American Woolen Company announces that 80 per cent of the machinery in the company's big mills in Lawrence is in operation, and all the woolen mills of the company are doing a better business they have ever done in the history of the company. He states further that orders are being booked at the present time that insures work to the woolen mills of the company for months to come, and they never were in such good condition for orders as they are today.

Boy of Five Rescued at Nantasket Beach

John Walsh, five, of Nantasket avenue, was caught in the undertow while bathing and carried out about 100 yards. Inspector McCarthy of the Boston police and an athletic instructor named Allen plunged into the water fully dressed and brought him safely to land. It was necessary to work over him half an hour before he was restored to consciousness.

85-Cent Gas in Newton Today

The 5 cent reduction in the price of gas for customers of the Newton & Watertown Gas Light Company has gone into effect. Nearly 30,000 persons are in the district supplied in Newton, Watertown, Waltham, Wellesley and Weston. For several years the rate has been 90 cents.

Shift of Prisoners Waits on Keliher

The U. S. Department of Justice has instructed Marshal John J. Mitchell to defer sending Federal prisoners to Atlanta from the Charlestown State Prison until after the hearing of William J. Keliher's habeas corpus petition.

May Demand Phone Meters.

Telephone subscribers who desire an automatic record of their calls may have a meter as a part of their telephone installation. The Massachusetts Public Service Commission has issued an order to that effect.

Hearing on New Street.

Further plans for the relief of traffic congestion in Boston will be considered next Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at the meeting of the special committee on a new north and south street through the business district of Boston.

DIVERS SEEK 50 BODIES IN THE EASTLAND

CHICAGO, Aug. 2.—Divers went to work today in the submerged hull of the dead ship Eastland, trying to extricate a pile of bodies—believed to be at least fifty—which were tangled in a mass of wrecked machinery.

Three bodies that were taken out yesterday were identified today, making a total of 835 identified dead and two unidentified. The missing list contained the names of 142 persons today.

When the various investigations of the Chicago river catastrophe were started on their second week today it was evident that Federal Judge Landis intended that the federal grand jury should hold the high cards.

The investigation by Secretary of Commerce Redfield's board was hampered by the Landis order that no witnesses under subpoena to testify before the federal grand jury should be examined by any other investigating body. Secretary Redfield announced today that in inquiry would proceed in spite of the federal court's action.

Secretary Redfield said today:

"Congress will be asked to change the laws governing steamship inspection. A country-wide investigation of the inspection department will be started as early in the Fall as possible. Navy Department officials are now in Chicago, ready to inspect all steamers engaged in local traffic."

American Winners to Hold Reception

By International News Service.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 2.—A party of twenty-seven, the winners in the ocean tour contest of the Boston AMERICAN, have arrived here for a visit to the exposition. All are registered at the Inside Inn at the exposition. The Boston party was met upon its arrival by Louis R. F. Haycroft of the Massachusetts Commission, who conducted them to the Massachusetts Building at the exposition, where they will make their headquarters during their stay in San Francisco. A reception will be held this afternoon in the Massachusetts Building.

Pawtucket War Job Employes May Quit

PAWTUCKET, R. I., Aug. 2.—Nine hundred machinists of the Potter & Johnson machine shops and 100 employes of the Sellew machine shops have threatened to strike if their demands for shorter hours and time and a half are not granted. Both plants have war contracts.

Two Are Drowned in Rhode Island

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Aug. 2.—Two drownings have been reported in this State. In Harris pond, Woonsocket, Christo Chicalo, nineteen, was taken with cramps while bathing. At Omega pond in East Providence Samuel Edburg, thirty-two, an expert swimmer, was taken with cramps. Edburg threw up his hands and sank in twenty-five feet of water.

10,000 New York Garment Hands Out

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—Ten thousand employes of 150 independent garment making shops went on strike today, because of dissatisfaction over the rejection of the findings of Mayor Mitchel's council of arbitration by the independents. Meanwhile 60,000 garment workers are completing three days of balloting on the question of striking. The vote is reported to favor a walkout.

U. S. Warships May Lose the Marines

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—An important naval reorganization may result from the recent gouging scandal at the Annapolis Naval Academy. It is proposed to place the disciplinary system of the Navy on the same basis that prevails in the Army. To do this would necessitate the adoption of the self-disciplining guard-duty plan of the Army. This would begin with the removal of the marines from the warships and provide them with transports of their own.

Landslide Wrecks Power Plant.

HUDSON, N. Y., Aug. 2.—The power plant of the Knickerbocker Cement Company was swept into Claverack Creek today by a landslide. The damage is estimated at $250,000.

LLOYD'S EYEGLASSES and SPECTACLES

FIVE STORES: USE THE MOST CONVENIENT

BOSTON: 315 WASHINGTON ST.

310 BOYLSTON ST., 75 SUMMER ST.

CAMBRIDGE: HARVARD SQUARE; SALEM: 230 ESSEX ST.

ANDREW J. LLOYD CO.

New York Men Are Reconciled To Hot Weather

By International News Service.

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—Bareskin stockings are the latest fashion freak to be seen in New York, the direct result of the terrific heat wave that for four days has held the metropolis in a relentless grasp.

Today several well dressed young women, evidently women of fashion and refinement, were seen on the streets without hose. Between the tops of their bi-colored oxfords and the hems of their skirts the bare skin could be seen plainly. Men who noticed the startling flesh-colored tint of the slender ankles could not believe their eyes and looked again to make sure that it was nature's own leg covering they saw.

"Wonder what she does with her roll?" was the muttered question of nearly every masculine observer.

Waltham Milkman Killed by Train

The body of John K. Pierce of German court, Waltham, was found early today on the tracks between Boston and Lexington streets, Waltham. It is believed that Pierce, who was a milkman, started to go to work by way of the railroad tracks and was hit by the early express. He was identified by a ring and the initials in his hat.

Hurled from Tree by Electric Shock

Thomas F. Dorsey, while working today in a tree on Washington street, Newton, in front of the Woodland Park Hotel, touched a live wire, the shock hurling him thirty feet to the ground. At Newton Hospital it was found that he suffered a slight burn on the left hand and eye.

Fully Clad, Swims to Save Drowning Man

WORCESTER, Aug. 2.—Plunging into Lake Quinsigamond fully clothed, Gerald Pierce of No. 25 Clinton street, this city, rescued Charles Richens of No. 6 Lamartine street as the latter was sinking a third time. Richens, while swimming, was suddenly seized with cramps.

BRIGHT AND SHINY—

The machines advertised in the "Used Car" columns of the Boston American look just like new, and they will give perfect satisfaction. Look over these bargains now.

STEAMER WRECK AT SEGUIN LIGHT

PORTLAND, Me., Aug. 2.—The Boston-built steamship Frieda, owned by the Union Sulphur Company, went ashore today in a dense fog on Seguin Light, at the mouth of the Kennebec River, about twenty-five miles from here. The vessel struck bow on, and it is feared her double bottom was punctured.

The accident was reported by Captain Anson Oliver, who went out to pilot the boat to Searsport, to which port she was bound with sulphur from Sabine, Texas.

The life-savers from Popham Beach are standing by and two towboats, the Ariel and the Seguin, have been sent to her assistance from Bath.

It is understood that lighters will also be sent from Bath to remove some of the cargo in the hope of floating the Frieda.

The Frieda has a crew of thirty men, including Captain R. Blaustein. She is a 2066-ton freight steamer, 261 feet long, with a 42-foot beam. She was built by the Fore River Shipbuilding Company in 1913 for the Union Sulphur Company of New York and has been continuously in the sulphur trade between Sabine, Tex., and New England ports.

Arms Makers Go on Strike at Ilion, N. Y.

UTICA, N. Y., Aug. 2.—Word from Ilion, where a big plant of the Remington Arms Company is located, was to the effect that a strike had been precipitated today among Remington employes by a dispute over wages. The employes were granted an eight-hour day at the time of the Bridgeport strike but it is understood the wages of the Ilion employes have not proven satisfactory. The Remington company's Ilion plant is engaged on extensive war contracts for the allies.

L. T. Woodcock Dead.

CHICAGO, Aug. 2.—Lindsay T. Woodcock, aged fifty-seven, general manager of the Marshal Field & Co. retail store, dropped dead today as he was walking to work. Mr. Woodcock came to Chicago from Princeton, Me., in 1878, and started as a clerk in the Field store.

HOLD WHITMAN CHAUFFEUR FOR CRASH

Albert Lank, fifty-five, of No. 1 Duncan street, Roxbury, is in a serious condition at the City Hospital, suffering from injuries received early today when the team which he was driving was struck by an automobile owned by William Whitman, the former president of the Arlington Mills and one of the leading textile manufacturers of the United States, at the corner of Columbus avenue and Chandler street, South End.

Robert Munkittrick, twenty-nine, driver of the machine, is under arrest at the East Dedham street station, charged with operating an automobile while under the influence of liquor. It is said that an additional charge of violation of the automobile law will be preferred against him when he is arraigned in court today.

According to the police, Munkittrick was speeding along Columbus avenue with a party of friends, all were under the influence of liquor. Lank was driving a two-horse tip-cart, owned by J. H. Turner of No. 36 Duncan street, Roxbury. The team was loaded with dirt.

When Mr. Whitman was notified of the accident by the police at his home at No. 7 Goddard avenue, Brookline, he was surprised to learn that the car had been out. He informed police headquarters that he believed that the car was in the garage in the rear of his home and that Munkittrick was asleep there.

Hawaiian Liner Georgian Ashore

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 2.—The American Hawaiian liner Georgian went ashore at Duxbury Reef today. Calls for assistance were flashed here by wireless. Duxbury Reef was the scene of the destruction of the steamer Hyades, about six months ago, when a score of persons were drowned.

MESH BAGS RE-PLATED 25c

Silver & Jewelry Repaired & Plated, 5c to 50c

John L. DesLauries' Jewelry Factory

43 Winter St., Boston.

NEW GOODS AT MILL-END PRICES

The Signal for a Tremendous Outpouring of Shoppers from Everywhere

HOUGHTON & DUTTON Co

New England's Greatest Cash Store

Great Crowds Welcome Lockhart

The great Mill-End is on, and as this goes to press the store is filled and the crowds are growing greater. "Come again tomorrow," says LOCKHART. "I've got lots of bargain surprises for everybody."

DOUBLE COUPON DAY

Two Coupons Instead of One ALL DAY TUESDAY

LOCKHART Says: "As well leave change on the counter as to omit to get coupons with your purchases."

UNITED PROFIT-SHARING COUPONS

LOCKHART Says: "Here is a fine chance to make your money do double duty, and I help you do it."

They Are Supreme in Redemption Value

The Most Valuable Coupons in the World

REMEMBER—That in United Coupons you receive every advantage as in the past; and the additional redemption privilege of selecting PREMIUMS which can be secured for any number of Coupons.

These PREMIUMS are all standard articles and comprise almost everything needed for practical uses. 1000 Coupons entitle you to practically $4.00 in redemption value, and in the same proportion for any smaller number of Coupons you may wish to redeem.

OR IF YOU PREFER—FOR 1000 COUPONS YOU ARE ENTITLED TO MERCHANDISE OF YOUR OWN SELECTION TO THE AMOUNT OF $2.50, TO BE SELECTED FROM DEPARTMENTS THROUGHOUT THE STORE AS IN THE PAST.

ALSO—You can redeem Coupons for CASH at redemption stations, $2.00 per thousand or 20c per hundred.

GERMANY MAY STRIKE NEXT AT BALKANS

By International News Service.

LONDON, Aug. 2.—James L. Garvin, in the London Observer, says:

"We write at an hour big with peril and hope. Any man may see it is one of the turning points of time. The allies, if only they have sufficient time, are quite certain to solve the whole problem thoroughly in their own favor by bringing twice the man power to bear upon the utmost force which the Central Empires will eventually be able to muster. But Germany dominates the councils of her accomplices she above all, junior war.

"What then, will Germany do? That is now the momentous question. That she is bound to make another effort to force the entire issue is beyond all doubt. Where will she strike next?

"According to one theory, Germany will plunge into the north of Russia toward Archangel, if not toward Moscow.

"Another holds that Italy will be attacked.

"The third view makes the Balkans and Constantinople the enemy's main objective.

DOUBTS WESTERN THRUST

"The fourth opinion, which is widely prevalent and is elaborately encouraged by the enemy, is that Germany will hazard all the forces she has withdrawn from the East upon an attempt to smash up the France-British defence in the West.

"It is improbable that the enemy will try to advance deeply into the interior of the north of Russia. If the Grand Duke makes good his present retreat Germany is more likely to try to contain him for the next few months upon the fortified lines which could be held by a far smaller number of troops than are employed in the attack by Von Hindenberg and Von Mackensen. The Russian southern armies would be contained in the same way upon lines which it is premature to guess at.

"In any case, it is probable that over a million men, with a proportionate mass of artillery, will be available for an attempt to force conclusions elsewhere.

"There is only one thing that can be trusted with certainty to turn the balance to the allies. We have to bring into play the biggest army by far that yet remains unmobilized in Europe.

"That factor is the yet undeveloped military strength of Great Britain.

"This is one thing which has been hitherto wanting in the war, the one thing needed to win the war. Without it there can be no victory, with it success is sure.

BRITAIN MUST BE AROUSED.

"The allies cannot seize the mastery until Britain places in the field more than twice the number of troops, large enough it may be, that she has yet thrown into Europe. Only that power to make assurance doubly sure for the allies is for Great Britain, after a year of war to rise to the biggest view of her military requirements and make bolder use of her military means. The effect of that will be the same as though another great power could be added to the Great Alliance.

"No competent critic of European conditions believes we will be secure against all contingencies until we have nearly 2,000,000 men under arms in Europe, as many more behind them in training at home. This country will not be equal to its duty to the allies and to the issues of existence at stake for the empire until we have created the factor that will alone insure overwhelming the enemy.

"We believe the fall of Warsaw ought to be more than relieved in its effect upon our allies and the world by a declaration of universal service in this country. By that measure alone the full determination and capacity of Great Britain can be attested without those doubts and delays which should not long be tolerated in waging in this most fateful of wars."

REPORT AUSTRIA ABOUT TO GIVE UP TRIESTE

By BRITON D'ALLAIRE.

Special Correspondent of the International News Service.

ROME, Aug. 2.—Heavy fighting in the Austro-Italian theatre of war has shifted from the Isonzo front to Tyrol and Trentino, and the War Office reports severe hostilities in the Alps, with both infantry and artillery engaged on a big scale.

Along the southern end of the Isonzo front the Austrian lines have been weakened to such an extent by ten days' constant battering by the Italians that Trieste is in greater danger than at any time since hostilities broke out.

It is reported on excellent authority that the Austrians are making extensive plans for the evacuation of the city in order to prevent the capture of the army concentrated in the part of the Istria peninsula.

The Austrians are said to be removing machinery from the arms factories at Trieste and are also removing military supplies to prevent their capture.

The tenacity of the defence of Gorizia has proved a surprise to military experts, who expected the fall of the Austrian city long before this.

The delay in the capture of the stronghold is explained by the fact that Lieutenant-General Cardorna is not disposed to sacrifice his men recklessly by hurling them against the strong defences of the Austrians.

He is content to adopt trench fighting such as is in progress in France and Belgium.

On Carzo Plateau, in the Goritia region, the Italians are in possession of all the first line defences of the Austrians.

A dispatch from Udine states that the Austrians in Moritia Crownland have retired to the Vallone Chain which forms the second line of defence on the Gorizia - Montfalcone front. The Italian advance in that region amounts to twelve miles. On the Carzo Plateau the Austrian lines have been strengthened with two army corps.

The recent losses on the Isonzo front have been enormous.

Germany to Control Cotton Industries

Boston American and London Daily Telegraph Exclusive Cable.

ROTTERDAM, Aug. 2.—Confirmation of the report that German cotton industries are coming under government control comes from the Prussian frontier. From today all textile factories and factories in Westphalia will be worked under State control to ensure equal division of cotton among the factories of Germany.

Bulgaria for Allies, Says a Sofia Report

PARIS, Aug. 2.—The Temps' Sofia correspondent cables interviews with the Bulgarian opposition who wish to join the allies. All assert that the country is really friendly toward the allies, though they hint the government is pro-German.

French Aviators Fire German Stores

By International News Service.

AMSTERDAM, Aug. 2.—French aviators dropped twenty-five bombs on the Alsatian towns of Markweiler and Walburg Sunday. German military stores at both places were set on fire.

The Greatest of all "Fours"

Imperial

$995

With a 115-inch Wheel-base and Fully Equipped

The Proof is Here

Continental four-cylinder 3¾ x 5 Motor, Westinghouse latest starting, lighting and ignition system, Muncie transmission, Salisbury axles with Brown-Lipe bevel differential, Fedder's Honeycomb radiator, Alloy Steel springs—a big, roomy five-passenger body, beautifully finished, 33 x 4 tires, speedometer, electric horn and demountable rims.

A fully equipped standard "Four"—truly a wonderful car.

The Imperial Motor Car Co.

1094 Commonwealth Ave.

Imperial Department Mutual Motors Company Jackson, Mich. U. S. A.

DEALERS: Some very valuable territory is still available—we offer the fairest sales contract ever written.

EDIZIONE ITALIANA

BOSTON AMERICAN

VOL. 1. BOSTON, 2 AGOSTO, 1915. NO. 35.

Gli Austriaci evacuano da Tries te. I nostri vanno avanti sempre

L'offensiva Nel Trentino

E' cominciata l'offensiva Italiana nel Trentino e sulle Carniche. Gli Austriaci in qualcuno del loro attacchi perdettero la metà dei loro uomini.

Sull'altipiano Carso gli Italiani spezzarono la prima e la seconda linea di difesa Austriaca, conquistando parecchie miglia di terreno.

La violenta dell'attacco Italiano sul Carso e descritta dai prigionieri come la più furiosa che abbiano sostenuto, al paragone della quale non reggono gli attacchi russi.

Dopo un attacco alle posizioni Italiane, gli Austriaci andarono incontro ad una grandine di granate che semino' la morte in mezzo a loro e li costrinse a fuggire indietro.

LA DUMA RUSSA PER L'ITALIA.

PIETROGRADO, 1 agosto — Nella Duma si e' discusso intorno alla automasia da dare alla Polonia e largamente avuta una dichiarazione nazionale che deve portare alla sconfitta tedesca.

ROMA, 2 Agosto—Lungo la parte meridionale del fronte dell Isonzo le linee Austriache sono state indebolite a tal punto, dai dieci giorni di continui attacchi Italiani, che Trieste e in gran pericolo piu' di quanto non lo sia stato da che le ostilita' incominciarono.

Viene riferito da fonte degna di fede che gli Austriaci cominciano ad evacuare la citta' per prevenire la cattura dell esercito che vi e' concentrato in quella parte della penisola d'Istria. Gli Austriaci stanno muovono i macchinari dalle manifature di armi, tutte le munizioni e materiale da guerra e viveri dai magazzini militari.

La resistenza della difesa Austriaca sorprende tutti, poiche' la caduta della citta' era ritenuta meno difficile.

Milano, 1 agosto—Gli Italiani hanno fatto tali progressi sull'altipiano Carso. I contro-attacchi austriaci sono stati respinti. I nemici scavano delle trincee un po' indietro dalle posizioni che sono state conquistate dagli Italiani.

LE PERDITE TEDESCHE, SECONDO LA SVIZZERA.

Si ha da Ginevra che la cattura di Lublino e costata al Tedeschi 70.000 uomini. In un progresso di sette miglia, ben 35.000 tedeschi furon perduti.

DUEL CHE INCOMINCIA IN SVIZZERA.

GINEVRA, 1 agosto—La offensiva generale sul Tirolo, Trentino e sulle Carniche fu iniziata ieri dagli Italiani, forzando gli Austriaci ad accasare alcune delle loro importanti posizioni. I reggimenti dalmati che attaccarono Freikopf perdettero il 60 per cent. dei loro effettivi.

Gli Italiani hanno rotto la seconda linea di trincee austriache sull'altipiano Carso, prendendo parecchie miglia di difese.

Sempre in Lotta Sul Carso

Il progetto austriaco di dar fuoco alla foresta del Cappuccio fu frustrato dalla vigilanza degli Italiani.

Nel giorno seguente gravi combattimenti si verificarono all 'est di monte Sei Busi e del bosco Cappuccio, dove gli Austriaci avanzano premendo delle trincee e dei ruscelli lavori di reticolati che gli Italiani non poterono superare. Cio' non di meno, alla sera, parecchie linee di tali trincee erano in mano degli Italiani nonche' 300 prigionieri.

NOTIZIA TEDESCA.

Berlino, 1 agosto.—Secondo la notizie pervenute qui, gli attacchi italiani sull' Isonzo sono tutti falliti. Gli Austriaci mantengono le loro posizioni e gli Italiani, avendo sofferto grandi perdite sono molto scoraggiati.

TURKS CAPTURE TRENCHES OF ALLIES.

By LUDWIG VON KLEIN.

Special Correspondent of the International News Service.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 2.—(Via Berlin wireless). Turkish troops have taken the offensive against the allies on Gallipoli peninsula and penetrated the enemy's trenches near Sedd-El-Bahr, the War Office announced today. The offensive movement was launched on Saturday. In their first assaults the Ottoman forces captured many prisoners, together with rifles and quantities of war munitions.

Latest reports from the front state that hard fighting is still in progress. The allied warships have opened fire upon the trenches captured by the Turks.

A Russian torpedo boat is reported to have been sunk by Turkish destroyers in the Black Sea.

Turkey is working to avoid an open break with Italy. Official announcement was made today that there was no truth in the report that this government intends to expel Italians from the eastern provinces. Details of a Turkish aviators' raid on the allies' base at Tenedos are given in the following official statement:

"One of our aviators dropped four bombs on Tenedos with good effect, one striking the aerodrome. The aviator was pursued by two of the enemy's airmen, who fled on him with machine guns."

British Submarine Kills 200 on Train

By International News Service.

ATHENS, Aug. 2.—The British submarine operating in the Sea of Marmora shelled a Turkish troop train near Haidar Pasha on Friday, destroying seven cars and killing more than 200 soldiers, according to advices received here today.

Real War Ends War Debate at Hingham

A dispute on the war situation ended in the shooting of Pasquale Femia, forty-five, of Cedar street, Hingham. Salvatori Mazzerro, forty, of Hingham, was arrested, charged with assault with intent to kill. Femia is not expected to live.

Danish Loan Fails.

COPENHAGEN, Aug. 2.—The Danish government's loan has failed, only half of the amount sought has been subscribed.

France Finds No Cause for Alarm in Czar's Retreat

The AMERICAN presents herewith the first official statement from any of the Entente governments on the meaning of the present operations in Poland.

By VICTOR AUGAGNEUR, Minister of Marine in the French Cabinet.

PARIS, Aug. 2.—The retreat of the Russian army does not cause us the least anxiety. It will not be long before its momentary causes disappear.

We appreciate the real value of the wise and heroic decision of the Russian general-in-chief not to allow himself to be shut up in fortified places, but to profit by the immense extent of the country wherein he manoeuvres, destroying in his retreat many thousands of the enemy, pending the time when he will resume the offensive against the exhausted Austro-Germans.

This great movement is adapted especially to the strategic conditions of the country.

On the part of all the allies efforts by sea and land will continue indefatigably.

The Koelnische Zeitung is an influential newspapers which has been used on many occasions as the organ of "inspired" articles.

Considering all the elements of the situation, the possibility exists that the German government has come to regard the peace proposals of the Vatican seriously.

Kaiser Calls Cruiser After Hindenburg

LONDON, Aug. 2.—According to a dispatch from Berlin received by Reuter's, the 25,000-ton battle cruiser which was to have been named Ersatz Hertha, and which was launched Sunday at Wilhelmshaven, was by order of the Emperor christened Von Hindenburg.

Armies Sent Ikons by Russian Empress

PETROGRAD, Aug. 2.—The Empress has sent a great quantity of linen, sacred ikons and respirators to the garrisons holding the fortresses of Novo Georgievsk, Ivangorod, Kovno and Osowetz.

Business Notice.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children

In Use For Over 30 Years

Always bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

GERMAN PRAISE FOR THE POPE'S PEACE MOVE.

By FREDERICK WERNER.

Special Correspondent of the International News Service.

BERLIN, Aug. 2.—Significance is attached to the whole-hearted approval of Pope Benedict XV.'s recent peace appeal by the Koelnische Zeitung in its current issue. This influential newspaper declares that the Pope has erected a lasting monument to his memory by his efforts to end the war.

"Pope Benedict is deserving of the greatest gratitude of mankind far beyond the circles of the Roman Catholic church," says the Koelnische Zeitung, "but in London, Paris, Petrograd and Rome his peace efforts get only a sharp 'No' for an answer.

"Meanwhile Germany tightens her grasp upon the sword ready to deal heavier blows, and she is accomplishing what religion and humanity have been unable to accomplish, the guarantee of an honorable, lasting peace."

The foregoing information was issued through the Overseas News Agency, the official news distributing bureau of the German government.

The Koelnische Zeitung is an influential newspapers which has been used on many occasions as the organ of "inspired" articles.

Considering all the elements of the situation, the possibility exists that the German government has come to regard the peace proposals of the Vatican seriously.

McAdoo in Boston on Way to Cornish

William G. McAdoo, Secretary of the Treasury, arrived in Boston early today, had breakfast, and immediately left for Cornish, N. H., to visit the President. He is accompanied by his wife, who is a daughter of the President.

Secretary McAdoo said: "Our visit is merely a social one. We are going to stay only one day."

The McAdoos have been summering at North Haven, Me. They came to Boston on the Bangor boat Camden last night, and on their arrival in Boston took a taxicab for the North Station, where they had breakfast. After breakfast they were met by the McAdoo automobile and started for Windsor, Vt., over the road.

Halifax Schooner Abandoned at Sea

By International News Service.

LONDON, Aug. 2.—The British schooner Gypsum Queen, 652 tons, bound from Halifax, N. S., to Preston with a cargo of lumber, was abandoned at sea on Saturday, according to a Lloyd's dispatch from Brow Head today. The crew was saved. The schooner was abandoned in latitude 48 north and longitude 23 west.

GERMAN ATTACK AT 3 POINTS REPULSED

By FRANKLIN P. MERRICK.

Special Correspondent of the International News Service.

PARIS, Aug. 2.—Infantry fighting has been resumed at many points along the battle front, the War Office announced today. The official communique reports repulse of German attacks in the Arras region, in the Argonne and on the Meuse heights. The text of the communique follows:

"On the night of Aug. 1 and the night of Aug. 1-2 were marked by various infantry engagements.

"In Artois after having repulsed numerous German attacks with grenades we captured part of a trench in the region of Carency, north to Arras, to the north of the national highway from Bethune to Arras. Around Souches the conflict was waged with petards and grenades without any change in the front on either side.

"In Champagne, on the Perthes-Beausejour front, the conflict was waged with mines, in which we gained advantage.

"In the Argonne, in the region of Marie Therese and of Hubert, after a lively combat with bombs and petards, the Germans attempted numerous counter-attacks, all of which were repulsed.

"On the heights of the Meuse, between Les Eparges and Calonne trench, the enemy three times attacked our positions in the Hautbois. Our artillery and rifle stopped these attacks.

"Pont-a-Mousson and the villages of Maidieres and Manonvorte-sur-Seille have been bombarded with incendiary shells."

PRESS OF GERMANY APPLAUDS KAISER'S MAINFESTO ON WAR

BERLIN, Aug. 2.—The entire German press is expressing enthusiastic approval of the proclamation issued by Emperor William on the first anniversary of the outbreak of the war. The newspapers point out that every word in the manifesto breathes the accustomed high seriousness" of the Kaiser.

In spite of one year of war, the Emperor shows a deep-rooted love of peace, a conviction of the righteousness of the German cause, a clear conscience and an unshakable confidence in the future, say the newspapers.

This confidence on the part of the Kaiser is based upon the united strength of all classes and the sound economic condition of Germany. The German ruler, as well as the whole nation, is animated by a firm resolution to secure lasting peace which will open the road for paralleled national development.

Special services were conducted in churches throughout the empire on Sunday, with prayers for an early ending of the war with success on the side of Germany.

The service was made more impressive because of the extraordinary number of women in mourning who attended.

Many newspapers today devoted much space to the first year of the war, with special emphasis upon the achievement of the German armies in the Eastern and Western theatres of war and sketches of the foremost military geniuses brought to the public gaze. Chief among these are Field Marshal von Hindenberg, Field Marshal von Mackensen and General von Kluck.

German Bombs Kill 3 at St. Omer, France

By International News Service.

PARIS, Aug. 22.—German aviators dropped five bombs upon St. Omer Wednesday, according to a delayed dispatch received today. Three persons were killed. The Germans were driven off by British airmen.

3,000 Constantinople Buildings Burned

ATHENS via London), Aug. 2.—Arrivals from Constantinople report that 3,000 buildings, including the German hospital filled with wounded, were destroyed by fire last week.

Czar Calls on Army and Navy for New Efforts

PETROGRAD, Aug 2.—An imperial order to the army and fleet on the first anniversary of the declaration of war breathes the spirit which moves Russia today. The Czar, among other things, says:

"After ten years' preparation for the invasion of our country the enemy has failed to crush our strength, and, trampling under foot all the accepted rules of war, is dashing to pieces his regiments on the granite rock of Russian soldiery."

The Emperor calls upon his soldiers and sailors for fresh and prolonged efforts, adding:

"The Lord God, in His unfathomable wisdom, has been pleased oftentimes to send upon our land grave trials. But our country has come out of its strife with fresh strength and renewed might."

Food Raid Causes Palestine Famine

By International News Service.

PARIS, Aug. 2.—War has brought famine and pestilence to Palestine, says a traveler who has just returned from Jerusalem. The Turks seized all the food when the war broke out, and since then a plague of grasshoppers has descended upon the land, destroying all crops. Christians are being persecuted and martyrized without regard to nationality.

Labor Urges Peace Effort by Wilson

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—Resolutions adopted by the conference of "Labor's National Peace Council," just held here, are to be presented to President Wilson as soon as he returns to Washington. These resolutions urge the United States to make every effort to remain out of the European conflict and urge President Wilson to act wherever possible in aiding a restoration of peace.

BERLIN TO SEND FRYE CASE TO PRIZE COURT

By International News Service.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—Germany will not accede to the request of the United States, by keeping the Frye case out of a prize court. This, it was learned on high authority this afternoon, is in substance what the latest communication to the United States from Germany says. The note, which was sent in sections, was all in the State Department's hands this afternoon.

Germany reaffirms her position that she was compelled to submit the case to a prize court it was learned. The claim of the United States that under an old treaty with Prussia, the case should be settled without court proceedings is denied.

French Report German Cruelties

By International News Service.

PARIS, Aug. 2.—The official commission on "violation of the laws of war" today submitted a report holding German troops guilty of barbarities against French soldiers, members of the French medical corps and non-combatants.

"On numerous occasions," it says, "the Germans used military and civilian prisoners as a shield for the fire of French troops."

The method was followed, the report adds, at Courtacon, Senlis, Neery and Combree.

The report accuses the Germans of using bullets made to inflict severe wounds, and also of employing saw-toothed bayonets.

Rush Big Guns to Bombard Warsaw

By International News Service.

AMSTERDAM, Aug. 2.—Berlin advices state that two new 42-centimeter guns have been sent from the Krupp works at Essen to bombard the Warsaw forts.

Theatres.

TREMONT THEATRE

LAST THREE WEEKS

Griffith's Supreme Triumph

TODAY AT 2:15 — THE BIRTH OF A NATION — TONIGHT AT 8:15

NOTICE—This show will positively not appear in any other New England city.

MAJESTIC—Mat. Today

Daily Mats. Y.15. Every Eve. 8:15.

Carle Sloane and Echlin Gayer in

THE MAN FROM HOME

Prices: Mats. 25c, 50c; Eves. 25c to $2.00

NEXT WEEK—VALESKA SURATT in "Sin."

LOEW'S ST. JAMES

Pirate Midgets, Richard Burton; Moss & Frye; Cecil Dunham; Stanley James Co.; Stanley & Arguerite; Charles Bradley & Others. "The Romance of Elaine." Friday Night, Chaplin Contest.

LOEW'S GLOBE

The Beauty Shop. Frank Terry; Cole & Denahy; Smith & Ralph; The Nellis; Charles Bradley, and Others. Romance of Elaine. Thurs. Night, Chaplin Contest. Next week, Musettes. Four.

PARK

Mary Pickford in "Rags," Ina Claire in "The Puppet Crown," Charlie Chaplin and other big features. A great three-hour show.

Scollay Square

OLYMPIA Con. 9:30 A.M. to 10:30 P. M.

15 Acts and Photo Plays Features 15

MODERN

Continuous 10 a.m. 10:30 p.m. Perfectly cooled & ventilated.

Earl Williams and Anita Stewart In "THE SINS OF THE MOTHERS." Mon., Tues., Wed., "The Goddess."

Theatres.

B. F. KEITH'S Twice Daily 1:15 & 7:45

GRAND MIDSUMMER CARNIVAL

IMPERIAL BALLET

From the Metropolitan Opera House

LEO PERNIKOFF & ETHEL ROSE

JAMES C. MORTON & MOORE — FRANK F.

Of "The Tik Tok Man of Oz."

Theo. Bendix Symphony Players. Robt. E. Keane. Olive Briscoe

Loyal's Trained French Poodles. Al & Fannie Steadman.

Clairmont Bros. Adeline Francis

BOSTON Daily Concerts by the FADETTES Women's Orchestra Caroline B. Nichols, Director

10 A.M. to 10:30 P.M. 15 & 25 CENTS

William Faversham, Sir Gilbert Parker in The Right of Way, Charlie Chaplin in The Rink. Mack Sennett Comedies. Current Features. Continuous.

Amusements.

BASE BALL

TUESDAY, AUG. 3

AT 3:15

RED SOX vs. DETROIT

FENWAY PARK

Tickets now on sale by our agent at A. Shuman & Co. Phone Oxford 1680

PROVINCETOWN

First Landing Place of the Pilgrims

100 MILE DAILY ROUND TRIP $1

The Big Iron Steamship Dorothy Bradford leaves wharf, 400 Atlantic Ave., Daily 9 A. M., Sundays 9:30 A. M.

CAPE COD SS. CO. Tel. Main 5000

SEND FOR ALL BACK PICTURES

AND SHARE IN THE

Play Title Contest

$4000 in Cash Awards

DO IT NOW!

Title Lists Are Free!

Mail Orders Filled when accompanied by return postage.

BOSTON AMERICAN

PLAY TITLE CONTEST

This Is Picture No. 39.

Monday, August 2, 1915.

WHAT PLAY TITLE BEST FITS THIS PICTURE?

Write Title of Play Here:

My Name Is.....

Address.....

Town.....State.....

Hold all coupons until you have the entire set. No answers will be considered if sent in before the publication of the last picture.

Back Pictures Can Be Obtained NOW!

For the convenience of those who desire them, back pictures can be obtained by sending to the American Promotion Dept., No. 5 Winthrop Square, Boston, 1c for each daily picture and 5c for each Sunday picture. Mail orders will not be filled unless accompanied by return postage.

The Contest Plan

Each day, for 85 consecutive days, a picture will be printed in the BOSTON AMERICAN. Contestants must supply each picture with a title, using the title of a Play, that shall be most fitting and appropriate, describing it most completely or fitting it most perfectly. The one supplying the greatest number of such fitting and appropriate play titles shall earn the first award; the one supplying the next greatest number earns the next award, etc.

There will be no book of titles to buy. An official List of Play Titles will appear each week in the Sunday American during the contest. This list will be the standard for contestants to use in selecting play titles for the pictures appearing during the seven days beginning with each Sunday. Official List Publication, and all titles selected for that week's seven pictures must be among those in and selected from this list.

THE AWARDS

1st AWARD	$1,000 CASH	4th Award	$125.00 Cash
2d AWARD	$600.00 CASH	5th Award	$75.00 Cash
3d AWARD	$500.00 CASH	6th Award	$50.00 Cash
4th Award	$250.00 Cash	7th Award	$25.00 Cash
5th Award	$150.00 Cash	8th-10th Awards	$10.00 Each
		11th-15th Awards	$5.00 Each
		16th-165th Awards	$2.00 Each

THE JUDGES

Three Official Judges Will Decide Winners

A Committee of Judges, widely known for their reputation and ability, will decide which titles are most fitting and appropriate after full examination of all submitted. Judgment and award only will be declared.

PEOPLE STARVE TO DEATH IN MEXICO CITY

By International News Service.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—Actual deaths from starvation in Mexico City were reported today to the American Red Cross here by its agent, Charles O'Conner at the Mexican capital. The food situation is growing worse daily, the report stated, and the people are eating horses and mules, grass and weeds. There is no food to be had at any price and the supply of corn has been exhausted.

State Department advices today from the Mexican capital via Vera Cruz, under date of August 1, said Mexico City was occupied by General Gonzales on Friday night under urgent orders from Carranza. This followed a severe fight between Gonzales' army and the Villistas and Zapatistas just east of Villa Guadalupe.

Consul General Silliman at Vera Cruz reported a military demonstration was held there for two hours when the news arrived that Mexico City was retaken.

Silliman added that the occupation of Zacatecas by Obregon's army was confirmed, and that General Gonzales was ordered to go directly into Mexico City and not tarry on the outskirts as he did before.

The State Department announced that Consul General Shanklin, who was recalled from Mexico City, had gone to Connecticut, but would probably come here tomorrow for his conference with Secretary Lansing.

Condon and Backus Deputy U.S. Marshals

Frank J. Condon and John H. Backus were today sworn in before Judge Dodge of the United States District Court as United States deputy marshals, taking the places of former Deputy Marshals Ruhl and Hicks, who were dropped from the service by Marshal Mitchell. Condon comes from North Attleboro. He is a jeweler by trade. He is a prominent member of the Elks and Moose. He was born in 1876. Backus was born in 1877 in New Bedford. He is an electrical engineer by trade and a member of the Young Men's Catholic Temperance Association. He did active work for Congressman Thacher during the last campaign.

Mrs. Roosevelt Has Recovered

CHICAGO, Aug. 2.—Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt has practically recovered from her illness which forced her to start from the Pacific coast for her home at Oyster Bay, L. I.

The Colonel and his wife stopped off between trains here and Mrs. Roosevelt had sufficiently recovered from her indisposition to enable her to accompany her husband to the Zoo and later they attended services at the Fourth Presbyterian Church.

The long trip to the coast following her recent operation at a New York hospital is said to be responsible for Mrs. Roosevelt's illness.

JESS WILLARD TELLS OF IRISH BOXER KNIGHTED BY KING

One of Willard's chief characteristics is his fondness for children. He also has long been a friend of the red man. The accompanying picture shows the new heavyweight champion of the world entertaining one of his youthful admirers.

PHOTO BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE.

Champion Willard at play with little Indian girl.

By JESS WILLARD.

Copyright, 1915, by A. Merritt. All Rights Reserved.

If Jim Coffey ever wins the championship of the world he'll own Ireland. The Emerald Isle is proud of its fighters, but the Irish certainly go wild when any son of Erin makes a noise like a champion.

From the way Walter Monahan used to talk about Sir Daniel Donnelly I thought that Dan was champion of the world, and the best man that ever put foot into the ring. There was a "come all ye" that he used to sing that told how brave Donnelly beat Cooper, the English champion. The song had more than 300 verses.

From the other poems that Walter could reel off, I reckon every poet in Ireland took a whack at Sir Daniel. And when he died all Ireland turned out at his funeral, and the island was black with crepe.

I don't want to make any of my Irish friends mad, but ring history doesn't give Donnelly such a wonderful record by any means. He whipped Cooper all right enough, but Cooper wasn't champion of England by a whole lot.

The only other two men he whipped were Hall and Tom Oliver, and they were second-raters. However, Dan did go over to England, and it is a fact that Cribb, the champion, didn't show any great liking for the big Irishman's game.

All the same, Ireland called him champion of the world, and he was the greatest hero since Brian Boru. And King George did knight him, and it is true that his funeral was one of the biggest in the history of the isle. And maybe he would have been champion of the world had it not been for his sudden death at the age of 32.

Donnelly started in life as a carpenter, but he was too handy a man with his fists to stay long in any trade. He whipped every man in Dublin, and the fighting at Donnybrook Fair was one long victory for the husky Dan.

After he had shown that there wasn't a man in Ireland that could stand up against him to touch and tumble, Donnelly was persuaded to enter the professional ring. The man picked to meet him was Tom Hall, a pretty good English fighter, then on a sparring tour through Ireland.

The battle was for a subscription purse of $500 and took place on September 14, 1814. The ring was pitched on the Curragh of Kildare, and over 20,000 people saw the fight, everyone yelling for Dan to whip the Sassenach.

And Dan did. What he lacked in science he made up in strength and courage, and he whaled the life out of Mr. Hall in just fourteen rounds.

A year later Donnelly had his celebrated fight with Cooper, the so-called English champion. Cooper was never that.

Tom Cribb was champion of England at the time, and had been for seven years. At that Cooper was a great fighter and it was only lack of weight that held him back. He stood only five feet ten, and weighed 170 pounds.

At the time of his match with Donnelly, Cooper was fresh from whipping Molineaux, the big black who had given Tom Cribb the fight of his life. He was supposed to be the most scientific man in the ring, and the most "smart money" backed him to whip the big Irishman.

The men met on Monday morning, December 12, 1815, on the Curragh of Kildare, and, let all the Winter weather could keep the crowd away. As far as eye could see, the ground was black with people, fighting for a look at the ring.

From the first blow it was seen that Donnelly had gained speed and skill. He tore at Cooper like a real champion, and landed the first round with a clean knockdown. In the second round he drew blood from Cooper's ear, and sent him over the ropes with a terrific right hander.

It was the same in the third round. Donnelly actually blocked Cooper's leads and landed his own in clean, stinging shape. In the third round and again in the fourth Donnelly followed hard punishment with smashing knockdowns.

The fifth round, however, took the grin off of Dan's chops. Cooper reentered the ring wide open and then put a right to the ear that sent Donnelly to the turf. The Irish proved their sportsmanship by giving a loud cheer for the plucky Englishman. But they followed it by begging Dan to get down to work.

In the seventh round Donnelly proved that he could wrestle as well as hit. In the clinch he gave Cooper "one of the most dreadful crossbutchers ever witnessed," almost crushing the life out of him. Dan ended the eighth round with a left hander that took Cooper off his pins.

It was just a question now how long Cooper's gameness could stand the gaff. Round after round he took punishment, and came up with a smile, but the eleventh round saw his finish. Donnelly sent a mighty left home to the mouth, and then smashed his right into the ear. Poor Cooper went down like a log, and it was some time before they brought him to.

Four years did Dan rest on his laurels, whipping a roustabout now and then to keep his hand in, but never entering the ring. He was waiting for some of the English boys to come over, and when none came, he decided to take a trip across the channel himself.

He landed in England in February, 1819, and on going to London, was as big a sight as a three-ring circus. He gave the fancy a taste of what he could do by boxing several exhibitions at benefits, meeting Carter, the Lancashire champion, and Tom Spring, champion of England after Cribb's retirement in 1822.

Dan's first fight was with Tom Oliver, a good coming fighter, who had his eye on the championship. Oliver challenged the Irish shillelagh for $500 a side, and the fight was pulled off at Crawley Hurst, July 21, 1819.

Oliver was seconded by Cribb, the champion, and Tom Sheldon, while Tom Belcher and Jack Randall, the Nonpareil, looked after Donnelly. England backed Oliver and Ireland backed Donnelly, and over a half million dollars was bet on the fight.

The fight was one of the hardest ever seen on English turf, and lasted one hour and two minutes. Up to the twentieth round, Donnelly had the best of it. He handled himself like a champion, and had ended most of the rounds with knockdowns or falls.

But all the time Dan was gulping down water between the rounds. Belcher and Randall begged him to sit tight on his thirst, but the big Irishman kept insisting that he would end the fight in a minute, or two.

But in the twentieth round he was full of water and out of wind. Oliver saw his condition, and began to fight like a wild man. For two rounds Donnelly took hard punishment, and the betting changed to five to one on Oliver.

But Oliver staggered to the scratch, Donnelly landed a swing on the ear, and then lifted the Englishman around the ring and then into the air, slamming him to the ground. Oliver's head fell limp on his shoulder, and Dan dragged him to his corner, a beaten man.

Both men were punished so badly that the doctors had to bleed their faces, but when that job was over they stood hands, took a drink together and walked back arm in arm to make a second battle.

There was more courage in this fight with Oliver that the Prince Regent included Donnelly and he went back to Ireland Sir Daniel.

Donnelly had no more fights in England. What money he had was spent so fast that he had to fly back to Ireland to keep from being in jail for debt. Jack Carter, the Lancashire champion, followed him over, but it was while a fight was being arranged that Sir Daniel died. He was keeping a public house in the Dublin suburbs, attending to all the business himself. One morning a number of whiskey puncheons he placed a hard game of "keno" and his heart went back on him.

There you've got your temperance lesson in a nutshell. Dan Donnelly never took a drink until he got to be champion of Ireland. And then he was sure that nothing could hurt him. He was a giant in size and strength, he'd never had a sick day, and there wasn't a man that could stand up before him.

And he died at thirty-two. Just dropped dead! The great heart that could stand up against all the punishment that fighters could give, gave in to whiskey.

[Tomorrow Willard will tell of Jack Langan, another great Irish fighter.]

BLAME FIREBUG FOR 6 DEATHS IN CHELSEA

The State today placed the official verdict of incendiarism upon the fire which cost six lives in the family of Michael Jankowski at No. 46 Beacon street, Chelsea, in the early morning of July 26.

"The fire was caused by a person who dragged a mattress from a closet in one of the rooms to the lower floor, which was unoccupied, placed it against the stairway in the lower hall and undoubtedly set fire to it," said Acting Chief George H. Neal of the State police at the close of the State's inquest.

The investigator is unknown. The State police are still investigating.

The inquest showed that Joseph Demchowski, a relative of the family, slept on the mattress until 4 o'clock the afternoon before the fire. He testified he rolled it up and placed it in the closet. He then went to work and was working at the time of the fire.

Acting Chief Neal said that Charlie Taylor, eleven, detained by the police the day of the fire, was innocent. "The boy has been sent to a boy's school for a fire he started in his own home," he said.

Moynihan Files Papers.

James J. Moynihan of Boston today filed papers with the Secretary of State for the Democratic nomination in the Twentieth Suffolk Representative District.

"A Rubber Chain Tread Built on a Powerful Modern Tire"

Leading Makers Adopt Them

Among the world-famous leading automobile manufacturers who have already adopted "Chain Tread" Tires as a part of their standard equipment are the following:

Buick	Grant	Maxwell
Chalmers	Haynes	Mitchell
Dodge Bros.	King	Reo

These leading makes of cars are famed for the high quality of their equipment. This proves that the sensational wear-resisting "Chain Tread" Anti-skid Tires are "the big mileage" tires.

By keeping one of our tire record blanks you can prove in black and white every claim we make for "Chain Tread" Tires, and learn that the men who make these leading cars adopted the right tire when they selected the "Chain Tread."

"Chain Tread Tires"

Safety experts acknowledge our rubber chain tread, built on this powerful modern tire to be an absolutely marvelous anti-skid device.

"Chain Treads" are not simply a fancy design stamped on a tire—they are real anti-skid tires. Send your name and address for a set of Free Tire Record Blanks, to Boston Branch, United States Tire Co., 560 Commonwealth Av.

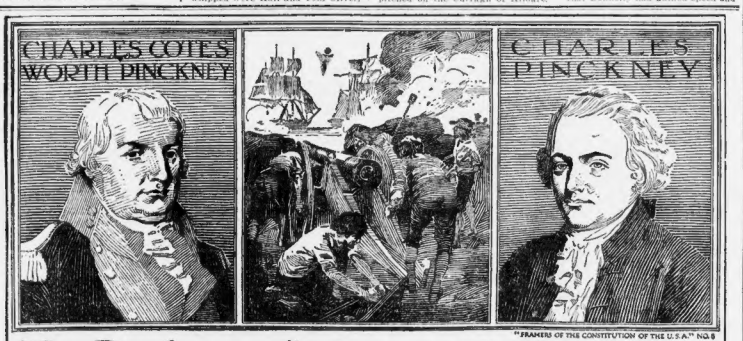
"Chain Tread" Tires are sold by Leading Reliable Dealers. Do not accept substitutes.

United States Tires

Made by the Largest Rubber Company in the World

(Operating 46 Factories)



"FRAMERS OF THE CONSTITUTION OF THE U.S.A." NO. 8

The Pinckneys—"Fathers of the Republic"

PERHAPS South Carolina's best gift to this Free Republic was the splendid services of her two great sons—Charles Cotesworth Pinckney and Charles Pinckney. It can truthfully be said of the Pinckneys that their love of honor was greater than their love of power, and deeper than their love of self. One played an important part in the "Louisiana Purchase"—the other, while an envoy to France, was told that the use of money would avert war, and to this replied: "Millions for defense, but not one cent for tribute." Both devoted their eminent abilities toward framing our National Law. The Constitution of the United States, as it stands to-day, was built upon the framework of a plan first proposed by Charles Pinckney. It was he who demanded that it contain freedom of religion, freedom of the press, habeas corpus and trial by jury. In political faith only did these two great men differ. Charles Pinckney was an ardent Democrat, and Charles C. Pinckney a loyal Federalist, and was twice a candidate for President. It is easy to imagine the horror that these two great lovers of Personal Liberty would have expressed if shown the proposed Prohibition Laws of to-day. It is needless to say that if alive they would VOTE NO to such tyrannous encroachments upon the NATURAL RIGHTS OF MAN. The Pinckneys both believed in the moderate use of light wines and barley brews. They also believed in legislation which encouraged the Brewing Industry because they knew that honest Barley Beer makes for true temperance. For 58 years Anheuser-Busch have been brewers of honest Barley-Malt and Saazer Hop beers—the kind the Pinckneys knew to be good for mankind. To-day their great brand—BUDWEISER—because of its quality, purity, mildness and exquisite flavor, exceeds the sale of any other beer by millions of bottles; 7500 people are daily required to keep pace with the public demand for BUDWEISER.

ANHEUSER-BUSCH · ST. LOUIS, U.S.A.

Visitors to St. Louis are courteously invited to inspect our plant—covers 142 acres.

S. S. Pierce Co. Distributors

Jacob Wirth Co. Boston, Mass.

Budweiser

Means Moderation

Be Sure That You Know What You Want Before Making a Kick at Not Getting It

AMERICAN'S DOUBLE PAGE OF SPORTS

BASEBALL SUMMARY

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

	W.	L.	P.C.		W.	L.	P.C.
BOSTON	71	37	.657	New York	58	49	.542
Chicago	57	51	.528	Cleveland	56	51	.523
Detroit	57	51	.528	Chicago	56	52	.519
Washington	47	57	.452	Philadelphia	32	71	.311

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

	W.	L.	P.C.		W.	L.	P.C.
Philadelphia	62	46	.600	Chicago	56	45	.554
Brooklyn	61	45	.576	New York	53	49	.520
Pittsburgh	57	45	.559	St. Louis	46	55	.455
BOSTON	57	45	.559	Cincinnati	40	63	.388

FEDERAL LEAGUE.

	W.	L.	P.C.		W.	L.	P.C.
Kansas City	70	47	.598	St. Louis	59	61	.492
Chicago	67	49	.578	Brooklyn	54	64	.458
Pittsburgh	61	47	.565	Buffalo	54	64	.458
Newark	61	52	.540	Baltimore	51	67	.432

NEW ENGLAND LEAGUE.

	W.	L.	P.C.		W.	L.	P.C.
Lawrence	49	35	.583	Lewiston	39	45	.464
Portland	47	37	.560	Lowell	39	46	.459
Worcester	44	40	.524	Manchester	35	48	.422
Lynn	41	39	.513	Fitchburg	34	50	.405

COLONIAL LEAGUE.

	W.	L.	P.C.		W.	L.	P.C.
Hartford	51	28	.646	N. Bedford	36	42	.462
Springfield	34	28	.548	Brockton	31	35	.470
New Haven	34	30	.531	Providence	30	36	.455

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE

	W.	L.	P.C.		W.	L.	P.C.
Providence	57	29	.663	Rochester	41	46	.471
Buffalo	45	37	.549	Toronto	34	48	.415
Harrisburg	44	39	.530	Richmond	31	52	.373
Montreal	38	51	.427	Jersey City	31	53	.369

AMERICAN LEAGUE

No games scheduled.

GAMES TODAY.

Detroit at Boston, 10:30 a. m.
Philadelphia at Chicago.
Cleveland at New York.
St. Louis at Washington.

NATIONAL LEAGUE
RESULTS YESTERDAY.

Cincinnati 4, Brooklyn 1; first game.
Cincinnati 9, Brooklyn 3; second game.
Chicago 4, Philadelphia 3; first game.
Chicago 5, Philadelphia 2; second game (6 innings).
St. Louis 4, New York 1; first game.

GAMES TODAY.

New York at St. Louis.
Philadelphia at Chicago.
Brooklyn at Cincinnati.

FEDERAL LEAGUE
RESULTS YESTERDAY.

Kansas City 2, Baltimore 1; first game.
Kansas City 6, Baltimore 2; second game.
Buffalo 3, Newark 2; first game.
Buffalo 11, St. Louis 1; second game, 11 innings, called.
Newark 4, Chicago 2; first game.
Newark 7, Chicago 2; second game.

GAMES TODAY.

Buffalo at St. Louis.
Newark at Chicago.
Baltimore at Kansas City.
Brooklyn at Pittsburgh.

NEW ENGLAND LEAGUE
GAMES TODAY.

Lynn at Lawrence.
Fitchburg at Manchester.
Worcester at Lawrence.
Lowell at Portland.

COLONIAL LEAGUE
GAMES TODAY.

Pawtucket at Brockton.
Springfield at Hartford.
New Bedford at New Haven.

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE
RESULT YESTERDAY.

Jersey City 4, Montreal 1; first game.
Montreal 11, Jersey City 1; second game.

GAMES TODAY.

Providence at Rochester.
Richmond at Buffalo.
Harrisburg at Toronto (2 games).

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION

Milwaukee 7, Columbus 1; first game.
Louisville 8, Kansas City 2; second game, called.
Louisville 2, Kansas City 0; second game, called.
Minneapolis 7, Indianapolis 3; first game.
Indianapolis 8, Minneapolis 2; second game.
St. Paul 8, Cleveland 2; first game.
St. Paul 4, Cleveland 1; second game.

SOUTHERN ASSOCIATION

Memphis 6, Mobile 0.
Nashville 4, Atlanta 3 (10 innings).

Four Challenges for Quincy Trophy

The annual sonder races for the Quincy challenge cup will start August 6 off Marblehead. The Boston Yacht Club is the defender this year and it is expected that Charles P. Curtis' Eileen, the defender last year, will again be called upon to compete.

The Corinthian, Eastern, Manchester and Wollaston Yacht Clubs have challenged and a great series of races is anticipated.

Special Days at Fenway.

Three special days are carded for the Red Sox this week. The Shriners will be the guests of Owner Lannin today. Tomorrow is Rockland Day and Friday the Suffragists will "root" for the Sox.

Heavies Box at Gloucester.

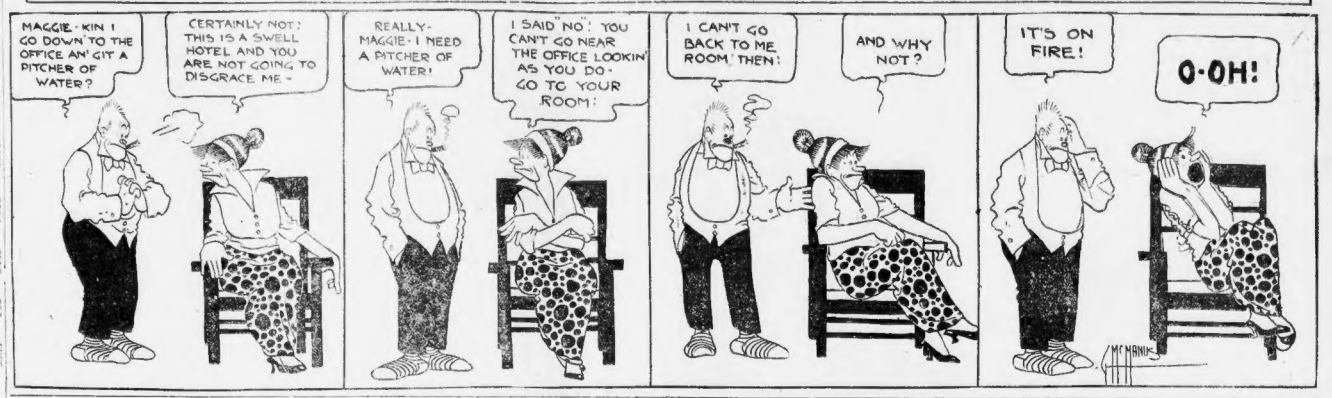
Jack Barry, a heavyweight from Chicago, and Luther Carroll are carded to clash at Gloucester tonight.

10¢
TURKISH TROPHIES
AMERICA'S GREATEST CIGARETTE
Makers of the Highest Grade Turkish and Egyptian Cigarettes in the World

Bringing Up Father

Copyright, 1915, by International News Service.

By George McManus



MAGGIE - KIN I GO DOWN TO THE OFFICE AN' GIT A PITCHER OF WATER?
CERTAINLY NOT: THIS IS A SWELL HOTEL AND YOU ARE NOT GOING TO DISGRACE ME - REALLY- MAGGIE- I NEED A PITCHER OF WATER!
I SAID "NO"; YOU CAN'T GO NEAR THE OFFICE LOOKIN' AS YOU DO- GO TO YOUR ROOM!
I CAN'T GO BACK TO ME ROOM, THEN!
AND WHY NOT?
IT'S ON FIRE!
O-OH!
GEO. McMANUS

BASEBALL CARD TODAY

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

Teams.	Position.	Per Cent. if They Win.	Per Cent. if They Lose.	Average Today.	Show Series Stands.	Pitchers
Detroit	3	.615	.500	.613	1	Dubuc or Boland.
At BOSTON	1	.641	.620	.637	1	Collins or Wood.
Chicago	4	.628	.617	.624	1	Faber or Scott.
At New York	5	.617	.574	.613	1	Fisher or Warhop.
St. Louis	6	.415	.404	.409	1	Loudermilk or Koob.
At Washington	7	.411	.406	.408	1	Ayres or Boehling.
Cleveland	7	.294	.282	.285	1	Hagerman or Jones.
At Philadelphia	8	.284	.278	.281	1	Bressler or Sheehan.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

*BOSTON	4	.518	.494	.511	0	Tyler and Ragan.
At Pittsburgh	3	.521	.500	.511	0	Harmon and Kitchener
Philadelphia	2	.563	.554	.559	0	Mayer or Chalmers.
At Chicago	5	.511	.500	.503	1	Lavender or Pierce.
Brooklyn	2	.526	.516	.521	0	Douglas or Pfeffer.
At Cincinnati	6	.443	.400	.431	1	Allen or Wingo.
New York	6	.494	.485	.489	1	Marquard or Perritt.
At St. Louis	7	.400	.389	.393	1	Sallee or Sallee.

*If they split even—Boston 505, Pittsburgh .511.

BASEBALL NEWS AND NOTES

"THAT was a great crowd, the biggest of the season," gasped a friend of Pitcher George Foster at the Red Sox Saturday evening. At the matinee Foster had said out the Tigers, 4 to 3. Was he glad he have a big crowd?" buzzed back the Oklahoma Farmer. "Honestly, I never once looked up at the stands."

* * *

THE crowd, totalling 20,884, was the biggest one of the Summer. That Foster did not at much as glance at it once proves that pitching championship game is no joke these advanced days. Marse George was further surprised when told he had pitched a four-hit game.

* * *

"QUIT your kidding," was Foster's reioinder. "Why, those Tigers hit me hard all afternoon and I know they got more than four hits off me. But when shown that Detroit's total totaled but four George was little shors of flabbergasted. But, say that was a tougher error the scorers saddled on Gardner off Donie Bush in the sixth inning. Honestly, Larry did mighty well in as much as get in front of that drive and knock it down. It should have been scored a hit."

* * *

ALL this goes to show how much Foster was wrapped up in the game. Furthermore, two of the four hits made off his slants were "outs" on how did he get the idea he was batted hard? Cobb and Young were the authors of the safe hunts. Cobb and Foster himself helping both Tigers by heaving wildly, following rapid pick-ups.

* * *

THE Tigers get through tomorrow, Wednesday. Lee Fohl, the ex-Watterbury pilot, comes to town for a four-days stay with his Indians.

* * *

BOSTON is the only Eastern city drawing big for Ban Johnson. Where practically 21,000 paid to see the Fenway Park matinee Saturday only 1,000 turned out in Philadelphia, 1,139 in Washington and 4,000 in New York. Hence, the local crowd was far more than the other three combined.

* * *

AFTER "Pickleburg Pete" Knisely made four errors on the second back for the Cubs in Saturday's opening set-to with the Giants, Roger Bresnahan yanked him off and inserted Jack Murray on the base. Jack fumbled also, but the Cubs came to grief, though winning with Peters' four pebbles.

* * *

ALEXANDER got charged with the loss of the first game at St. Louis Saturday, but the Cubs would have placed in the losing run having been gathered off Pennock in the ninth inning tally on third and no earmarks. The King walked "Dots" Miller and Hornsby, Flack's single to Paskert kept each of short. But Bender tore off a clean one-sport and the show was over.

* * *

SNYDER, who all things considered, is just about the best young receiver in baseball, came back with another finely-done September. With Sallee, the Hagerstown Huckleberry, opening with a victory he was named Snyder went up with two strikes in the extra canto and belted safely, driving over the winning run.

* * *

BUT for Brainard, a graduate of Fordham University, Saturday's Tigers might have tossed of two games in the Polo Grounds pastime. His home run broke up the Deak Ferris no-hit.

* * *

THE Brooklyns, with Benny Kauff pulling the gullet, done Negro stated a triple steal on the Sloglets Saturday. And still they were beaten.

* * *

THE Braves, though idle, had a big day. Cy Rigler's decision gave the Phillies a 10 to 9 victory over the Cubs and the Dodgers, running second in the nip-and-tuck race, dropped two to the Reds.

* * *

YOUNGSTER KARL ADAMS, who dropped a close one to the Braves when in town with the Cubs a few night ago, pitched right with Grover Alexander out in Chicago and got the best of the Phillies, 2 to 1. Behind Adams yielded five hits and King Grover four.

* * *

IT was mighty nice of old pal George Whitted to bust off the game for the Phils and thus bring the Braves a game nearer the top. Georges gave the Hon. Heinie Zimm a roller in the tenth a beautiful boot, kicking the ball all the way from second base to the clubhouse and Heinie sped around the circuit with big winning run.

RUNS SCORED BY LEAGUE TEAMS

AMERICAN LEAGUE. FEDERAL LEAGUE.

July 26 to August 1, inclusive.

TEAMS.	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
BOSTON
Chicago
Detroit
Cleveland
Washington
Philadelphia

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

TEAMS.	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
BOSTON
Brooklyn
Chicago
Cincinnati
New York
Pittsburgh
St. Louis
Philadelphia

NEW ENGLAND LEAGUE.

TEAMS.	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
Lawrence
Lewiston
Lowell
Manchester
Portland
Worcester

*No game scheduled.

ROMAR FAVORED TO WIN BIG HANDICAP

Saratoga Racing Selections Today

AMERICAN.

1.—Fenmouse, Palanquin, Presumptico.
2.—Knight of Meed, El Bart, Skibbereen.
3.—Lorze, Lord Rockvale, Kilmer.
4.—Sharpshooter, Romner, Borrow.
5.—Amalfi, Marshon, Forecast.
6.—Trumpbater, Indian Chant, Moonstone.

GALLOPS—N. Y. TELEGRAPH.

1.—Hawthorne, Corsican, Fenmouse.
2.—Swish, El Bart, Skibbereen.
3.—Lorze, Dominant, Bulse.
4.—Romner, Borrow, Strombolli.
5.—Amalfi, Forecast, Grosvenor.
6.—Remembrance, John W. Kleir Fleuron.

NEW YOK SUN.

1.—Fenmouse, Corsican, Palaquin.
2.—Swish, Skibbereen, El Bart.
3.—Afraun, Dominant, Bulse.
4.—Romner, Borrow, Strombolli.
5.—Amalfi, Valna, Impression.
6.—Remembrance, St. Rock, Indian Chant.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Aug. 2.—"They're off" at Saratoga today, and the meeting lasts through the month of August. Handicap races were first on the list of the Saratoga Handicap, today's big classic, it is not likely that more than a dozen will go to the post.

Roamer, which earned the distinction of top weight, has been going along nicely in his work since he came here after being defeated in the Empire City Handicap Gainer, his companion in that event, is not entered. Neither is Flagpole. Through the fast pace set by him at the start, was largely responsible for the failure of Roamer to remain in the running to the end.

ROAMER IS FAVORED.

There is no horse in the race capable of extending Andrew Miller's champion at the start. He therefore will be allowed to make his own pace without interference, and as he always has shown a liking for the Saratoga track will have a good chance to wipe out his most recent defeat at Belmont Park.

Jack Thompson's Borrow is in the handicap with 125 pounds, three less than Roamer. He had little luck since he won the Kentucky Handicap in the early Spring, but has run many good races since. Borrow won this event last year, carrying 122 pounds.

STROMBOLI BEARS WATCHING.

Another formidable competitor will be found in August Belmont's Strombolli, which has raced consistently well all season and wound up with a victory in the Suburban Handicap.

Strombolli is in with 123 pounds and in spite of the fact that his victory in the Suburban was of rather dubby character will be supported well.

Famous Marksman Dead.

UTICA, Aug. 2.—Mortimer M. Mayo, for many years famous as a trap shooter, is dead at his home in Mayo, Oneida County, following several years illness. He won many championships, including the Canadian handicap in 1894, when he was sixty-two years old.

National and American League Record for Week

The records in the National and American Leagues of games won and lost, with runs, hits, errors and men left on bases for the last week follow:

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

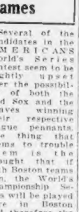
	W.	L.	H.	E.	L. O.
Philadelphia	4	2	35	10	34
Brooklyn	2	4	28	6	28
Chicago	4	2	35	7	34
Cincinnati	6	1	41	6	35
Boston	3	2	31	6	32
Pittsburgh	2	4	27	7	30
St. Louis	2	4	25	7	30
New York	2	5	16	7	32
At Louis	2	4	25	7	30
Cincinnati	3	3	30	5	27
	30	31	293	70	302

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

	W.	L.	H.	E.	L. O.
Boston	4	2	32	13	40
Washington	4	2	32	13	37
Chicago	3	3	31	8	32
Detroit	3	3	34	8	35
Cleveland	3	3	33	8	35
Philadelphia	2	4	31	13	36
St. Louis	2	4	25	7	30
New York	2	4	25	7	30
	30	31	293	70	302

*The game Sunday July 25.

Norwich Man After Trip to World's Series Games



PHILIP SMITH

Several of the candidates in the AMERICANS World's Series contest seem to be slightly upset over the possibility of both the Red Sox and the Braves winning pennants respective league pennants. The thing that seems to trouble them is the thought that if both Boston teams win the World's Championship series will be played here in Boston and, therefore, the winners in this contest will miss the De Luxe Fullman trips from city to city.

Right here, let this be made plain—if the Red Sox and Braves both win, the recently-for unnecessary trip regrets because the AMERICAN can be depended upon to do whatever is necessary to make things extremely attractive for them.

Every candidate who has been lagging in his vote-gathering efforts, thinking, possibly, that because both Boston teams MIGHT win "the game's not worth the candle" will find, when this competition is closed that he has made one great big mistake. A word to the wise SHOULD be sufficient.

The contest is just half over. In six weeks more it will be a thing of the past. There is no time to waste in worrying about what MIGHT happen. One thing is absolutely certain—the twenty-five winning candidates will thank their lucky stars that they put forth the effort necessary to place them among the fortunate contestants when the last vote is counted.

Philip Smith of No. 58 Franklin street, Norwich Ct., isn't worrying any about what "the other fellow" is doing. He realizes that the award will be well worthy of his greatest effort and, with the aid of his friends, is determined to capture one of the places among the twenty-five leaders.

Union Boat Club Is Preparing for Races

The Union Boat Club four-oared crew is busy every day on the Charles preparing for the big championship races to be rowed at Springfield, August 13 and 14. The crew has a new style which it uses in the regatta for its practice spins.

Keating Lost to Yanks for Season

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—Manager Donovan of the Yankees has received word that Ray Keating will not be able to pitch again this season. A twisted hip is the cause of the trouble.

Tigers Attend Clambake.

Jean Dubuc, Ty Cobb, Oscar Stanage and George Vitt of the Detroit Tigers spent Sunday at Nashua, N. H., and were entertained by the Nashua Elks at a clambake at Field's Grove.

League Roster Reduced.

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 2.—The Northwestern League will be reduced to four clubs today—Spokane, Seattle, Tacoma and Vancouver—Portland and Aberdeen are the clubs dropping out.

Cushing to Start Race.

Lieutenant-Governor Grafton D. Cushing will fire the pistol to start away the runners in the 10-mile interprofessional race to be held in conjunction with the annual Scotch picnic at Caledonian Grove next Saturday.

Mack Signs Gloucester Boy.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 2.—Catcher Ralph Perkins of the Raleigh (North Carolina) Leaguers club has been bought by Connie Mack, manager of the Athletics. Perkins, only nineteen years old, lives in Gloucester, Mass.

SOUTHPAW TO GO AGAINST TIGERS

By A. H. C. MITCHELL.

It's a curious thing, but the Red Sox do not win such good games on the home grounds, at least they haven't done so in the past two seasons. There used to be a feeling that they did so much loafing on Sundays that they hadn't much ambish when washday came around.

But, I-o doubt, they will be full of pep this afternoon when they line up against the Tigers for the third game of the series. It makes a difference, you know, when a team is fighting for the pennant. There was no chance for the Tigers to overhaul them over Sunday and there is no chance for them to overhaul them today, either. It will take two defeats—today and tomorrow—and two victories for the White Sox in those two days, in order to dislodge Our Boys from the head of the American League class.

Very fortunately, both the Tigers and the White Sox lost Saturday. The season has a long way to go, but every little helps. There seems to be no chance for any teams other than the Tigers and the two Sox teams to win the American League championship. The Bostons have the best of the schedule from now on and every time the two contenders are handed a defeat the Red Sox are helped more than the figures show.

We thought "Uncle Bill" would start a southpaw against the Tigers on Saturday, but he had an ace up his sleeve in the shape of little George Foster, who only pitched three innings against the White Sox on Thursday when rain put an end to the proceedings. So George was well primed to take the Tigers into camp Saturday. We still think "Uncle Bill" will spring another lefty on the visitors before they depart and it will probably be either Collins or Ruth. But Joe Wood is available and he may get to be this club's Jennings.

Jennings is likely to try Dubuc or Boland. If he does, neither of them should worry the Red Sox much.

Chicago Nine to Tour the Orient

CHICAGO, Aug. 2.—Twelve members of the 1915 baseball team of the Chicago University will leave tonight for a tour of the Orient. The team will play a series of exhibition games in this country before sailing from San Francisco.

Maynard Shriners Coming.

MAYNARD, Aug. 2.—Local Shriners will go over their big baseball game "Shriners' Day" at Fenway Park in Boston today. A big parade. They have been invited to be the guests of President Lannin, and a big delegation has arranged to make the trip.

Four Marks for Oldfield.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 2.—Barney Oldfield established four automobile records for a dirt track in an exhibition here today. The records are: One mile, 164-5; three miles, 2m. 26 2-5s.; four miles, 3m. 13 3-5s., and five miles, 4m. 3 1-5s.

Red Sox and Braves

RED SOX.	P.C.	BRAVES.	P.C.
Hooper	.300	Smith	.301
Gainer	.294	Connolly	.298
Scott	.324	Tyler	.276
Lewis	.324	Maggs	.270
Wood	.316	Evers	.249
Janvrin	.211	Schmidt	.242
Jacklitsch	.296	Johnston	.242
Thomas	.265	Martinville	.237
Hoblitzell	.286	Gowdy	.227
Ruth	.222	Moran	.214
Cullop	.250	Rudolph	.214
Foster	.200	Barnes	.214
Pennock	.167	Dell	.200
Carrigan	.250	Whaling	.182
Shore	.167	Fitzpatrick	.182
Mays	.231	Hagan	.143
Leonard	.000	Rudolph	.143
Hooper	.286	Hoxton	.000
Gainer	.000	Allen	.000
Carrigan	.273	Barnes	.000
Thomas	.000
Henriksen	.143
Shore	.000

NOTES OF HOME ARTILLERY.

Smith, 25; Maggs, 25, and Lewis, 22, own the most two-baggers.

Gainer, Hoblitzell and Maggs, with seven each, have smashed out the most three-baggers.

Ruth, 11, is the leader of the Red Sox runners. Lewis, Hooper, Smith, Maggs and Gowdy, with ten each, follow.

Speaker, 20; 2, Hooper 12, and Maggs and Moran, with 11 each, lead in pillow pilering.

Just an Earful.

By TAD.

BLACK BILL was a fighter. That is, Black Bill was until he was caught at it.

This deals with a battle that Black Bill had in Philly, preliminary to the Johnson-Fitzsimmons spat.

He crossed bats with a saddle-colored slugger, and at the end of the second round took a Brodie that made a wounded Zeppelin look as though it was held up.

The referee counted ten and Dark Will made his exit.

A few moments later he entered the arena again, carrying a bucket and a towel. Spectators looked at one another in surprise.

"Wasn't that the fellow who just flopped?" "Say, didn't that guy just kiss the carpet?" They asked one another in surprise.

Finally one guy yelled, "Hey, Bill, why don't you keep on that diving suit?" Another chirped, "Say, Bill, Fred McKay is a Spartan compared with you!"

Bill never turned an eyelash.

Finally one deep-chested guy at the ringside hawled out, "Hey, you big quitter; what're you doing here again? You just flopped, didn't you?"

Bill, who had been sitting like a statue, took the towel off his arm, turned slowly, and, picking out the gent who made the remark, said:

"Listen, Ah was in dere takin' them things, and Ah know what they was. Ah know when Ah get enough, get me? Ah'm as game as is good for me constitution. Terry McGovern would've been a great fighter YET if he WASN'T SO GAME!"

TABER LOOKS FIT, SAYS MEREDITH

By TED MEREDITH,
Champion Middle Distance Runner.

PORTLAND, Ore., August 2.—The hard training work of our trip is over. Coach Robertson declares that we are in good enough shape to stop the hard training, so from now on our work will be only enough to keep our legs in shape.

We ran into Norman Taber, the holder of the mile record. He was in Portland for a few days playing baseball in work on the same track we worked on. Taber came to the hotel and went to see Kiviat, his strongest rival for the mile time at Friaco and the two great runners had a long chat.

The ex-Brown University star looks to be in wonderful shape, and although I did not see him run, I could tell that the train ride had not ill effect on him. He does not look fat, nor does he seem drawn, as one would expect after the hard races run in the past month.

Kiviat is also in wonderful shape, and when I looked at the two men standing talking together it made me shiver at the thought of the hard, gruelling race they are going to have. I still believe Kiviat has a chance, in spite of the great miles Taber has shown. Kiviat has been going better this trip than I have ever seen him, and his speed would make outriders think he is a quarter-miler. I have been working with him both in sprinting and distance and I can tell from his work just how the little fellow is going.

The boys are beginning to scent the game now, and I do not see as much laughing and joking as was in evidence when we started, nor do we eat so much. Kiviat and I have found that two meals a day are plenty for us just now in order that we keep our correct weight.

The trip is now nearing its end. We will be in San Francisco Wednesday. It was well arranged and has been a pleasant a journey as I have ever taken.

JENNINGS AFTER BROWN PITCHERS

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 2.—Manager Hugh Jennings of the Detroit Tigers is understood to have made President Robert L. Hedges of the Browns a big cash offer for his pick of Pitchers Wellman and James. Jennings particularly wants Wellman, who is generally rated one of the best left-handers in the American League. The fancy Carl has always been effective against the Tigers and in mid-season distinguished himself by defeating the clan of Jennings three times inside of a week. Hedges states that while he will consider a trade with Jennings, he has no players for sale.

Al Goullet Takes Kramer's Measure

NEWARK, N. J., Aug. 2.—Al Goullet of Australia won a clean-cut victory over Frank Kramer in the "Criterion Revenge" at the Newark Velodrome. Goullet led Kramer from start to finish.

When you send the folks on that care-destroying vacation—

Remember that they will find genuine entertainment in reading the American.

The young folks will continue to enjoy the comic section, the sporting section, and the grown-ups can read all the important news from Boston and the other world centres.

Make it a point to have the American sent on to them. Call Main 5180 and attend to it now.

Subscription Rates:

Daily American, one week ..06
Daily and Sunday American, one week 11
Sunday American, one week .05
Daily and Sunday American, two weeks 22
Daily and Sunday American, one month 50

The Man Who Saves Will Have a Safe Average When His Percentage Is Figured

NEWS WRITTEN BY LEADING EXPERTS

HODGE $60,000 SENSATION OF TURF SEASON

HODGE, one of the 1915 turf sensations, was purchased for $1,500 in a selling race when he was a two-year-old, and since then has won over $30,000 for his new owner. And Hodge, now only at the height of his wonderful career, looks good enough to win another $30,000.

Sixty thousand dollars on a $1,500 investment—that is the story that can be told by W. J. Weber, who owns Hodge.

The whirlwind thoroughbred was bred by W. W. Darden, of Nashville, Tenn. He showed fair speed as a two-year-old, but no one but Weber could see in him then the earmarks of a turf king.

After Hodge won a selling race, Weber put in a bid for him. Darden topped that bid. Hodge was by Ivan the Terrible—Nanta Hodge, and Darden felt that he might show some of the speed of his famous sire. But when Weber boosted his offer to $1,500, Darden quit bidding—and Hodge became the property of Weber.

* * *

A MANICURIST HAS SUED JIM Scott, the White Sox pitcher, for $25,000. She alleges breach of promise. The moral in that is that ball players shouldn't have their nails "did." They should use a penknife and toothpicks, thus avoiding the law.

* * *

"BALL PLAYERS ARE FUNNY critters," asserts Charlie Williams, secretary of the Chicago Whales, who was secretary for the Cubs for many years. "They are like a bunch of kids, for the most part.

"Some years ago we stopped at one of the best hotels in the country. The players got the best rooms that were to be had. But one of the catchers came tearing into the lobby, shortly after dinner on the first night, and made a loud roar.

"'I want another room,' he bellowed.

"'What's the matter with yours?' I asked. 'Isn't it a good room?'

"'It's a good room all right,' answered the catcher, 'but I want a piano in my room. There two other catchers and pianos and I gotta have what they have.'

"'What do you want a piano for?' I asked. 'You can't play, can you?'

"'No, I can't. But I can look at it, can't I?'

* * *

HONUS WAGNER recently "fell" for one of the oldest tricks in baseball. It happened during one of his Pirate-Giant games, and Honus was so mystified that his teammates say he skipped the evening meal.

Honus was on first by virtue of a single. Wynn was on bat. Honus was intent upon stealing and didn't watch home plate closely. Wynn hit a rank of the bat he started for second.

Just then Lobert, the Giants' third sacker, raced toward short, as though he were going to scoop up the ball. Shortstop Fletcher, taking the cue, hustled to second and began yelling to Lobert to "shoot it."

Wagner felt that a ground ball had been hit and the Giants would try for a double play. He put on "full speed ahead" and shot into second. Then—and only then—did he discover that Vox had popped up, which First Baseman Brainerd had caught, and which Brainerd conveniently, immediately into a double play by touching first base.

* * *

GEORGE LOW, the professional golfer, on the Baltusrol links, recently was approached by the wife of a man who was just on the point of purchasing from Low about 15 new clubs, which Low insisted he would sell his name immensely.

"Mr. Low," said wife, "I don't mind if my husband gives all his spare time to playing golf. I have no objections if he spends a certain portion of the family funds in the purchase of golf balls and plaids, but I really don't sell him any more golf clubs. If you do, you are only inviting trouble for yourself. He has 137 of them now, tering up the house now, and if he buys any more I won't have any place to put my hats."

* * *

JOHN McGRAW is deaf. If you don't believe it, here are John's own words to bear out this statement:

"The popular belief that baseball players use profanity to a large degree is wrong. Little is ever said on a ball field, even in the stress of a hard game, that would not be fit for a minister to hear."

Vance, Smoke Hurler, Is Sold to Yankees

LINCOLN, Neb., Aug. 2.—Pitcher Dazzy Vance, of the St. Joseph, Western League, has been sold to the New York Americans. Jack Holland, the St. Joseph baseball magnate announced the sale.

The contract is for the remainder of the present American League season following the nomination of the Western League campaign on Labor Day, and also covers the season of 1916.

Vance has the best "smoke" ball of all the Western League hurlers, and Owner Holland is confident that Vance will win a steady job on the Yankees' pitching staff.

Kidol 10¢ and 25¢ Packages

Relieves Headache

Nouralgia, Pains in Face, Gums, etc. Without Inconvenience.

Prevents the "morning after" headache. Positively safe tablets.

You'll need them on your vacation.

ALL DRUGGISTS

TED LEWIS WILL TACKLE GLOVER AT ATLAS

By JACK CONWAY.

TED ("KID") LEWIS, the sensational English boxer, will clash with Mike Glover of South Boston in a 12-round bout at the Atlas A. A. tomorrow night. He will take the place of "Soldier" Bartfield of New York, who was forced to call off his tussle with Glover on account of trouble with his right hand which he injured while training last Friday.

When Ivey Lewis, who is arranging the matches for the Triple A organization, was informed late Saturday night that Bartfield would be unable to battle Glover, he immediately opened negotiations with the leading boxers in the East who would be able to make things interesting for Glover.

Lewis got into communication with Jimmy Johnston. He's the manager of the sensational English boxer. Ivey did not believe he would be able to secure the services of Johnston's star on such short notice, but he was not overlooking any bets.

It is needless to state that the Atlas A. A. matchmaker received an agreeable surprise when he was informed that Lewis was in great condition and that he was willing to clash with Glover. The match was then made, the men agreeing to weigh in at 133 pounds at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

BOSTON boxing "fans" should witness a brilliant ring encounter when Lewis and Glover clash. Both of these men are high class performers. Glover, of course, is well known to the "fans" here, as he is a local boy. Lewis, too, is not a stranger. A close followers of the boxing game, as he has made a remarkable record and is "today" classed as one of the leading exponents of the manly art. He's a second Packey McFarland. He can make 135 pounds and forbade that all of our lightweights. Lewis, however, has fought many of his battles in the welterweight division and has met with great success.

Lewis recently defeated Charley White, the hard-hitting Chicago lightweight, in a boxing contest in New York. He outclassed Nate Lewis' champion and knocked him out with slashing left and right-hand punches. The Englishman is a much better boxer than Freddy Welsh. He is every bit as fast as the champion, while he has a better left hand than the man who won the title by ironering Willie Ritchie.

THE writer was discussing Lewis' boxing ability with Leo Flynn, manager of Frankie Mack, a few days ago. Flynn had witnessed the bout in New York. Flynn had watched Lewis closely in his contest with Mack at Havana and in talking about the Englishman, said:

"While we were English to sign to clash with Lewis. The latter will have his hands. He's got the greatest left hand punch in the game. He has increased hundreds of high class boxers in one, two, three shots. He comes at you straight and keeps his opponent on the defensive most of the time. Lewis will make a fighter out of Mack. The Chicago fighter will never be able to get the best of his left hook and he will think that the air is full of it. He'll jab and jolts, with an occasional right hand smash shooting in his direction."

Flynn had the right "dope" on Lewis, as he scored with a big bang in his mixup with White. Charley didn't land a single left hook during the entire contest and was outpointed by a wide margin.

LEWIS has also fought Jack Britton and "Kid" Graves. Both of these lightweight luminaries claim they were not a match for the graceful Englishman. Britton also disposed of Herb McCoy. Hughie Mehegan, Billy Moore and Young Shugrue in 20-round bouts, and Jimmy Lewis, who, displayed plenty of class when he met Young Shugrue. Since then the Jersey City boy has been trimmed by White. As Lewis is able to make the lightweight limit (135 lbs.), which has been raised to 135 pounds, he would have a better chance than any boxer in the game of obtaining the title from Welsh. We realize that Welsh is a wonderful boxer, but Lewis is also a real ring wizard. He's like the great McFarland and is forced to go out of his class in order to keep busy.

Ray Wood of Fall River and Walter Butler, the Beachmont boxer, clash in the six-final bout of eight rounds. They will also be a couple of high class preliminary matches.

JIM COFFEY is the logical op- ponent for Jess Willard—we don't think. The Dubbo giant was signed to meet Gunboat Ferguson in a twelve-round bout at the Atlas A. A. on August 10, but has called off the match. He claimed he did not have sufficient time in which to get into condition for a whirl with the Chelsea heavyweight. This alibi is a joke, as the match was made almost four weeks ago. Coffey had five weeks in which to prepare himself for his whirl with Ferguson. A real fighter could get ready for half a dozen bouts in five weeks.

IT seems, however, that Billy Gibson, manager of Coffey, was informed that Sidney was in splendid physical condition and that he might defeat the Australian giant. Gibson will probably agree to allow Coffey to meet Ferguson here some time next January when the boys are billed at the Arena and the boxing season has closed in this city.

Sam McVey will now get a chance to box Ferguson on the August 10 date.

TOMMY SHEA, the clever New Haven bantamweight, will be seen in action in a semi-final bout at the Atlas Club in the near future. He is a fine boxer as he proved in his tussles with Howard McRae, Johnny Munico and Tommy Flanagan. Some of the New England bantamweights who have anything on this youngster who is managed by Tony Faloaola. Tony informs us that Shea would like to get a match with Mickey Brown of Malden. Shea and brown would make a merry little battle.

Silk Hat Harry Divorce Suit — By Tad

POSTPONED RACES AT REVERE TRACK

The 25-mile motor-paced race, which was postponed Saturday night on account of a wet track, will be run off at the Revere cycle oval tonight, starting at 8:30.

The same set of riders will face the starter's gun. These include Jimmy Moran of Chelsea, Bobby Walthour of Atlanta, Ga., "Pinkie" Turville of Revere and Harold Rollins of Everett. Both checks will be honored at the admission gate.

Leon Didier, the French cyclone, will make his reappearance at the Revere track at the regular mid-week meet Wednesday night. He will oppose a crack field in a motor-paced race, the distance of which will be announced in tomorrow's papers.

Didier's collar-bone, which was fractured when he fell in his $1,000 match race against Victor Linart, three weeks ago, is well again and the Frenchman is anxious for action.

Didier seems to have profited by his short rest, as he showed all his old-time speed in a special two-mile exhibition at the seaside saucer Saturday night. The "Flyer" seemed glad to see him back and are looking forward to the time when he will be able to re-ride his contest with Linart.

There were over 5,000 persons at the beach track Saturday night, and everybody left the inclosure feeling that Manager Butler had done the right thing in putting off the motor-paced race until tonight.

A heavy drizzle that had been falling all during the evening grew worse just as the big event was going on, and made the track so slippery that safe riding was an impossibility. As it was, Jimmy Moran received a bad spill after the riders had been called from their wheels, but luckily he escaped serious injury.

SOUND BODIES

By JULIAN HAWTHORNE

This is the twenty-seventh of a series of articles on "Sound Bodies" written exclusively for the Boston AMERICAN by Julian Hawthorne. These articles will be continued in the AMERICAN on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

EXERCISE FOR LEGS.

It may have occurred to you about this time that it would be a good thing to give your arms and torso a rest, and wake up the legs a little. And, indeed, the average man is apt to neglect his legs more than his upper works. When a man gets to be fifty or sixty, he no longer jumps on and off the trolley cars so lightly as in youth, and if there be an elevator in the building he would sooner trust himself to that than to take the stairs, two steps—or even one—at a time. Nor can he any longer squat down on the floor, both legs straight out in front, and, tucking one foot under him, commending his arms for ballast, rise up on the knee of the tucked-under leg, letting the other remain extended at length. And yet every man ought to be able to do as much as that, at any time.

We begin with the legs, where nature begins them, at the top, where they join the body. Get that big hinge flexible, and we may then proceed toward the extremities.

Assume first position, arms at sides, etc. Keep your body erect all through the exercise—no bending forward. Square your chest, too; and, upon the whole, behave as if your upper parts had no knowledge of or concern with what your lower parts are doing.

Now lift the right leg smartly, bending the knee to an angle as acute as you can manage, and continue the upward drive until the knee hits your chest a blow just below the collar-bone. Just a hit, and back again to first position. Then put your left leg through the same movement—then the right again—and so on until you have tallied twenty.

Don't make any spring off the foot that is on the ground, by way of helping the upward drive; stand flat-footed on the one leg while the other is working. You will find that the impetus starts right at the front of he hip-joint, and you can feel he big tendon there leap into prominence as the movement begins. Perform the exercise as briskly as is consistent with doing it right, but don't slur over any part of it for the sake of speed. It affects the whole front of the thigh, and gives the leg flexibility on its hinge. You will find the stairs, two steps—or even one—at a time. Nor can he any longer squat down on the floor, both legs straight out in front, and, tucking one foot under him, commending his arms for ballast, rise up on the knee of the tucked-under leg, letting the other remain extended at length. And yet every man ought to be able to do as much as that, at any time.

We begin with the legs, where nature begins them, at the top, where they join the body. Get that big hinge flexible, and we may then proceed toward the extremities.

Assume first position, arms at sides, etc. Keep your body erect all through the exercise—no bending forward. Square your chest, too; and, upon the whole, behave as if your upper parts had no knowledge of or concern with what your lower parts are doing.

Now lift the right leg smartly, bending the knee to an angle as acute as you can manage, and continue the upward drive until the knee hits your chest a blow just below the collar-bone. Just a hit, and back again to first position. Then put your left leg through the same movement—then the right again—and so on until you have tallied twenty.

Don't make any spring off the foot that is on the ground, by way of helping the upward drive; stand flat-footed on the one leg while the other is working. You will find that the impetus starts right at the front of he hip-joint, and you can feel he big tendon there leap into prominence as the movement begins. Perform the exercise as briskly as is consistent with doing it right, but don't slur over any part of it for the sake of speed. It affects the whole front of the thigh, and gives the leg flexibility on its hinge. You will find the stairs, two steps—or even one—at a time. Nor can he any longer squat down on the floor, both legs straight out in front, and, tucking one foot under him, commending his arms for ballast, rise up on the knee of the tucked-under leg, letting the other remain extended at length. And yet every man ought to be able to do as much as that, at any time.

We begin with the legs, where nature begins them, at the top, where they join the body. Get that big hinge flexible, and we may then proceed toward the extremities.

Assume first position, arms at sides, etc. Keep your body erect all through the exercise—no bending forward. Square your chest, too; and, upon the whole, behave as if your upper parts had no knowledge of or concern with what your lower parts are doing.

Now lift the right leg smartly, bending the knee to an angle as acute as you can manage, and continue the upward drive until the knee hits your chest a blow just below the collar-bone. Just a hit, and back again to first position. Then put your left leg through the same movement—then the right again—and so on until you have tallied twenty.

Don't make any spring off the foot that is on the ground, by way of helping the upward drive; stand flat-footed on the one leg while the other is working. You will find that the impetus starts right at the front of he hip-joint, and you can feel he big tendon there leap into prominence as the movement begins. Perform the exercise as briskly as is consistent with doing it right, but don't slur over any part of it for the sake of speed. It affects the whole front of the thigh, and gives the leg flexibility on its hinge. You will find the stairs, two steps—or even one—at a time. Nor can he any longer squat down on the floor, both legs straight out in front, and, tucking one foot under him, commending his arms for ballast, rise up on the knee of the tucked-under leg, letting the other remain extended at length. And yet every man ought to be able to do as much as that, at any time.

We begin with the legs, where nature begins them, at the top, where they join the body. Get that big hinge flexible, and we may then proceed toward the extremities.

Assume first position, arms at sides, etc. Keep your body erect all through the exercise—no bending forward. Square your chest, too; and, upon the whole, behave as if your upper parts had no knowledge of or concern with what your lower parts are doing.

Now lift the right leg smartly, bending the knee to an angle as acute as you can manage, and continue the upward drive until the knee hits your chest a blow just below the collar-bone. Just a hit, and back again to first position. Then put your left leg through the same movement—then the right again—and so on until you have tallied twenty.

Don't make any spring off the foot that is on the ground, by way of helping the upward drive; stand flat-footed on the one leg while the other is working. You will find that the impetus starts right at the front of he hip-joint, and you can feel he big tendon there leap into prominence as the movement begins. Perform the exercise as briskly as is consistent with doing it right, but don't slur over any part of it for the sake of speed. It affects the whole front of the thigh, and gives the leg flexibility on its hinge. You will find the stairs, two steps—or even one—at a time. Nor can he any longer squat down on the floor, both legs straight out in front, and, tucking one foot under him, commending his arms for ballast, rise up on the knee of the tucked-under leg, letting the other remain extended at length. And yet every man ought to be able to do as much as that, at any time.

We begin with the legs, where nature begins them, at the top, where they join the body. Get that big hinge flexible, and we may then proceed toward the extremities.

Assume first position, arms at sides, etc. Keep your body erect all through the exercise—no bending forward. Square your chest, too; and, upon the whole, behave as if your upper parts had no knowledge of or concern with what your lower parts are doing.

Now lift the right leg smartly, bending the knee to an angle as acute as you can manage, and continue the upward drive until the knee hits your chest a blow just below the collar-bone. Just a hit, and back again to first position. Then put your left leg through the same movement—then the right again—and so on until you have tallied twenty.

Don't make any spring off the foot that is on the ground, by way of helping the upward drive; stand flat-footed on the one leg while the other is working. You will find that the impetus starts right at the front of he hip-joint, and you can feel he big tendon there leap into prominence as the movement begins. Perform the exercise as briskly as is consistent with doing it right, but don't slur over any part of it for the sake of speed. It affects the whole front of the thigh, and gives the leg flexibility on its hinge. You will find the stairs, two steps—or even one—at a time. Nor can he any longer squat down on the floor, both legs straight out in front, and, tucking one foot under him, commending his arms for ballast, rise up on the knee of the tucked-under leg, letting the other remain extended at length. And yet every man ought to be able to do as much as that, at any time.

We begin with the legs, where nature begins them, at the top, where they join the body. Get that big hinge flexible, and we may then proceed toward the extremities.

Assume first position, arms at sides, etc. Keep your body erect all through the exercise—no bending forward. Square your chest, too; and, upon the whole, behave as if your upper parts had no knowledge of or concern with what your lower parts are doing.

Now lift the right leg smartly, bending the knee to an angle as acute as you can manage, and continue the upward drive until the

Girls in Real Fight to Decide Ring Superiority

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 2.—Following a three-round battle between Miss McDonald of Mississippi and Miss Kline of Louisiana, students of the Tulane Seminary, originating out of an argument as to the physical qualifications of the girls of these two States, another mill was staged in the school gymnasium between Miss Stevens of Louisiana and Miss Stevens of Mississippi.

The stir which followed the news of the first ring battle caused the 1,500 students of the seminary to take unusual precautions that the result of the fight should not leak out, and it was impossible to learn who came off the winner.

The first bout arose when Miss Kline is said to have stated that she could lick any woman her weight in the South. Miss McDonald took exception and it was decided to test the matter in the gymnasium.

One-Armed Boy in Nahant-Revere Swim

George Apron of Revere established a record that will probably stand for many years in his swim from Nahant to Revere, negotiating the distance in 2 hours and 45 minutes. Apron has only one arm, and again which makes his feat all the more remarkable.

THREE RED SOX CAUGHT IN FOG

Duffy Lewis, Del Gainer and Ernie Shore, three of the Red Sox topliners, took a boat ride down to Bass Point yesterday and when the three players put their feet back on earth last evening joy reigned supreme.

It was a foggy day during the fog, with huge boats passing our scow all the time and with the pilot not being able to see more than twenty or thirty feet ahead of him" buzzed back Lewis. "I should elucidate that for the greater part of four hours the three of us had the hunch Bill Carrigan would have to go on and win the pennant without us and we wouldn't get any extra money in October.

"Never again for me out there in the harbor on a gloomy, foggy day."

Gainer and Shore are also just as confident they will never spend another off-day on the water only when the weather is bright and clear. "Give me on land, hunting on Huntington avenue near Massachusetts avenue," said Gainer. "It's plenty good enough for me."

Tiger Eleven Must Keep Past in Mind

One of the many new methods introduced in Princeton football training by "Speedy" Rush, the new Tiger head coach, is the discovered by a midsummer visitor to the new field house in connection with the Palmer Memorial Stadium.

In the dressing room of the football players hangs a big placard headed, "Things to Remember," and includes bits of advice you have to tackle, carry the ball, etc. But at the top of this sign are the two significant lines:

Harvard, 29. Princeton, 0.
Yale, 10; Princeton, 14.

Mrs. "Charley" Deal Ill.

Mrs. "Charley" Deal, wife of the Braves' former third baseman, now is member of Fielder Jones' St. Louis Feds, is dangerously ill with typhoid fever and confined to a hospital at Pittsburgh, Pa., after nursing her husband through the same disease. Mrs. Deal was herself stricken. Her condition is reported to be serious.

Food for Sport Fans

By GEORGE E. PHAIR

THE CUBS.

'Tis said they will be shaken up—
It grieves me to the heart.
If they are shaken up much more
The team will fall apart.

It is Gilmore's own fault that his ball players have taken to heavy drinking. They are drawing so much money that they feel like club owners.

Speaking of shake-ups, we'd hate to be in the immediate vicinity if anybody undertook to shake up Mr. Murphy's stand.

"The Federal League," says Jim Gilmore, "has operated along the lines of treating ball players as human beings." Having become acquainted with ball players, Jim has changed his mind.

ROGER.

He put his foot down on the Cubs with all his might and main,
And now he has a busted hoof and has to wear a cane.

Everything seems to be going dry these days. Gus Wise has even started a dry land swimming class.

Flags are being flown at half-mast, but not because Henry James has become a British subject and left America flat on its back.

Henry James will not lack company in his self-inflicted exile. There is that other prominent ex-American—Jack Johnson.

NOT ONLY THE SCRIBES.

Jim Scott, the writhes are all agreed
Is quite a reckless soul.
He always had a lot of speed
But not enough control.

"Tom Cowler," says a scribe, "acts like a boxer." Having been trained by Jim Corbett, he probably boxes like an actor.

NOTHING BUT A PRAYER.

A baseball player swung his bat
And swung it mighty hard.
Again he swung his bat and missed
By fully half a yard.
"I wonder how," he muttered, as
He took his good swing,
"I wonder how he struck me out—
He hasn't got a thing."
A pastiist was heard and Received an awful cloud
And lay upon the padded floor
Till he was counted out.
He muttered as his seconds came
And bore him from the ring:
"I wonder how he put me out—
He hasn't got a thing!"
A European general
Was burning up the track
While seven hundred thousand foes
Were howling at his back.
He ponted as he covered ground.
Ten yards at every spring:
"I wonder how they beat us up—
They haven't got a thing!"

Over 43 Years of Panama Hat Experience

"BILLY HAND SAYS"

During August We Clean and Block Straw and Panama Hats While You Wait

Bring in Your PANAMA And Have It Made Into THE LATEST STYLE

After I get through with it you will have hard work convincing your friends that it isn't a new one.

Panama Hat Bleachery—Hats of all Kinds and Colors Cleaned, Retrimmed and made over to latest styles. Bands and Bindings, all widths and shapes, pure white yacht braid.

WILLIAM R. HAND
PRACTICAL HATTER
44 Lagrange Street..... Boston
STREET FLOOR
Rear of Hotel Touraine. Tel. Oxford 3774
In the Heart of the Shopping District

Panama Hats Bleached, Blocked and Retrimmed.....	$1.50
Panamas Bleached and Blocked	1.00
Panamas Cleaned.....	.50
Straw Hats Cleaned.....	.25
Stiff Hats Blocked.....	.50
Hats of All Kinds, Band and Bound	.50 to .75
New Sweat Leathers.....	.35
Hats of All Kinds Conformed..	.25
Silk Hats Made Over.....	3.50
Silk Hats Blocked.....	.50
Silk Hats, Bands and Binding...	.75
Soft Hats Cleaned and Retrimmed.....	1.25
Soft Hats Cleaned and Blocked	.50

Up-to-Date Blocks, Up-to-Date Methods, Up-to-Date Workmen, and the Experience

"THE RABBITS' COLUMN" By Walter J. Maranville HORTSTOP OF THE BRAVES

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Aug. 2.—One of the strangest features of Honus Wagner's batting career is that only twice, over a nineteen-year stretch, has he poled out more than 200 hits per season. In 1900 and again in 1908 he got 201 safeties.

Fandom assumed that because Wagner batted .300 or better over a seventeen-year period and amassed a grand clubbing average of .331 for all of those seventeen years, that he had often made more than 200 hits per season, but the records show to the contrary.

* * *

They pulled a new one in the Central Association last week, which is making the squirrel family bark. It originated in Wausau.

In giving a Kookuk batsman an intentional pass, in a game at Waterloo, the pitcher threw four balls to the first baseman, instead of to the catcher. The umpire told the batsman to take his base.

Was he right?

Rule 33, section 1, reads:

"If, after the batsman be standing in his proper position ready to strike at a pitched ball, the ball be thrown by the pitcher to any other player than the catcher (except in an attempt to retire a base runner), each ball thrown shall be called a ball."

* * *

George Twombly, the Medford boy, who was continually predicting his own release from the Reds prophesied right at last—he has been sent back to the manager from whose club he came, Jack Dunn has him again, only he will play at Richmond, Va., instead of Baltimore. Twombly may yet make good in the big show. Playing every day, he can hit, playing only semi-occasionally, he can't, and he leaves the Reds with a batting average of just .200. He is one of the most accurate throwers in any league, possessing almost uncanny ability in putting the ball just where it ought to go.

* * *

It is figured that unless the Brooklyn team can overcome a bad habit of losing steadily on the road, the Dodgers can hardly hope to win the National League championship. At the present time Brooklyn is traveling at a fast clip, though it dropped two games to the Pirates here Saturday.

Thirty-seven of Brooklyn's victories have been registered on the home field. On Ebbets Field the Dodgers appear to be unbeatable. They have lost but fourteen times at home, and three of these were lost by a single run. The Brooklyn pitchers appear to be almost invincible at home, but on the road they have been unable to stop their opponents. There is apparently no reason for this strange reversal of form, unless the inexperience of Smith, Dell and Appleton asserts itself before a strange crowd.

* * *

Brooklyn has been able to win but eleven games of thirty-eight that have been played away from home, a miserable record compared to that of the Phillies, who have won nineteen and lost fifteen games on the road. It is generally admitted that a club cannot hope to win the pennant unless it is a good road club. If this holds true the Dodgers are due for a slump on the Western trip.

* * *

There is said to be a proposition on for the Federal Leagues to cut the prices of admission to 10, 20 and 25 cents. Whether this is really the case or is the proposition of some jokesmith is not known.

If the idea is being considered the Federal Leaguers are foolish. They claimed they were going to give the public major league baseball for major league prices. Evidently they have not succeeded. Cutting the price down to 10, 20 and 25 cents would not help matters. Give the fans the attraction and then will pay the tariff demanded nearly every time. On the other hand, they would not turn out without the attraction if permitted to have a free gate.

* * *

A baseball team of the University of Chicago is going to start for Japan in a few days. The team will be in charge of Coach Thiss and a number of the faculty. This will be the third trip made by a college team in any league, country to Japan.

The University of Wisconsin sent a team over last year and it won five games and lost four. One of these games went to thirteen innings, which is a record for Japan.

In 1910 the University of Chicago sent a team to Japan, and it won all of the games played through two of them went to ten innings. The Japanese are said to have become quite proficient at baseball in recent years. How far they have advanced can be determined by the showing which they make against Chicago this year.

Alexander Loses 3 Games in Four Days

Grover Cleveland Alexander the Great, hailed as the premier pitcher in baseball today, is riding a rough road. His last three showings have gone as black marks against his record.

Last Wednesday the Cardinals hit Alexander for seven runs in seven innings and scored enough runs to win. Saturday Alex went in as reserve pitcher with the score a deadlock and two men on bases. He passed a man and was then hit for a single, which beat him.

Yesterday he lost a tough game to the Cubs, 2 to 1, in 10 innings, an error by Whitted allowing the winning run to go over.

Kanfeds Jump Into Lead by Two Wins

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 2.—Kansas City jumped into the lead in the Federal League by two full games when she defeated Baltimore twice. While Newark was trouncing Chicago for two games.

Yachts in Race Today.

NEW HAVEN, Aug. 2.—The fleet of the Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht Club will force over today for the prize run to New London.

Shoe Men to Clash in Show on Links

Golfers allied with the shoe trade in Boston and vicinity clash in an all-day tournament on the links of the Wollaston Golf Club at Montello, tomorrow. The competition will be at thirty-six holes, medal play, with prizes for the best gross and best and second best net. Entries close today with F. F. Cutler, No. 186 Essex street.

The list is already so large that the capacity of the course seems likely to be tested.

Hahn Will Be Named Brown Track Coach

Archie Hahn, the former Michigan University sprinter, will coach the Brown University track team next season, according to Mondello, who resigned last Spring, it was announced in local athletic quarters today.

Belmont's Hard Luck.

August Belmont is experiencing a lot of ill fortune with his horses in England. How Tracery broke down by a madman when racing for the Ascot Cup is well remembered. Now Polymelus has badly cut himself in the Dullingham Stakes at Newmarket two weeks ago that it is doubtful whether he will ever race again.

Every Weekday There's a Treat for You--Read "THE GODDESS," Then See It in Motion Pictures

The American's Magazine and Fiction Page

"THE GODDESS"

By GOUVERNEUR MORRIS and CHARLES W. GODDARD

By Gouverneur Morris and Charles W. Goddard

Copyright, 1915, by the Star Company.

THE sound was not repeated. Gradually the Professor's snarled lips relaxed and closed over his teeth. But for some time longer he stood listening and trying to see into the shadows. Then he turned to Celestia, and after a moment of silent and greedy contemplation spoke.

"We are going to be married," he said. "We are about to enter the church." And he followed suggestion by suggestion, it is not quite clear why, unless he had in him a streak of that quality which causes a cat to play with a mouse.

In Celestia's mind rose a shadowy picture of an altar, of a clergyman in a white surplice, of candles that burned in candelabra, of an altar boy, of a great bell made of flowers.

She was standing facing the clergyman and the altar, at the foot of the steps which led to it. Why she was standing there she did not know. Oh, yes, she was going to be married. She was going to marry Professor Stilliter. She didn't know why. She didn't love him. He had made her say she did more than once.

She had heard herself say that she loved him. But it had been only her lips that had said the word, not her mind, not her heart, nor her soul.

Now she was being married. The clergyman was asking her some long solemn question. Now she was repeating words after him, but only with her lips.

"I, Celestia, take"—

Freddie the Ferret had never been more puzzled in his life. He was not very familiar with the marriage ceremony, but still he recognized the fact that Professor Stilliter and Celestia standing a little way from the log hut were going through something of the kind.

But where was the priest? Freddie, peering from under the tree which hid him, could not see any third person. Perhaps the priest was in the hut speaking to them through the open door.

Driven by a curiosity which overmastered his fear of Stilliter, Freddie crept out of his hiding place and advanced over a broad outcropping of granite on feet which made no sound.

The mockery of a marriage service over, Professor Stilliter no longer made any effort at self-control; he seized her in his arms, and was himself seized by the collar and was jerked vigorously backward.

It was so sudden and so unexpected that for a moment Professor Stilliter's heart stood still, and he almost died of fright. Then with a whining cry he tore himself loose and faced about.

Professor Stilliter was a powerful man and Freddie was no match for him. They clinched after an exchange of blows, and Freddie a moment later found himself lying flat on his back, on a very hard place, with Professor Stilliter sitting astride of his solar-plexus and beating him in the face with his fists.

But this method of reducing the writhing, dodging, struggling Ferret to insensibility was not quite enough. With his left hand clasping the youth's throat, Professor Stilliter reached with his right for a heavy lump of rock. There was murder in his eyes. It was that look of murder that Freddie who had succeeded in freeing one arm struck at.

Something bright and shining flashed in the moonlight, there was a sound of glass shivered to atoms, and for the moment Professor Stilliter was stone blind.

He gave a grunt of rage. And reached into his waistcoat pocket for the case which he supposed contained his one remaining spare pair of glasses. As we know, the case was empty.

Unmanned by this horrible surprise the Professor forgot his intended victim for a moment, and Freddie, seizing the golden opportunity, made a desperate effort to rise, capsized the Professor, eluded the snatch which the latter made at him, and won free.

Professor Stilliter rose slowly to his feet, his face pale as with the anticipation of death. So he stood a moment, and then in a voice that shook, he called to Celestia, who had remained standing in front of the hut.

"Come here, Celestia," he called. She moved obediently toward him. But the Ferret threw himself in her way. Some instinct told him that these two people must be kept apart. Celestia did her best to reach Stilliter, but Freddie prevented her by force. He threw his skinny arms around her and dragged her slowly in an opposite direction.

Stilliter did not repeat the order to "come." He merely called to her to "hurry." And obediently she hurried; but in the direction which Freddie had been forcing her to take. She had hurried a hundred feet before Stilliter realized his mistake. He called to her to stop, to turn back, to come to him, and all these things she tried to do, but Freddie would not let her.

And he forced her further and further away, across the mountainside and down. Direction was not in his mind, only distance.

Freddie knocks down Stilliter and the latter's glasses fly off.

Professor Stilliter's commands to Celestia grew fainter and fainter, until at last they could no longer be heard. And now the moon had sailed her course through the heavens and had descended behind the mountain, and there was a darkness in which Freddie was almost as helpless as the victim of his chance blow.

He still had Tommy's knife and with this he cut a great pile of tender balsam for Celestia to lie on. By good fortune the night was not cold. Celestia lay till morning without moving or closing her half open eyes. And Freddie stood guard over her, then sat guard, and then slept.

Stilliter also slept after a time. He had found his way to the hut, and had controlled his panic-stricken mind sufficiently to reason that if he was to find help, or if help was to find him, it would not be at night, but in the daytime.

He had many nightmares.

Toward dawn he waked in a cold sweat. In his sleep he had asked himself this question:

"How will I know when it is day?"

Tommy found his candle at last, lighted it, and retraced his steps by means of the chalk marks at the turns and forks to the mouth of the cave. He had not expected to find Celestia. And yet it shocked and unnerved him not to find her. He called to her at the top of his lungs, twice, then thrice, and to Freddie. He had no answer.

To continue shouting was a waste of breath. He would need all his breath perhaps to catch up with Stilliter and Celestia. Already he was on his down the trail which led eventually to where he had left the purloined automobile, and along which somewhere or other he hoped to come up with the psychologian and his victim.

Stilliter, Tommy reassured, on coming up with the abandoned automobile, must have left his own, taken to the woods and reached the vicinity of the cave by this very trail.

Why hadn't Freddie the Ferret given warning? Tommy thought that the poor boy had probably been shot down in cold blood. There was no time to look for the body.

Watch for the next instalment of this wonderful serial in tomorrow's Boston AMERICAN.

Where to See "The Goddess"

MONDAY, TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY.
Gordon's Olympia, Boston.
Modern, Boston.
Boston Theatre, Boston.
Gem, Arctic, R. I., starting August 9.
Federal, Salem.
Premier, Lawrence.
Nickel, Providence, R. I.

MONDAY AND TUESDAY.
Opera House, Newton.
Orpheum, Waltham.
Dream, Revere.
Plaza, Fall River.
Home, Everett.
Eglestone Square, Roxbury.
Bates Opera House, Attleboro.
Orpheum, Medford.

MONDAY.
Suffolk, Holyoke.
Hilton, Worcester.
Empire, Whitman, starting August 2.
Town Hall, Westboro.
Starkey's, North Attleboro.
Dreamland, Nantucket.
Princess, Bridgewater.

TUESDAY.
Magnet, Claremont, N. H.
Bijou, Holyoke.
Grand, Holyoke.
Opera House, Westfield.
Lyric, Warren, R. I.
Lorraine, Millbury.

WEDNESDAY.
Casino, Taunton.
Lyric, Middleboro.
Gem, Peterboro, N. H.
Globe, Manchester, N. H.
Star, Bar Harbor, Me.
Scenic, Derry, N. H., starting August 25.
Plaza, Northampton.

WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY.
New Bedford, New Bedford.
Colonial, Haverhill.
Empire, New London, Ct.
Mystic, Malden.
City Opera House, Biddeford, Me.
Pearson's Union Square, Somerville.
Colonial, Lowell.
Royal, Lowell.
Allen's, New Bedford.
Cumming's, Roxbury.
Day Street Olympia, Somerville.
Larcom, Beverly.

THURSDAY, FRIDAY AND SATURDAY.
Broadway, Springfield.

THURSDAY AND FRIDAY.
City, Brockton.

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY.
Pleasant, Worcester.
Crown, Manchester, N. H.
Everett Square, Hyde Park.
Scenic Temple, Haverhill.
Nickel, Woonsocket, R. I.
New Central Theatre, Oldtown, Me.
Colonial, Brockton.
Royal, Lowell.

THURSDAY
Globe, St. Johnsbury, Vt.
Empire, Putnam, Ct.
Pastime, Southeast Haihai, Me.

FRIDAY.
Pastime, Franklin, N. H.
Opera House, Exeter, N. H.
Colonial, Andover.
Opera House, Augusta, Me.
Strand, Hampton Beach, N. H.
Music Hall, Webster.
Lyric, Lebanon, N. H.
Princess, Berlin, N. H.

SATURDAY.
Auditorium, Melrose.

Released Through General Film Company, Boston.

CAMBRIDGE LADY FEELS LIKE NEW

Mrs. R. B. Burns of No. 502 Putnam Street Is Relating Wonderful Story.

When the stomach, liver and kidneys are overtaxed with the poisonous matter they can't get rid of through proper channels and pass it on through the blood and system, resulting in costiveness, indigestion, dyspepsia, headache, backache, sleeplessness, shattered mind, nervousness, cold feet, night sweats, etc., Plant Juice, the new herbal system tonic, acts like a miracle, purifies the blood, washes out the poisonous matter, corrects diseased conditions of the stomach, liver and kidneys. Daily local people are testifying in no uncertain terms as to the benefits received from Plant Juice in illness of long standing.

MRS. R. B. BURNS.

Recently Mrs. R. B. Burns, who lived at No. 502 Putnam Street, Cambridge, for 20 years, and is a well-known lady, says:

"I have had stomach trouble, indigestion and dyspepsia for the last 25 years. I could not eat anything. My food fermented, causing gas, bloating and heartburn. I also had headache and dizzy spells and a bad lump in the pit of my stomach most of the time. I could not eat meats or vegetables and lived on toast, milk and eggs, and sometimes that pained me. I had rheumatism in my feet and limbs swelled up. I never got any real benefit until I commenced to take Plant Juice, which was recommended to me by a lady friend who was cured by it. Now I have taken three bottles of it and I can truthfully say that it has worked wonders for me. I do not have any more aches or pains, have a good appetite and enjoy all my meals. I sleep fine now and feel that it has made a new woman of me. I am recommending it to all my friends."

The Plant Juice Man is at the Liggett Drug Store, corner of Washington and Avon Streets, where he gladly greets the local public and introduces and explains the merits of this remedy.—Advertisement.

Their Married Life

Helen and Warren Enjoy a Happy Day in the Real Country

Copyright, 1915, by the International News Service.

HELEN woke the next morning with a sense of not remembering where she was. The sun was making little streaks of brilliance over the canopy, resulting in coziness, indigestion, dyspepsia, headache, backache, sleeplessness, shattered mind, nervousness, cold feet, night sweats, etc., Plant Juice, the new herbal system tonic, acts like a miracle, purifies the blood, washes out the poisonous matter, corrects diseased conditions of the stomach, liver and kidneys. Daily

Afterward they wandered about the garden for a while, and then Mrs. Perkins called Helen and asked her if she would like a drive through the country.

"My husband is just leaving with some milk for the separator," she explained, "and he would be glad to take you and Mr. Curtis."

Warren liked the idea, and they both watched the big cans being strapped on the back of the little car. On the way Mr. Perkins explained the fact that they had no use for all their milk and sold a great deal to the factory, which was situated nearby.

The drive led through country roads. Prosperous farms stretched here and there at each side of the road. The mountains lay in a purple line against the far-distant sky. Helen felt exhilarated and took deep breaths of the sweet air. Warren talked to Mr. Perkins, and she heard them absently, but afterward she could not have spoken one word of what they said.

They turned in finally and drove up to the factory. She was really interested in watching the great white room with the big vats and the steaming smell of condensed milk. She watched two men in clean white overalls lift the milk cans from the car and empty them one after another into the vats.

Then they drove away and out again into the country. They passed through a sleepy little village so heavily bowered in green that the houses looked almost buried. No one was about, and Helen was delighted with the atmosphere of rural solitude.

"I'd love to live in a country town," she said enthusiastically.

"You would for about one week," remarked Warren caustically.

"Why, Warren, what makes you say that? I am simply in love with the country."

"I am judging you by the past," he said in reply. "Do you remember how you used to kick every time I mentioned going to the country for the Summer? You always wanted to go to a hotel where you would have plenty of eyes to examine your clothes."

Helen flushed, she hoped the man in the front seat was not listening.

"I never knew what I was missing," she said sweetly. "I will admit how awfully mistaken I was about the country now."

Helen knew that Warren would argue himself into a temper if she answered him at all, so she kept still and said nothing more till they were nearly home.

Warren apparently regretted his outburst, for he was first to make amends as he helped her out.

"How would you like me to read aloud for a while out of that new book you brought," he said.

"That would be nice, dear," she answered quickly. "I'll get it, and you go out and get a couple of chairs reserved."

"No, I'll get it," Warren returned. "I want to get some cigars anyway."

Helen went on out to the porch and was delighted to find the swing not taken. She drew a chair up close to the side and settled herself comfortably.

Warren came out in a few minutes, his face wreathed in smiles.

"Pretty decent chap, that Perkins," he said good temperedly. "I just took him some cigars. This is the book isn't it? Now for a quiet hour or so. This country life just suits me."

(Another instalment in this series of everyday life will appear here soon.)

A Tragic Likeness

A gentleman gave an address on temperance at the local hall. The next day he received an invitation from an old lady to come and see her.

"Oh, sir, pray forgive me for worrying you," began the old dame eagerly. "I heard you speak last night, and you reminded me so much of my poor brother, who was took from me, that I felt I must see you again."

The gentleman looked very sympathetic.

"Dear, dear!" he murmured. "I'm sorry to hear of your loss. How long ago did your brother die?"

"Bless ye, sir, he ain't dead," replied the old woman. "He was took to an asylum."

Winged Watchers of Our Harbors

By GARRETT P. SERVISS

WHY a simple, credulous person, easily imposed upon, should be called a "gull" is not clear. Perhaps the term originated in the fact that the bright-witted, active birds named gulls are made to look foolish when teased by terns, and other smaller birds that do not like them. But a big, intelligent dog looks foolish also when it turns away from nagging curs rather than lose dignity by attacking them.

If gulls were stupid birds they would not have spread themselves all over the world as they have done, taking advantage of man's neighborhood and of his ships and harbors. They are familiar objects in every great seaport, and they convoy approaching vessels long before the most enterprising pilots can get aboard. Their conduct indicates that they can distinguish ships from ships, and know from afar the difference between the great liners, crowded with passengers, from whose wasteful cooks' galleys abundances of good things to eat is thrown overboard, and the lean freighters from which little provender is to be expected.

Nobody who has ever watched from the deck of a steamship entering or touching at a port the flock of welcoming gulls which quickly surrounds it, and has noted the sharp eyes of the birds turning watchfully as they soar alongside or over the masthead, or skim the water close to the churning screws, can think of them as other than extremely intelligent and quick-witted.

The manner in which they fly, on apparently motionless wings, increasing and decreasing their speed, rising and sinking, turning and darting, as if their movements were controlled rather by will power than by force and skill of wing, is a source of ceaseless wonder and admiration to the onlooker.

The large, white gull familiar along the Atlantic coast is the "herring gull," so called because it likes herrings when it can get them, although usually it eats something else; and if it inhabits the precincts of Greater New York it becomes a thoroughly urban bird in its eating habits, and feeds on the rich and varied table d'hote of the harbor and its shores and inlets.

Away from the metropolitan neighborhood the herring gull has to exercise its ingenuity to find sufficient food, and one of its tricks would be hard to match in any story of bird intelligence. This is its way of getting clams out of their shells—I had best tell the story in the words of an actual observer, Mr. C. Gilbert Pearson of the Audubon Society:

"While sitting one afternoon on the verandа of a little hotel at Beaufort, N. C., idly watching a herring gull slowly heating about the harbor, I was surprised to see it suddenly fly down on a mud-flat, grasp a clam in its bill and, rising aloft about forty feet, let its burden fall. The bird quickly descended, seized its victim and dropped it as before. This performance was repeated sixteen times, when the gull, after a final look at the clam, flew away, evidently discouraged. It was trying to break the shell, but the mud did not offer sufficient resistance. A few days later I found gulls practicing this habit a hundred miles farther up the coast, and at one place near Cape Hatteras, the hard-packed sands were literally strewn with fragments of freshly broken clam shells.

Herring gulls are often seen far from the Atlantic Coast, along the shores of the Gulf of Mexico, and around the Great Lakes and some of the larger rivers. In Summer many of them go as far north as Alaska, but their greatest breeding places are on the rocky islands along the coast of Maine. Here their rookeries are guarded by wardens employed by the Audubon societies. Formerly there was a great demand for gulls' feathers to ornament women's hats, and the consequent slaughter of the birds was murderous. This led to the protective crusade undertaken by the Audubon societies.

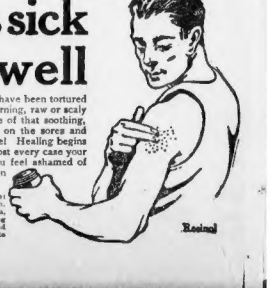
There are many other species of gulls. One, a smaller bird, is the "laughing gull" of the salt marshes of the Middle and Southern States. In the Gulf States there are several very peculiar species, such as the "buzzomaster gull," which is remarkable for its large, full body; the "ivory gull," which is pure white, and the "rosy gull," which flanks among the rarest as well as the most beautiful of birds. Its breast and all the under parts are of a delicate rose or pink color, and around its neck, like a lace collar, is a band of soft gray.

It is said that only two Arctic explorers, Nansen and Murdoch, have had the good fortune to see these birds in flocks. Generally only one or two individuals are seen, and that very rarely. These birds were first seen by Sir John Ross.

The French Government, through the Minister of War, approved by the Health Dept., ordered 200,000 boxes Cadum Ointment for use in the Army and Navy.

If you have skin trouble, get a tube of Cadum Ointment and apply a small quantity to the affected part. It will stop the itching at once. People who have suffered for years from irritation of the skin are comforted and able to sleep soon after Cadum Ointment is applied. It acts quickly upon eczema, pimples, sores, blotches, eruptions, scaly skin, itching piles, ringworm, chafings, etc. Cadum Ointment is sold by druggists at 50c. & 25c. a box.

Resinol makes sick skins well

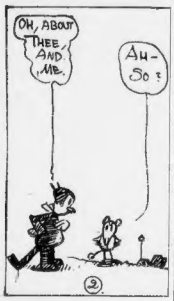


No matter how long you have been tortured and disfigured by itching, burning, raw or scaly skin humors, just put a little of that soothing, antiseptic Resinol Ointment on the sores and the suffering stops right there! Healing begins that very minute, and in almost every case your skin gets well so quickly you feel ashamed of the money you threw away on useless treatments.

Resinol Ointment contains nothing that could injure or irritate the tenderest skin. It clears away pimples and blackheads, and is a most reliable household dressing for sores, chafings, cuts, burns, etc. Sold by all druggists. For trial free, write to Dept. 6-S, Resinol, Baltimore, Md.

Krazy Kat

Copyright, 1915, International News Service.



KABIBBLE KABARET

CARUSO WILL NOW GIVE A SING—"I BELIEVE IN LOVE AT FIRST SIGHT, BUT SIXTY DAYS IS MORE LIKE BUSINESS!"

THE DINGBAT FAMILY

Copyright, 1915, International News Service.

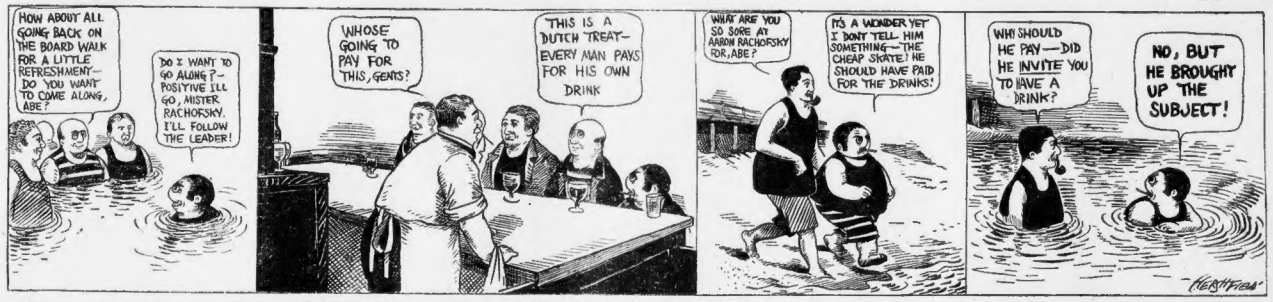
You Can Bet Joe Didn't Know He Was Working

PLACE DEM DISHES RIGHT HERE ON DIS TABLE, MISTO. "JOSEPH". I MUST SAY YOU IS DOING NOBILLY.
DA-A-A-NOW- DA-AAA-NOW-
CRASH
WORKING!! "JOE BEAMISH" IS IT POSSIBLE?
OH, SO YOU HAS AL IDEE DAT YOU MERELY STAWTLED HIM, IS DAT IT?
YES "DUSKIA" I-I-I THINK I DID— DID'NT I?
NO- NO. YOU WOKE HIM UP- DASS WUD YOU DID-

ABIE THE AGENT

Copyright, 1915, International News Service.

It Not Exactly an Invitation, It Was a Sort of a Suggestion



HOW ABOUT ALL GOING BACK ON THE BOARD WALK FOR A LITTLE REFRESHMENT— DO YOU WANT TO COME ALONG, ABE?
DO I WANT TO GO ALONG?— POSITIVE I'LL GO, MISTER RACHOFSKY. I'LL FOLLOW THE LEADER!
WHOSE GOING TO PAY FOR THIS, GENTS?
THIS IS A DUTCH TREAT— EVERY MAN PAYS FOR HIS OWN DRINK
WHAT ARE YOU SO SORE AT AARON RACHORSKY FOR, ABE?
IT'S A WONDER YET I DONT TELL HIM SOMETHING—THE CHEAP SKATE! HE SHOULD HAVE PAID FOR THE DRINKS!
WHY SHOULD HE PAY—DID HE INVITE YOU TO HAVE A DRINK?
NO, BUT HE BROUGHT UP THE SUBJECT!
HERRIMAN

JERRY ON THE JOB

Copyright, 1915, International News Service.

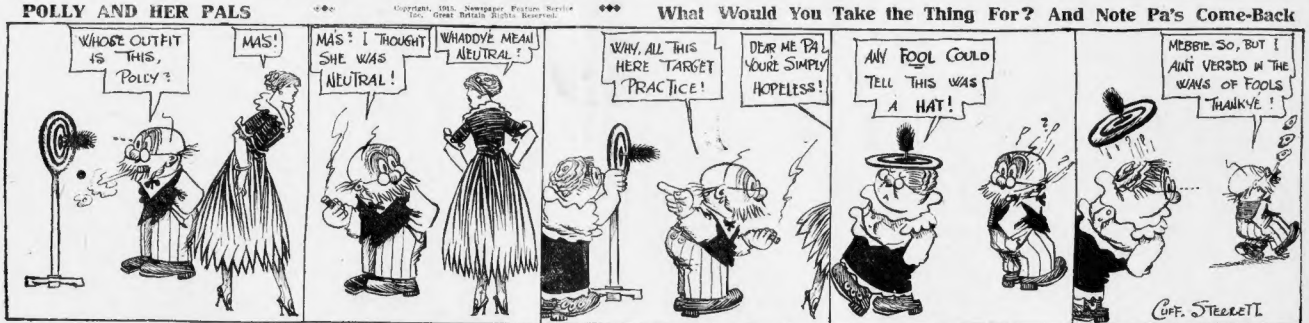
It Was Entirely a Matter of Business with Him

GET THIS JER - IT'S THE BEEFSTEASH - DEAR DOC - I AM OFFA YOU FOR LIFE I AM DONE. THAT "TOOTH FERRIN", "TUSK TINKERIN", CHINA CHOPPIN CROCKERY CLOUTIN JOINT OF YOURS WONT LAMP ME NO MORE. IN OTHER WORDS—I QUIT. Herrmann.
AW-LAY OFF THE SLANG— DON'T TRY TO SLIP HIM ANY TRICK CHAN MUSIC - ALL YA GOTTA DO IS WISE HIM UP THAT HE'S THROUGH AND PASS HIM THE INFO IN NICE PARLOR CHATTER.
NOW I GOTTA LOT O' SWELL WORDS IN IT AND AN ENVELOPE AND ALL - YOU TAKE IT UP - HUH? MAKE HIM SIGN FOR IT AND EVERYTHING. REGLAR STUFF.
REGLAR STUFF - YEH - NOW LESSEEEE
40—COUNT 'EM—40
THAT'S 40¢ WITHOUT THE TIP.
WHY THE RUSH?
THINK I WANNA BE LATE FOR WORK.
HOSP

POLLY AND HER PALS

Copyright, 1915, Newspaper Feature Service Inc. Great Britain Rights Reserved.

What Would You Take the Thing For? And Note Pa's Come-Back



WHOSE OUTFIT IS THIS, POLLY?
MA'S!
MA'S! I THOUGHT SHE WAS NEUTRAL!
WHADDYE MEAN NEUTRAL?
WHY, ALL THIS HERE TARGET PRACTICE!
DEAR ME PA, YOURE SIMPLY HOPELESS!
ANY FOOL COULD TELL THIS WAS A HAT!
MEBBIE SO, BUT I AINT VERSED IN THE WAYS OF FOOLS THANKYE!
CUFF STERRETT

US BOYS

Registered United States Patent Office.

What, Ho! a Stowaway Aboard the Lugger! Shall We Leave Him to the Sharks, or What?

COME MATES, COME THE CAPTAIN JUST PHONED ME HE HAD A STOWAWAY!
GOSH, WHERE DID HE GET IT?
HE'S BEEN DOWN IN THE HOLD EVER SINCE WE LEFT PORT. GOT HUNGRY TO-DAY AND CAME UP.
WHAT'LL WE DO WITH HIM, FEED HIM TO A WHALE?
DON'T SAY SUCH HORRIBLE THINGS CAPTAIN, EVEN IN JEST! ORDER THE COOK TO TURN TO AND LAY OUT SUPPER!
NAW, I DIDN'T KNOW IT WAS YOUR SHIP. I JIST SNEAKED INTER THE COAL BUNKERS AT THE WHARF BECAUSE ME OLE MAN WAS AFTER ME AND WHEN THE SHIP STARTED TO MOVE I GOT SCARED AS THE DICKENS AND THEN I GOT HUNGRY AND THEN I CLIMBED OUT- WHERE WE GOIN'?
OH WE'RE JUST CRUISING 'ROUND A BIT. WE'LL BE GOING FOR 'BOUT TWO WEEKS OR SO. YOU'RE ONE OF US NOW. AFTER OUR REPAST WELL HAUE YOU OUTFITTED IN A UNIFORM!
NOW WE'VE GOT A NEW ONE. HIS NAME IS FREDDIE GINIGAN.
TOM McNAMARA

SHANER'S GOOGLY DEP'T

WELL KNOWN SAYINGS ILLUSTRATED BY S. S.

TELL IT TO THE JUDGE!

Answer to Saturday's

WHEN ARE TWO PEOPLE HALF WITTED? WHEN THEY HAVE AN UNDERSTANDING BETWEEN THEM.

THAT'S A FAST ONE FOLKS!

But listen here!

FROM LEFTY MILLER — U. C. A.

HOW SHOULD WEEPING WILLOWS BE PLANTED?

ANSWER TO-MORROW

NOTICE!

DON'T FAIL TO SEE TO-MORROW'S PAPER!

FOSS WILL RUN AS REPUBLICAN AT PRIMARIES

Ex-Governor Eugene N. Foss in a letter to Charles Sumner Bird, announces his intention to take out Republican nomination papers for Governor, as a result of Mr. Bird's declination to become a candidate for the Republican nomination.

"Now that you have declined to lead," he writes Mr. Bird, "I look about the political horizon and I see no other leader of the real Republicans now in the field. It must be evident to everyone that my public service during the past ten years expresses the progressive spirit of the Republican party in this Commonwealth.

"It is the very consistency, even the persistency, of my belief in the Massachusetts tariff idea," Mr. Foss continues, "that makes me opposed to the nomination of Mr. McCall in these progressive days as the candidate of the Republican party for Governor. The election of Mr. McCall would be no diversion; it would be a reversion.

Million-Dollar Building for State Street

Hypothetical widening of State street by relocating the street boundries under an agreement that the Fidelity Trust Company will erect a $1,000,000 building at the Chatham street corner, featured an order issued by the street commissioners with Mayor Curley's full approval today.

Under the new order State street is supposed to be 104 feet wide throughout although no real widening of the street is contemplated. This is accomplished by including a portion of McKinley square in the old-time street limits, which does not necessitate the taking of one foot of private land or the expenditure of a dollar by the city.

With the hypothetical widening now a matter of public record, the Fidelity Trust Company can run its proposed new building up 175 feet, while between 70 and 80 feet would have been the limit before. This led the company to put up a $1,000,000 structure, in return for the technical favor, which was necessary under the building laws.

SENATOR OWEN SEES BOOM IN WAR'S WAKE

NEW YORK Aug. 2—United States Senator Robert L. Owen of Oklahoma declares that the United States and civilization in general will profit greatly by the European war.

"The effect of the war in Europe, beyond the destruction of human life," said Senator Owen, "will be a tremendous stimulator in inventions, in mechanics, arts, in organization of transportation facilities and the greatest productive energy the world has ever seen before.

"I hope it will result in establishing principles of international law that right makes might and that might does not make right. Also, I hope it will establish that no nation shall invade territory of any other nation without becoming by that act an international outlaw except where, by international agreement, invasion is temporary and for humanitarian purposes only.

TRAGEDY HALTS HUNT IN STORY OF ELAINE

"THE DEATH CLOUD" is the ominous title of a thrilling story and of pictures in the successive adventures that comprise "The Romance of Elaine."

You have heard of cubism, the deadly gas that, exploded by means of bombs, spreads death upon the battlefield? Chlorine is the death cloud that hovers over this adventure, and that descends upon two rival bodies of men engaged in a mutual struggle.

But first, the ever winsome Elaine. The day begins with no augury of ill, for she receives an invitation that gratifies.

"The Wilkesbire Country Club will be honored if Miss Dodge and her friends will join the paper chase this afternoon.

"J. H. BROWN, Secretary."

Elaine dispatches the messenger from the club with an acceptance for herself, her Aunt Josephine and her guest, Walter Jamieson. Presently the trio gallops off on three of the best trained cross-country horses in the late Taylor Dodge's stables, for the magnificent Jamieson had been fond of that inspiring sport.

Miss Dodge included Del Mar, who happened to call at the moment, she received her invitation, and he galloped after them.

WHERE "ELAINE" MAY BE SEEN

MONDAY, TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY.

Beacon, Tremont, Globe Theatre, Boston.
Plaza, Worcester.
Empire, Fall River.

THURSDAY, FRIDAY, SATURDAY.

Riverside, Quincy.

MASSACHUSETTS.

Adams, Taylor
Arlington, Regent
Amherst, Town Hall
Andover, College
Ashland, Town Hall
Ayer, Public Hall
Barre, Lyceum
Belchertown, Town
Bridgewater, Pimenta
Brockton, City
Brockton, Keith's
Cambridge, Lyceum
Chicopee, Pastime
Clinton, Town Hall
Colrain, Brooks
Concord, Colonial
East Boston, Maverick
East Douglas, G. A. R. Hall
East Hampton, Majestic
Everett, Broadway
Fall River, American
Franklin, Town Hall
Gloucester, Lyceum
Great Barrington, Mc-Intosh
Haverhill, Scenic
Hillsboro, Spring Hall
Holliston, Town Hall
Holyoke, Empress
Holyoke, Majestic
Holyoke, Park
Holyoke, Triple Star
Hudson, Town Hall
Lawrence, Opera House
Jamaica Plain, Supreme
Lee, Casey
Leeds, Town Hall
Leominster, Music Hall
Lowell, Keeney
Lowell, Merrimack
Marshfield, Colman
Methuen, Grand
Milford, Grand
Millbury, Auditorium
Milford, Opera House
Millis, Town Hall
Newport, Pa., Odd Fellows Hall
Millbridge, Hotel
Montague, Newton
New Bedford, Casino
New Bedford, Royal
Newton, Opera House
North Adams, Diamond
North Grafton, Johnston Hall
North Uxbridge, Memorial Hall
Oxford, Opera House
Palmer, City
Pittsfield, Tyler
Plymouth, Memorial
Provincetown, Pilgrim
Revere, Forest Garden
Rockland, Rockland
Salem, Empress
Salem, Lyceum
Salem, Salem
Saugus, Bay St.
Olympia
Somerville, Odd Fellows' Hall
Southbridge, Pearson's
Spencer, Op
South Boston, Columbia
Spencer, Park
Springfield, Edmonia
Springfield, Fox's Nelson
Springfield, Gallery
Springfield, Metropolitan Stoughton, Orpheum
Taunton, Music Hall
Turner's Falls, Opera House
Wakefield, Bijou
Walpole, Town Hall
Warren, Town Hall
West Lynn, Pastime
Westfield, Bijou Dream
Westfield, Majestic
Whitinsville, Grenier
Winchendon, Opera
Worcester, Bijou
Worcester, Plaza
Worcester, Smith's
Woonsocket, Smith's

RHODE ISLAND.

Arctic, Gem
Bristol, Star
East Greenwich, Star
Fairway, Empire
Pawtucket, Globe

NEW HAMPSHIRE

Ashland, Lyric
Berlin, Gem
Claremont, Majestic
Colebrook, Balcom
Derry, Broadway
Dover, Lyric
Farmington, Music Hall
Groveton, Star
Keene, Lyceum
Lakeport, Opera House
Lisbon, Empress

MAINE

Augusta, Colonial
Bar Harbor, Star
Bath, Columbia
Calais, Grand
Fairfield, Star
Freeport, Academy
Hallowell, Acme
Kingsbury, Acme
Lewiston, Music
Lewiston, Columbia
Millinocket, Star
Newport, Me., Odd Fellows Hall
Orono, Opera House
Pittsfield, Park
Portland, Portland
Portland, Bijou
Rockland, Casino
Rockland, Opera House
Sanford, Laurel's
South Berwick, Rines
Westbrook, Star
Winthrop, Town House
Yarmouth, Pastime

VERMONT

Barre, Parkers
Barton, Gem
Bellows Falls, Grand
Brattleboro, Empire
Brattleboro, Hi-Hour
Island Pond, Opera House
Londonville, Star
Rupert, Premier
Rochester, Acme, New Co.
Rutland, Casino
Richford, Colonial
St. Johnsbury, Gem
White River Jct., Opera House
Windsor, Empress

CONNECTICUT

Baltic, Gem
Bristol, Princess
Cartlight, Orpheum
Hartford, Scenic
Hartford, Empire
Hartford, Princess
Meriden, Lyric
Middletown, Gem
New London, Lyceum
Plainfield, Eden
Rockville, Palace
South Manchester, Circle
Stamford, Springs
Torrington, Capitol
Tariffville, Casino
Thompsonville, Majestic

Distributed through the Pathe Exchange, Inc., 3 Tremont Row, Boston.

Big July Gain in "L" Road Receipts

July was a big month for the Boston Elevated Railway, the gross receipts showing an increase of $1,000 a day over last year's receipts for the same month. For the month the increase was from $30,000 to $31,000 over July, 1914. The increase was regarded as encouraging in view of the fact that July was the second wettest month on record in Boston. The Fourth of July weather cost the Elevated about $5,000 in income.

PORT OF BOSTON

ARRIVED.

Prince Arthur, Yarmouth, S.
Calvin Austin, St. John, N. B.
Bangkipbi, Bangkok.
Gloucester, North Va.
Harvard, Port Antonio.
Prince George, Savannah, Ga.
H. F. Dimock, New York.
Manchester, Manchester.
City of Bangor, Bath, Me.
Portland, Portland, Me.
Rufus Hoxie, Providence.
Gloucester, Gloucester.
Lee, Salem.

SAILED.

Prince Arthur and Geneva, via New York.
Prince George, Yarmouth.
Calvin Austin, St. John, N. B.
Bunker Hill, New York.

DUE TODAY.

Galilee, Hull, Eng.
Prentiss Abbott, Hodira.
Colombo, London.
Mount Blue, Antilla, Cuba.
Iquara, Port Limon and Havana.

DUE TUESDAY.

Cambrian, London via New York.

DUE WEDNESDAY.

Zuiderdijk, Rotterdam.

DUE THURSDAY.

Ocean Monarch, Glasgow.
Caspar, Naples, etc.

DUE SATURDAY.

City of Columbia, Calcutta, etc.
Ivernia, Liverpool.
Norwegian, Christiansand.

DUE SUNDAY.

Indian Transport, Calcutta, etc.

TODAY'S STOCK MARKETS

By W. H. ROSS,
Financial Editor

Stocks were strong both in Boston and New York in the last hour. Early in the day the price range was narrow, but by afternoon many issues were showing large gains. Among advances in New York were Amalgamated 2¾, Chino 1¾, Utah 1¾, Inspiration 1¼, American Smelting 2¼, American Can 3¾, U. S. Steel 1, Baldwin 1¾, Bethlehem 4, Crucible 1¼, General Electric 2¼, General Motors 3, Allis-Chalmers 1¾, Goodrich ¾, Air Brake 2, Studebaker 2¾, Westinghouse ¾, Mexican Petroleum 1¾, Caddo 2¾, Rubber Island 1¾, Union Pacific 1¾, St. Paul 1¼, Southern Pacific ¾, Reading 1¼, Northern Pacific 1¾, New Haven 7, N. Y. Central 1, Erie 1, Lehigh Valley ¾, Chesapeake & Ohio ¾, Canadian Pacific 1¾, Baltimore & Ohio 1¾, and Atchison 1½.

Gains in Boston included: Calumet & Arizona 1¼, Calumet & Hecla, Copper Range 2¾, Granby 1¼, Greene-Cananea 1¼, North Butte 1¼, Osceola 2¼, Mohawk 3, Tamarack 2½, Arizona Commercial 1⅛, U. S. Smelting 1¼, American Zinc 1¼, Butte & Superior 2¾, Alaska Gold ⅞, Boston & Maine ⅞, Canadian Pacific 1¾, Baltimore & Ohio 1¾, and Atchison 1½.

Gains in Boston included: Calumet & Arizona 1¼, Calumet & Hecla, Copper Range 2¾, Granby 1¼, Greene-Cananea 1¼, North Butte 1¼, Osceola 2¼, Mohawk 3, Tamarack 2½, Arizona Commercial 1⅛, U. S. Smelting 1¼, American Zinc 1¼, Butte & Superior 2¾, Alaska Gold ⅞, Boston & Maine ⅞, Canadian Pacific 1¾, Baltimore & Ohio 1¾, and Atchison 1½.

A local financial publication says: "The latest report is that a sale of 100,000 pounds will probably be negotiated tomorrow at 15¾ cents or better, and taht before the buying movement is completed a total of 150,000,000 pounds will probably be disposed of."

PRICES WORKED UPWARD.

Soon after the opening prices worked upward in New York. They were irregular at the start but the undertone was firm. Most of the business was in war order issues. Coppers became strong during the morning. By noontime rails were on a higher level. Trading was of good volume. The number of buy orders indicated public participation. Most of the profit-taking was early. The price range was not large in any group, compared with that of some days of late. Call money declined to baker and Allis-Chalmers sold at "new highs." Within a few minutes traders saw the supply of stocks became small. That gave prices an upward trend. There was nothing of unusual interest about the market.

ZINCS HIGHER HERE.

There was more business in copper shares in the Boston market, but it remained dull. Zincs were stronger. There was little movement in issues classified in the general list. Boston & Maine sold as high as 24½ before afternoon. The market for metals showed no alteration. But producers believe prices have gone as low as they are likely to until conditions become normal. More consumption of crude copper in domestic manufacturing is expected. Big buying on home and foreign account is said to be due now, and of good volume soon after the upturn in that class in New York. Nevada regained its loss and advanced further. Utah Copper was also a big gain. The Boston bank statement shows cash excess of $10,614,000, a decrease of $235,000.

BUSINESS OUTLOOK GOOD.

As to general business conditions in the United States, the National City Bank of New York, one of the greatest financial institutions in the world, says:

"The industrial revival has now reached the point where with the additional impetus that may be expected from the marketing of a good crop, it should include practically all lines, and assure a satisfactory state of general trade this Fall."

BOSTON STOCKS.

	High.	Low.	2:30
Alaska Gold	⅞	⅞	⅞
Am. Zinc	56¼	55	56¼
Boston Elevated	86½	85	86½
Boston & Maine	24½	24¾	24¾
Butte & Superior	70	67	70
Calumet & Ariz.	74¼	73	74¼
Calumet & Hecla	575	570	575
Copper Range	54¾	54¼	55¾
Granby	85	84	85
Greene-Cananea	41	40¾	41
Mohawk	74½	73	74½
North Butte	21⅝	20	21⅝
N. Y., N. H. & H.	62¾	62	63½
Osceola	57½	57	57½
Quincy	88	87	87
St. Mary	27½	25	27½
Tamarack	45½	44½	45½
United Fruit	133½	133½	133½
United Sh. Mach.	50¼	50	50¼
U. S. Smelting	42⅜	41	42⅜
Ventura	15¼	15	15¼
Wolverine	61¾	61	61¾

NEW YORK STOCKS.

	High.	Low.
Am. Can	61¾	57½	61
Am. Sm. & R.	57¾	55¾	57¾
Allis-Chalmers	35¾	33¾	34¾
Anaconda Cop.	71¾	69¾	71¾
Atch. T. & S. F.	103¾	102¾	103¾
Balt. & Ohio	80¾	79¾	80¾
Canadian Pac.	146¾	144	146
Ches. & Ohio	42¾	40¾	41¾
Chino	46¾	45¾	46¾
Erie	27¼	26¾	27¼
Gen. Electric	172¾	172	172¾
Lehigh Valley	114¾	113	114¾
Missouri Pac.	3	2¾	2¾
N. Y. C. & Hud.	93½	88½	89½
N. Y., N. H. & H.	61¾	61¼	62¼
Northern Pac.	108½	106½	107½
Reading	165½	161½	161½
Rock Island	14¾	13	14
Southern Pac.	89¾	87¾	88¾
St. Paul	97¾	96¼	97¾
Union Pacific	129¾	128¾	129¾
U. S. Steel	67¾	66¾	67¾
Utah Copper	68	66¾	67¾
Am. Locomotive	55	54	54½
Beth. Steel	75¾	74¾	75¾
Beth Steel	259½	256	259
Crucible Steel	67¾	67	67¾
Goodrich	52¾	51¾	52¾
Inspiration	34¾	33¾	34
Max. Motor	26¾	25¾	26¾
Mex. Petro	76¾	74	76
Northern Ore	47¾	46¾	47¾
Ray Con. & Steel	42¾	42¼	42¾
Studebaker	87¾	84¾	87¾
Westinghouse	111¾	110¾	111¾

VISIT OUR NEW QUARTERS
The Hankow
Chinese Restaurant
15 and 19 Essex Street
Boston, Mass. Tel. Oxford 22277.
The only up-to-date Chinese Restaurant in New England for ladies and gentlemen.

"Rich's Grill," 153 Federal St., NEAR Ss. Terminal, established 1875, all prepared and cooked before your eyes; broiled steak lunch from 11:30 to 2, 60c; buffet, broil and hot dishes for cold weather; wine list.

TRIANGLE FILM STOCK SELLS ON CURB

Interest is felt by the investing public in Triangle Film, trading in which has opened on the New York Curb. A goodly number of investors have already been attracted by the prospects of large earnings in such film-making and the names of the leading directors and prominent executives of the film industry associated with the enterprise give assurance of success.

It is realized, however, that shares will probably have the first active market for their shares such as the curb affords. There is no use for most persons to have their funds in a business enterprise unless the securities they acquire are easily negotiable.

This is particularly true in the case of small fortunes—a fact that is especially invited into this enterprise by reason of the low price of shares, $5 each.

OFFICERS WELL KNOWN.

The officers and organizers of Triangle Film Corporation are H. E. Aitken, notable for his executive skill in having upbuilt Mutual Film, of which he was formerly president; C. O. Bauman, Adam and Charles Kessel of the prosperous New York Motion Picture Corporation; David W. Griffith, Mack Sennett and Thomas H. Ince, the three foremost art directors of film manufacture.

The notable financial success of Griffith's celebrated $2 picture, "The Birth of a Nation," and even more particularly the enormous permanent market acquired in all lands by Mack Sennett's so-called "Keystone Comedies," would indicate that the future products of such directors will continue to yield substantial financial returns.

Mr. Sennett will produce exclusively for Triangle Film his "Keystone Comedies." Mr. Griffith will personally supervise the production of a five-reel picture each week, and Mr. Ince, noted for his western dramas and his stupendous "The Battle of Gettysburg," will likewise present an important five-reel picture drama weekly.

ONE MILLION SHARES.

With the three art directors have been associated about forty of the most prominent stage stars of America, many of whom will make their first stage appearances under the Triangle banner.

Triangle Film has been incorporated with a million shares of stock at par value of $5 each. There are no bonds nor preferred stock, nor many nor minority interests. A large proportion of the stock has been acquired by the organizers and officers and financial interests associated with them. The remainder is offered to the public.

Except in isolated instances, the film or photo-play division of film companies is comparatively novel to America. In Paris, on the other hand, the stocks of such companies are firmly established as dependable securities. They have brought their holders excellent returns and have been dealt in freely for years, notably the Pathe Freres, which has commanded the high price of 1400 on the Bourse. Surprise is expressed by many foreigners at American backwardness in overlooking investment opportunities in the films.

Arrest Woman on Roof After Chase

Mrs. Lucy Connors of Quigg Block, Waltham, and Mrs. Mary Malley, also of Waltham, appeared in the Waltham District Court today charged with drunkenness. Mrs. Connors was sentenced to four months in the House of Correction and Mrs. Malley was sent to Sherborn. According to Mrs. Malley's husband, she left her home Saturday evening. He complained to Officer Rhoden and they found her being entertained by Mrs. Connors. Mrs. Malley led the officer a merry chase through the building to the roof of the three-apartment house, hiding behind the chimney. Both women appealed.

Travelers' Guide

A Vacation Cruise for Two to New York

All-Shore-to-Shore Cruise on the Great Express Passenger Steamships "Massachusetts" and "Bunker Hill" of the Metropolitan Line.

$25.00 RT. Includes transportation, stateroom, berth, sight-seeing auto tour

FOR TWO and a sail on sight-seeing yacht encircling Manhattan Island.

For itineraries, reservations and tickets, apply to

GEO. E. MARSTERS
214 Washington St., Boston

NEW YORK $2.80
Via Rail and Boat
Daily and Sunday
The only
Independent line operating between New England and New York
COLONIAL LINE 332 Wash. St., Boston Phone F. R. 3720

BAY STATE LINE VIA RAIL & BOAT $2.85
Via Troller and Boat, $2.35.
STATEROOMS $1.00 and $1.50 each
Steel Steamships Georgia and Tennessee
Daily, including Sunday. Municipal Pier, Fish St., Boston.
Ticket Office, 214 Washington St., Boston.

WHITE MOUNTAINS
SPECIAL party leaves Aug. 7 to North Woodstock, N. H., for a week's outing, including railroad fares both ways, room and board and 50-mile coaching trip; $17.50. Daily independent tours a feature. HAZARD CO., 50 Summer Temple; tel. Main 4414.

When Answering Advertisements, Please Mention the Boston American.

Summer Resorts.

WRITE for our handsome free circular and picture map of Cape Cod. Sent anywhere.
JAS. JAY SMITH CO., Old Orchard, Me.

SPEND your vacation at W. H. GODFREY'S farm in Sterling, Mass. Write or phone 23-12. Terms reasonable.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

An unnecessary high mass of requiem will be celebrated in St. Patrick's Church, Dudley st., Roxbury, on Wednesday, Aug. 4, at 8 o'clock for the repose of the soul of the late Mary A. Fenn (nee Fahy). Relatives and friends are invited to attend.

BLUE HILL FARE ZONES ARE CHANGED

On petition of the Blue Hill Street Railway Company for an increase in fare over its lines from six cents to eight cents, the Public Service Commission today refused to grant the increase to eight cents, but authorized a shortening of the present fare zones and prescribed a five-cent fare for each zone except from Mattapan to Blue Hill street in Canton, where the fare will be six cents.

The order will, it is stated, result in an addition of $10,000 to the railway of $19,000 to $12,000 a year.

The points on which the order of the commission is based outlined the following fare zones:

Mattapan square to Blue Hill street, 4.36 miles.

Blue Hill street to Unitarian Parish Hall, 2.61 miles.

Unitarian Parish Hall to East Sharon village, 2.85 miles.

East Sharon village to Stoughton, 2.85 miles.

The lines of the Blue Hill Company extend from Mattapan to Stoughton, a distance of 12.74 miles. Under the present schedule this distance is divided into three equal fare zones, each with a six-cent fare, as follows:

Mattapan square to Ponkapoug, 5.41 miles.

Blue Hill to East Sharon, 6.25 miles.

Canton to Stoughton, 4.22 miles.

Memorial at Grant's Tomb.

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—In commemoration of the thirtieth anniversary of the burial of General U. S. Grant, members of various military organizations will participate in exercises at Grant's Tomb, August 8.

Real Estate—Miscellaneous.

Own a Farm in Florida

IN the "Largest Vegetable Producing Point in Florida"; send for illustrated booklet; price $30 and $40 per acre; no taxes; no interest; no bonus; $10 cash and $10 per month for 10 acres; $20 cash and $20 per month for 20 acres; $40 cash and $40 per month for 40 acres. FARMS COMPANY, 170 Summer Street, Boston, Mass.

$300 CASH

BUYS new house, 6 rooms, bathroom with latest modern plumbing, gas and electric lights, set tubs, hardwood floors throughout, piazza, shades and screens, convenient to electric and steam cars, other fine houses for sale in this locality; open for inspection Monday and Tuesday, 2 to 6 p.m., and Wednesday and Thursday, 7 to 9 p.m. BACHELLER, care of Bailey Grocery Co., corner Harvard and Elm sts., Cottage Farm; take car from Scollay square.

SMALL FARMS

11 MILES FROM BOSTON—Five acres, best of soil; 4 acre, 3 acres, 2 acres, 1 acres; $300 to $500 each; easy terms; 2 trains daily; will give you a good living; nothing and will pay you more each year; don't miss this; send for map and full particulars. Address C. H. Boone, Arlington.

MILTON

NEAR MATTAPAN SQUARE

For Sale 10-room house and garage; new modern cottage, 6 rooms; both; 2 minutes to Lee Boston. Tel. B B 887

FISHER HILL, BROOKLINE

Land for sale, restricted to single houses. Beacon Mortgage & Investment Co., 201 Devonshire St., Boston. Telephone Fort Hill 1260.

HEALTHIEST SPOT ON EARTH

CAMP SITES

WITH FREE TENTS TO PURCHASERS. Boating, bathing and fishing; high grade location; low prices, easy terms. Apply from Boston H. S. MOODY LAND CO., $79 Old South Bldg.

$1,150—Summer Cottage

AT THE SEASHORE, 6 rooms, open plumbing, set tubs, 3 lots of land, near Boston; $100 down and 6 months at 6 per cent. H. S. MOODY LAND CO., 379 Old South Bldg.

PAINT $1.15 Gal. 48 SHADES

Varnishes, stains for floors, etc., at half price. Tel. Ft. Hill 5241

Bailey Paint Warehouse, 50 Pearl St.

A GIFT

FOR $2,200—7-room house located on a car line, 5-cent fare, all improvements, only $25 down, $20 per month. ALBERT F. ANDREWS, 5 Boylston st., Medford Sq.

Mattapan—$7,500—Mattapan

8 ROOMS, garage, large lot of land, buildings cost $12,000 to build; must be sold at once. With $1,000 cash or on your own broker; price $7,500. Apply

WALL PAPER BARGAINS

SEE US AND SAVE MONEY

Hickey's, 180 Friend St., Near North St.

HOW would you like a cozy little street of all new, up-to-date cottage houses, in Medford, only a few minutes from Sullivan square? We are looking for a home to welcome here; if after looking at the houses you like one, we will sell them for from $2,600 to $3,000, on such easy monthly payments; take any Medford car, get off at Sunset st., walk to the houses; or better, go around MR. MERRILL, again, on ground every day from 10 to 4.

$50,000 WORTH of gilt edge real estate, consisting of stores, apartment houses, flats and family houses, free and clear; large loans to select; Dorchester will sell at a sacrifice; also a few quick cash sale; for interview 1 to 3 p. m., 85 Gerard st., Dorchester.

BILLERICA—5-rm. bungalow, plenty of land, fine location, easy terms; may be had by Sept. or August in the country; plenty of fresh eggs, milk, chickens, apples, etc., only hour's ride from Boston American.

80 ACRES, crops, stock and tools, new house, near lake summer resort; 9 head cattle, horse, wagon, sleigh, harness, farming tools; will sell part down. L. F. BLAKE & P. B. FLINT, Ashburnham.

$1,000 FOOT camp lot, only $85; handy to Boston, level land, some trees, near electric transportation; $5 monthly buys it. L. G. Boston American.

$2,000 CASH, 1,000 sq. ft., $15; $2 down, half hour to Boston; 5c fare; 10 lots left; 1 mile from Haverhill. H. E. CHASE, 244 Lincoln av., Chelsea.

FOR SALE—1 house, 9 rooms, for 2 families with rent $30 a month; 1 house, 10 rooms, rent $35; fine location, 10 Bennett st., E. Boston.

BILLERICA—4 fine camp lots, over 10,000 ft., $85; cost $150; terms $5 cash and $5 monthly; correct mont hase money. 37 Bos. Boston American.

THE BOSTON AMERICAN

Published Daily and Sunday at 89 and 83 Summer Street, Boston, Mass.

BRANCH ADVERTISING OFFICES: ALL ADVERTISING AND CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING WITH THIS PAPER MAY BE PLACED AT THE WASHINGTON ST. OFFICE, 1 BOSTON PLACE, WAY, AT 50TH ST., NEW YORK CITY, OR 504 HEARST BLDG., CHICAGO.

NEW ENGLAND NEWSPAPER PUBLISHING CO.

Entered as second class matter, June 4, 1907, at the postoffice at Boston, Mass.

Entered as second class matter at the Postoffice Department, Canada.

Terms: Daily, One Cent; Sunday, Five Cents. Terms: Postage included for the United States (outside of Boston), Canada and Mexico. In Boston Postal District double the amount.

Daily Only:
One year $3.00
Six months 1.50
Three months ..... .75
Sunday Only:
One year $2.50
Six months 1.25
Three months ..... .65
Daily and Sunday:
One year $5.50
Six months 2.75
Three months 1.40

On foreign subscriptions add postage at rate of 2 cents per daily and 1 cent per Sunday.

Real Estate—Miscellaneous.

CHAPIN'S SPECIAL FARM BARGAINS
294 Washington St., Boston

FIVE CENT FARE, with interest to 4 cents; schooner returning good dividends; near electric; 2 story house, 6 rooms, bath, hardwood floors, open plumbing, electric lights, range, hen house, 1 acre land; $1,600; $400 cash, balance easy; another, 8 rooms, bath, set tubs, shade trees, 2 acres land; $1,600 cash, balance easy; without vessel interest. CHAPIN FARM AGENCY, 294 Washington st.

INCLUDE good horse, 4 nice cows, 4 hogs, poultry, 3 acres crops, 7 cords fitted stove wood, with 2-horse wagon, mowing machine, 20 implements, 3 carts, near church, out 10 tons hay, apples, pears, plums, 2 acres potatoes, 5 rooms, $1,700 for everything; personal and patient; please, can have Sunday, 10 to 12. CHAPIN FARM AGENCY, 294 Washington st.

McCormack Says—
I want you to come out and see my property —you'll agree that it is best in suburban Boston —Section 1.
$1 Down, $1 Week
Come to Medford
Electric Car to Central Ave.
G. A. McCORMACK & CO.
Central Ave.—Fellsway.

Real Estate—Atlantic.

SACRIFICE SALE—Owner, leaving for the West, must sell 2-family house, 6 and 6, all modern improvements, hot water heat, fine condition; Atlantic, hot water heated, all inside, near bathing beach; 2-family house, 5 and 5, open plumbing, high class 2-fam. house house in Milton, near depot, 2-fam. house in Roxbury, near Dudley station, 2 small grocery stores. Tel. 138 Dor., or write C. F. HAYDEN, 1 Boylston Place, Boston. Also cottage, Atlantic and Squantum sts.; open all the time.

Real Estate—Beachmont.

FOR SALE—2-sty. house, 8 rms. & bath, trees, shrubbery, fruit, 2 blks. to beach; price $3,000; terms; a bargain. HELEN CLARK MERRICK, Tel.

Real Estate—Brighton.

HEALTHIEST part of Boston, Newton line, Brighton, land for building purposes, tubercular, $1 per week. H. C. FISHER, Trustee, Crescent av., off Oak sq.

Real Estate—Cambridge.

FOR SALE—2-apt. house, 2 years old, 6 rooms and bath to each apt., low, flood, open plumbing, hardwood floors throughout, set tubs, fine cellar, rental $888, price $7,000, $1,500 down, balance easy terms. ROBERTS & CO., 259 Hampshire st., Cambridge, near Inman sq.

Real Estate—Charlestown.

2 SINGLE HOUSES of 6 rooms each, some repairs needed, will be sold for $3,000 each; rental $1,200; must be sold this week. ARTHUR HARRY VAN IDERSTINE, 31 Union st., Somerville.

Real Estate—Cliftondale.

GREAT SACRIFICE—6-r. cottage in tip-top condition, hardwood floors, bath, gas, near depot and electric cars; $2,500; $200 cash, balance $20 per month; will sell for $2,600, $200 cash, balance as rent. F. S. HOWARD, Cliftondale.

BRAND NEW 6-room, up-to-date bungalows, $2,800. CHASE, 24 Lincoln av.

Real Estate—Dorchester.

TO SETTLE ESTATE—Dorchester, 8 apartment house, all modern conveniences, 2 minutes to electric cars, near Dudley st. R. B. MOODY & SON, 209 Washington st., Roxbury; tel. Roxbury 1700.

WANTED—A Dorchester 2-fam. or 3-fam. house; must be cheap for cash; state lowest price first time; full description; please state full particulars and address P. O. box 1, Station F, Boston American.

Real Estate—Everett.

2-FAMILY house and store, all conveniences, 5 and 5 rooms; price $4,000; terms. $500 down; tel. 2 to 6. J. SCHWARTZ, 201 Main st.; tel. 21466.

FOR SALE—Everett, 2-fam. house, 5 and 5 rooms; price $3,500; terms. $500 down. ROBERTSON & SON, 209 Main st., tel. 1914-M.

Real Estate—Maplewood.

$500 DOWN

BUYS 10-room house, 2 tenements, nearly 15,000 ft. land, flat cash terms. FRANK E. PETERSON, Maplewood sq., Malden. Tel. 1687-W.

Real Estate—Malden.

SACRIFICE—Fine 2-family, 12-room house, immediate possession, $3,000; $500 down, balance to collect condition; $6,000; terms. BUCKLEY, tel. Malden 1.

FINE 2-fam. 12-room house, improvements, good neighborhood, excellent condition, $3,500; easy terms. tel. Or. 1893-W.

Real Estate—Medford.

FOR SALE—Nearly new 2-family house, latest bungalow style, in excellent locality, handy to cars and boats; price $4,500; terms to suit. Apply to owner, 15 Bellevue st., Medford. Tel. 1215-M. Will be same as sold. N. J. SODERLUND, 384 Main st., Medford.

$200 DOWN, $10 monthly, buys cottages, bungalows, 4 to 6 rooms, bath, set tubs, $2,500 to $3,000; $500 down, $15 monthly, buys new 2-family houses, all latest improvements, $5,000; $1,000 down, $30 monthly, buys fine 2-family houses, all latest improvements, $8,000; $1,500 down, $40 monthly, buys new 2-family houses, all latest improvements, $10,000. Apply to Fulton st. and Medford sq., Medford. Tel. 1215-M. Will be same as sold. N. J. SODERLUND, 384 Main st., Medford.

FOR SALE—2-fam. house, 5 and 6 rooms, new furnace, set tubs, hardwood floors throughout, fine cellar, large lot of land, fruit trees, fine location, 5 minutes to Arlington Heights station; price $5,000; terms to suit purchaser. Apply Owner, 15 Lake ave., Medford Hills.

Real Estate—Newton.

TWO-FAMILY HOUSE, excellent location, 6 rooms to each tenement, all modern conveniences, fine cellar, 7,000 ft. of land, accepted street, rental $1,000; price $6,500. Address Owner, 7 Pitt st., Boston American.

Real Estate—Roslindale.

For Sale—8-Room House

ALL improvements, near to cars, new roof, new garage, handy to steam and electrics; in best part of Roslindale. Owner will take $250 down, $25 monthly. 15 Arden st.

Real Estate—Roxbury.

COMPULSORY SALE—Roxbury, 2-apartment house, 4 and 5 rooms, all conveniences, fine cellar, new roof, excellent location, good condition, large yard, rental $504, price $5,000; easy terms. R. B. MOODY & SON, 209 Washington st., Roxbury; tel. Roxbury 1700.

ROXBURY—1-family house, improvements, yard, fine cellar, in good condition, $2,500; terms to suit. Apply 15 Arden st. Tel. 1200.

50 ACRES, crops, stock and tools, new house, near lake summer resort; 9 head cattle, horse, wagon, sleigh, harness, farming tools; will sell part down. L. F. BLAKE & P. B. FLINT, Ashburnham.

$1,000 FOOT camp lot, only $85; handy to Boston, level land, some trees, near electric transportation; $5 monthly buys it. L. G. Boston American.

$2,000 CASH, 1,000 sq. ft., $15; $2 down, half hour to Boston; 5c fare; 10 lots left; 1 mile from Haverhill. H. E. CHASE, 244 Lincoln av., Chelsea.

FOR SALE—1 house, 9 rooms, for 2 families with rent $30 a month; 1 house, 10 rooms, rent $35; fine location, 10 Bennett st., E. Boston.

BILLERICA—4 fine camp lots, over 10,000 ft., $85; cost $150; terms $5 cash and $5 monthly; correct mont hase money. 37 Bos. Boston American.

Real Estate—Somerville.

11 HAWKINS ST.

2-FAMILY house, 12 rooms, 4-5-5; owner says sell; price $5,000; terms. $500 down. KEY WEST CITY, 100 Somerville av.

2-FAMILY house, 2-family house, all improvements, hardwood floors, electricity, sunshine, steam within 2 minutes, 2 minutes to electric cars, 10 minutes to Boston, corner location. Exam. terms. WAUGH & BANSO, 1 Somerville av.

FOR SALE—Five 2-room house, all improvements, hardwood floors, electricity, sunshine, steam within 2 minutes, 2 minutes to electric cars, 10 minutes to Boston, corner location. Exam. terms. WAUGH & BANSO, 1 Somerville av.

FOR SALE—Fine 2-room house, all improvements, hardwood floors, electricity, sunshine, steam within 2 minutes, 2 minutes to electric cars, 10 minutes to Boston, corner location. Exam. terms. WAUGH & BANSO, 1 Somerville av.

$500 DOWN takes brand new 2-family, 11 rooms, 2 baths, 2 toilets, 2 hot water heat, 2 gas ranges, 2 coal ranges, open plumbing, copper boilers, hardwood floors, 2 gas fixtures, 2 rent $1,000; HARRY VAN IDERSTINE, 31 Union st., Somerville.

$500 DOWN—Fine 2-family house, 14 rooms, rental $50 monthly; hardwood floors, best Winter Hill location; price $5,500. Apply HARRY VAN IDERSTINE, 31 Union st., Somerville.

SPRING HILL—Fine single house, 6 rooms, $4,000 cash; 2-family house, 5 and 5 rooms, $4,000 cash; terms; price $5,500. Apply HARRY VAN IDERSTINE, 31 Union st., Somerville.

Real Estate—South Boston.

SOUTH BOSTON—11-room house, D st, near Thomas st. $100 down or on rent. CUSHING, 333 Main st., Wakefield.

Real Estate—Wollaston.

$3,500 BUYS new 7-room house, all improvements, refined neighborhood; 7-roomed cottage, lot 50x100, small family, $2,000, easy terms. 748 Quincy 1793-M.

Real Estate Auctions.

MORTGAGEE'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE.—By virtue of power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by John Bruno, Amelia Bruno and John Tarro to George H. Bubar, dated February 21, 1911, and recorded with the Registry of Deeds for Suffolk County, Book 5155, Page 278, for breach of the conditions contained in said mortgage and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction on the premises on the twenty-fifth day of August, 1915, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, namely:

A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated in the northerly part of said Boston, on Ford Street, and being part of Lot 51 on plan of lots of Ford Street, Neponset, recorded with Plan Book 1, Page 1, and bounded: Fifty (50) feet northeasterly on said Ford Street; thence northwesterly on Lot 52 on said plan, twenty-five (25) feet; southwesterly on Lot 50 on said plan, half, part of said Lot 54, one hundred (100) feet; and

Said lot is sold subject to all unpaid taxes and municipal liens, if any.

Terms and conditions of sale will be announced at the time of sale.

GEORGE H. BUBAR,
Care CARMINE GAROFALO, Atty., 49 Court St.

Real Estate Mortgages.

MONEY for 1st mortgages, city or suburbs. ALBERT AMMANN, 30 state st. F. H. STR. 6.

Farms.

SEND for our farm catalogue for good trades to farms in all conditions. THE MANCHESTER FARM AGENCY, Manchester, N. H.

Summer Cottages.

SELL or rent at a bargain, 7-room Summer cottage on shore of Lake Winthrop, fine location, good water, all conveniences. Address 1 Lake View Road, Brookfield, Mass.

MODERN 6-room cottage on Quincy bay, 5 mins. from South station, sale or rent. ALLEN & BRIGGS, Building Contractors, 1 Beach st., Weymouth. Tel. 1000 Weymouth.

COTTAGE, Quincy, 7½ up, Hancock Avenue and Sagamore, C. E. HALL & CO., Washington st., Dorchester.

Apartments—Allston.

MOST BEAUTIFUL and largest price house, Brighton, Allston, Back Bay, Cambridge, Somerville, Dorchester, Jamaica Plain, Roxbury, Boston. Apply 1284 Commonwealth av., or FRIEND, 45 WOODBURY, 93 Mills st.

Apartments—Jamaica Plain.

UNFURNISHED apartment of 5 rooms and bath, suitable for light housekeeping, as part of estate is to be sold; rent $20 per month; also furnished room and stove; rent $70 per month. Real Estate Department, 1 Oliver st., suite 1, Boston.

Apartments—Arlington.

TO LET—Arlington, 6-room apt., $27. N. w. floor, modern improvements, piazzas. H. McNELLY, 24 Milton st.

Apartments—Back Bay.

BAY STATE TERRACE—226 Bay State rd. (9 min. from Park st.), most beautiful suites in Back Bay; 5 rooms, bath; all kinds of carpet and rugs; grates or stoves; suites decorated to suit; overlooking modern park for the use of residents only; 24-hr. telephone service; janitor provides or FRED'K O. WOODBURY, 93 Mills st.

4 TYT ST., near Dartmouth, fine new building, 2, 3 and 4 rooms, tiled baths, refrigerators, very attractively arranged, $25 to $40 month; hot water heat, janitor service; references required. BAY STATE REALTY ASSOCIATES, 10 State st., Boston.

169 STRATHMORE ROAD and 825, 823 and 821 Beacon st., Brookline, 5 rooms, bath, $30 to $35. Key at 7 Prince st., Brookline, or 1 Beacon st., Boston.

BEAUTIFUL SUITES, 3 to 5 rooms, kitchenette and tiled bath, all conveniences, $30 to $40. Apply to JAMES O'NEILL ASSOCIATES, 10 State st., Boston.

PROFESSIONAL or residence, 261 Massachusetts ave., 10 rooms, 2 baths, all conveniences, $60. D. D. WHITTEMORE, 101 Tremont st.

5-ROOM APARTMENT, all conveniences, $30; continuous hot water, 43 Worthington, cor. Huntington.

NEAT, REAL ESTATE, 121 Mass. av., 1 to 10 room apartments, furnished or unfurnished, $15 up. B. B. 7370.

Apartments—Beachmont.

5-ROOM kitchenette suite, furnished, gas range, electric light, cars pass, $4.50 week. 799 Winthrop av., Tel. Revere 378-R.

Apartments—Brighton.

HUNNEWELL HILL APARTMENT—6 rooms, 2 baths, all conveniences, refrigerator, electric lights, hot water heat, janitor service. Apply on premises, 101 Tremont st., Boston; adults Main 1172.

Apartments—Brookline.

BROOKLINE APARTMENTS

TO LET (with or without garage); 5 rooms; convenient to cars, Coolidge Corner, Longwood and Kenmore sts.; all modern; within block of school house; rent reasonable enough to responsible tenant.

BEACON MTG. & REALTY CO., 201 Devonshire st., Boston.

1118 Commonwealth Av.

APARTMENTS that merit your investigation. Two and three rooms, bath, kitchenette and back, housekeeping suites of 4 rooms and bath; also 5-room suites; all conveniences; refrigerators; hardwood floors and janitor service. Inspection Tuesday and Thursday. HAMMOND & FORD.

1676 COMMONWEALTH AV.—A modern home of 10 rooms, large living room, dining room, steam heat, tile bath, with shower, ready for occupancy; rent reasonable to responsible tenant. Or immediate lease. Apply to janitor on premises or tel. Back Bay 3772-M.

BROOKLINE REDUCED RENTS; desirable tenants; 5 rooms, tiled bath, refrigerator, janitor service; TRUSTEE, 101 Tremont st., room 1001; tel. Main 1172.

Apartments—Cambridge.

NEAR HARVARD SQ.—on Mass. av.—Apartments of 4 rooms and bath; all conveniences; improvements just completed; rents reasonable. M. M. MARKS, 1 Arrow st., Cambridge.

CAMBRIDGE—5-5 and 6-room suites, bath, $25 to $30; also 4-room suite, $20. Apply 5 Lambert st., rear 75 Columbia st.

FURNISHED 3 rooms, kitchenette, 3 of 4 rooms; good locality; child welcome. 61 Pleasant st., Cambridge.

4 ROOMS, all improvements, in connection; rent reasonable. Tel. 2005 M. or apply at 127 Pleasant st.

Apartments—Charlestown.

CHARLESTOWN—New 2, 3 and 5-room apartments, modern conveniences; rents very low. Inspection please at premises 1 Sumner Park ave., off Sumner st.

TO LET—In Charlestown, 5 rooms and bath; all conveniences; rent $18. Apply 1 Sumner Park ave., off Sumner st.

4 ROOMS, gas, range, hot water, lowest rent in Charlestown. 33 wk. 38 Everett st.

Apartments—Dorchester.

The House of Cowan

484 CENTRAL AV., Dorchester, 250 yds. from Dot. av. car line.

NOW is the time to list your homes and apartments for sale or rent and for sale, brokers and buyers welcome.

3 AND 7-ROOM steam-heated suites, janitor service, refrigerators, hot water supply, 30 cars pass and transfer; rents $28 and $35. COWAN, 484 Central av.

STEAM HEATED, $25-$28

THE BLUE HILL AV. Section of Dorchester is the most desirable residential section; all modern conveniences; hot water, janitor service, etc.; rent suite as you like; take 4 rooms or more. HIGH COLONY REALTY ASSOCIATES, 20 State st., phone Fort Hill 3980.

264 COLUMBIA ROAD—Corner house on the boulevard, 7 rooms, bath, steam heat, continuous hot water, janitor service, 2 min. from car; rent only $35 a month; the best suite in Dorchester for the money; we have just had this suite newly painted throughout; chance to get it for the money in the Fall. OLD COLONY REALTY ASSOCIATES, 20 State st., phone Fort Hill 3980.

TO LET—Dorchester, 6-room apartment; must be adult to small family; house open; tel. Dorchester 1000.

TO LET—2 and 3 nice flats; 41 Westwood st.; key next door; rents reasonable. 2 and 4 p. m. Saturday; 318. All inquiries, H. H. HOYT, 70 Kilby st., Boston.

TO LET—Largest flat best suites 2-3 rooms, bath, $4.50. A. P. HALL, 364 Washington st., Dor.

SUITES, $16-$30, in all parts. BYRNE REALTY CO., 344 Geneva av., Tel. Dorchester 2100.

APARTMENT 6 rooms and bath; all improvements; Sidney st., Dor. Tel. 3150-J.

DOR. SUITES—2 and 3 rms., all imp., near Dorch. schools, cars, churches, $14-$18. 16 East st.

Apartments—Miscellaneous.

Do Not Waste Your Energy

LOOKING FOR AN APARTMENT

If You Can't Find What You Want

in the way of a suite, furnished apartment, house or business property, listed in the columns of this paper, get a copy of the

Boston American's New Monthly Renting Register

This guide contains classified lists of nearly all the better vacancies in Greater Boston. It will save renting cooler, easier and much more efficient.

IT'S FREE

At 80-82 Summer St., or 264 Washington St.

Or a copy will be sent free to any address if you make your request to the

MANAGER, REAL ESTATE DEPT.

SEVEN-ROOM SUITE, janitor, tel., every convenience; in fine steam and electric; select neighborhood; $26, or will lease to responsible party. EMAN, 486 Albany st.

GOOD 5 and 4-rm. steam heated suites, $3.50 to $5.25. JANDRUM, 1 Beach st., off 179 Washington st.

FOR COLORED

12 rooms, bath, furnace.....$46 mo.
8 to 6 rooms, bath, pianos.....$28 to $25 mo.
Also 4 houses, 6 rooms, bath.
BAKER & KENNEDY, 709 Tremont st., Boston.

Apartments—Everett.

FIRST floor, 15 rooms, gas and coal ranges, all conveniences, 172 Main st., near Boston line; also bath rooms on improvements, 371 Main st., $20. Apply A. BROWN, 1 Everett st., Everett.

EVERETT—3d Third st. to let, 7 rooms, bath, all conveniences, set tubs, 2 minutes East Everett depot, 4 to electrics. Inquire 30.

Apartments—Jamaica Plain.

UNFURNISHED apartment of 5 rooms and bath, suitable for light housekeeping, as part of estate is to be sold; rent $20 per month. Real Estate Department, 1 Oliver st., suite 1, Boston.

Apartments—Medford.

TO LET—In Medford, 5 rooms, modern improvements, hardwood floors, all kinds of carpet and rugs, 24 Alston st., tel. Medford 1242-M.

Apartments—Milton.

MILTON—2 minutes' walk from Mattapan sq., 5 rooms, gas, electric lights, set tubs, hot water heat, house, front and back piazza, nice yard, all in modern shape; rent $25 per month; 3 adults in a good home. OWNER, 112 Thacher st., Milton. Inexpensive.

Apartments—Revere.

NEAR station, 6 minutes' walk, 28 Revere Beach line, new brick building, 3-4 room apartments; all modern conveniences; rents reasonable. Apply 1 to 3 p. m. 1023 South Shore rd., Revere.

CRESCENT BEACH—7 rooms, flat, h. and c. w., set tubs, all conveniences, 2 minutes to electric cars, shore for balance of season or year round. 51 Crescent Beach rd., Revere.

Apartments—Roxbury.

KENNEY WONDERFUL APARTMENT HOUSE, Heated suites, 4, 5, 6, 7 rooms, $25 to $50 per month; elevator service, hot water heat, refrigerator service, hardwood floors, tiled baths, all modern conveniences; 24-hour janitor service. Apply to Janitor on premises, 1 Kenney st., Roxbury; phone Rox. 1.

MT. PLEASANT AV.—7-room suite, steam heat, janitor service, good location, 15 minutes from business; rent reasonable to responsible party. 1 Mt. Pleasant. Apply to Janitor, or C. E. BRADLEY, 127 Devonshire st.

FINELY located 6-room apartment, heat, piazza, all conveniences, $30. Apply 1 Mt. Pleasant av., Roxbury. Suites $25. Apply premises, 38 Cobden st., suite 1.

5 LARGE sunny rooms, gas and toilet, set range, hot water heat, piazza, $20. Apply 1 Mt. Pleasant av., Roxbury. Suites $25. Apply premises, 38 Cobden st., suite 1.

PICCOWAY, 117 Vernon st.

TO LET—Roxbury, 6-room apartment, hot water heat, gas range, refrigerator, set tubs, $25. Apply 1 Mt. Pleasant av., Roxbury. Tel. Roxbury 87, 341. Rox. 1000-W.

TO LET—Roxbury, 5-room apartment, hot water

Boston American
Editorial Columns

MONDAY, AUGUST 2, 1915.

OUR FIRST DUTY IS TO MAINTAIN PEACE;
OUR NEXT DUTY IS TO PREPARE FOR WAR

WHY ULTIMATUMS TO GERMANY; 'WATCHFUL WAITING' FOR MEXICO?

Loss of American Lives by German Submarines Was Incidental and Not the Purpose of Attack

IN his third note to Germany, President Wilson sharply defined his view of the necessity incumbent upon him to protect the property and lives of American citizens as well as to uphold the dignity and sovereignty of the United States.

He said: "If a belligerent cannot retaliate against an enemy without injuring the lives of neutrals as well as their property, humanity as well as justice and a due regard for the dignity of neutral powers should dictate that the practice be discontinued. If persisted in, it would in such circumstances constitute an unpardonable offence against the sovereignty of the neutral nations affected."

We say Amen to every word of this—assuming, of course, that the neutrals and their property are where they have a lawful right to be.

Naturally, a neutral who takes his person and his property upon a battlefield or into a war zone between hostile armies is entitled to no protection by his government.

It is the business of a neutral to stay away from such places of danger. But with this proviso, which the note might have expressed in the interest of exactness, the President states precisely the duty of this government to protect its citizens and to punish those who persist in assailing the lives and the property of these citizens.

This being the case, we respectfully ask Mr. Wilson why it is that this document IS APPLIED SO FEARLESSLY TO GERMANY AND NOT APPLIED AT ALL TO MEXICO?

Every circumstance of offence against American lives and property with which Germany is charged has been amplified and repeated and "persisted in" by the Mexican belligerents.

Nobody charges that Germany has purposely killed American citizens or injured American property because it was American.

The worst that can be alleged against Germany is that her submarines have sunk ships of Germany's enemies with the loss of lives of Americans who were on those hostile ships.

In other words, the loss of American lives was INCIDENTAL to the submarine attack and not the PURPOSE of that attack.

If, then, it is the duty of our government to interpose peremptory remonstrances and threats of war on account of Germany's incidental killing of Americans and destruction of American property, why is it not Mr. Wilson's imperative duty to put an end to Mexico's DELIBERATE killing of Americans and destruction of American property for the reason that they ARE Americans?

The injuries, cruelties, abominations and murders committed by Mexican belligerents upon American men, women and children have not been incidents of warfare at all.

They have been deliberately, purposely, savagely and persistently committed because it suits the various Mexican revolutionary and counter-revolutionary governments to hate everybody and everything American—including the flag, which they trample under their insulting feet and upon which they spit their malignant venom.

These insults, these destructions of American property, these foul outrages upon American women and children, these cruel murders of American men, are not recent or novel.

They are committed day after day, openly, contemptuously, and have so been committed for the space of three shameful years.

We ask the President again how he can possibly reconcile the sentiments expressed to Germany and the high, threatening tone addressed to Germany, with this long, patient and submissive endurance of Mexican insolence toward our sovereignty, and robbery, outrage and assassination of American men and women?

Mexican Abominations Against Americans Have Been Deliberately and Persistently Committed

We can recall no circumstance of insult, contempt and malignant injury which these Mexican belligerents have neglected to offer to the sovereignty of the United States and to those unfortunate Americans who had taken themselves and their families and their property into Mexico in the belief that this government was able and willing to protect them in any country where they might choose lawfully to dwell.

Our marines, in uniform and under their commanders, have been fired upon and killed at Vera Cruz.

Our soldiers, camped on their own soil and patrolling their own border, have been fired upon and both wounded and killed.

Our citizens, peacefully pursuing their vocations in their own homes, have been deliberately fired upon across the border by Mexican troops and have been killed under the useless shelter of their own flag.

John B. McManus, a citizen of the United States, was shot to death in his own home in Mexico City and his body dragged into the streets with jeers and laughter, while the American flag which he had displayed, and which he raised to protect him, was trampled upon, spit upon and finally torn to shreds in a malignant excess of scorn and hate.

And in every state of Mexico, American men and women have been murdered and their property destroyed and looted among the assassins calling themselves soldiers.

We again ask Mr. Wilson how he can reconcile his willingness—and what almost seems, at times, his eagerness—to plunge this nation into the maelstrom of this awful European war over the loss of American lives, incidental to marine warfare between civilized powers, with his long and inactive endurance of all the insults and outrages of Mexican belligerents to the citizens, the flag, the dignity and the sovereignty of this nation?